PART I.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Personnel of the Administration.

From the 21st March up to the 13th October 1895 Colonel K. J. L. Mackenzie, I.S.C., C.I.E., Commissioner, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, officiated as Resident during the absence on leave of Mr. T. C. Chichele-Plowden, I. C.S., C.S.I., who held the office of Resident during the rest of the year. The office of First Assistant and Secretary for Berar to the Resident was held by Mr. A. L. P. Tucker, I.C.S., up to the 18th of November 1895, and for the rest of the year by Mr. A. Williams, I.C.S., L.L.M. The office of Second Assistant and Assistant Secretary for Berar was held throughout the year by Mr. W. E. Jardine, I.C.S. Colonel H. C. A. Szczepanski, I.S.C., a Deputy Commissioner of the 1st class, officiated as Commissioner, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, from the beginning of the year till the forenoon of the 13th June 1895, and from that date till the end of the year the office was held by Mr. F. S. Bullock, I.C.S. The office of Judicial Commissioner, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, was held by Mr. F. S. Bullock from the commencement of the year till he was relieved by Mr. R. Obbard, B.A., I.C.S., on the 14th June, and Mr. Obbard continued to hold that office till the end of the year.

Survey and settlement.

2. Four survey parties were at work during the year: two were continuously engaged in revision work; the third partly in the preparation of registers for the izara villages, the measurement and classification of which was completed during the previous year, and partly in revision work; and the fourth in the initial survey of the Melghat taluk. The two parties engaged in revision work first completed the revision survey of the Chikhli taluk of the Buldana district, and were joined in November 1895 by the third party referred to above, and all three parties then commenced operations in the Akola and Akot taluks of the Akola district, and, in order to test the old work, entirely remeasured six villages in the former and four in the latter taluk. The revision survey parties on the whole finished 834,921 acres at a cost of Rs. 15-14-2 per square mile. The izara work of the province came to a close during the year, and the initial survey of the Melghat was started. The party employed in the Melghat commenced its work in January 1896, and measured and classed 8,385 and 15,460 acres respectively at a cost of Rs. 90-2-6 per square mile. The total cost of the survey parties was Rs. 25,116. According to the revised working plan prepared during the year in connection with the revision survey operations of the province, it is anticipated that the work will be completed two years earlier than was originally estimated. Proposals for the revision settlement of the Balapur taluk in the Akola district were sanctioned, and the revised rates announced in February 1896. These rates will be payable for 1896-97. The revision settlement report of the Chikhli taluk in the Buldana district was received during the year, and orders on it have been passed since the close of the year.

Waste lands.

3. The area of culturable assessed waste lands during the year was 307,529 acres, or 2·8 per cent. of the total area of the province, the major portion of which (viz., 293,366 acres) belonged to the Wun and Basim districts and the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district. In khalsa villages 12,082 acres of unoccupied land were newly occupied during the year and 19,937 acres of occupied land were relinquished, the largest relinquishments, excluding the Melghat, being in the Wun district.

Leased villages.

4. The number of leased villages in the province at the close of the year was 470, with an aggregate area of 861,524 acres. Of this area 104,174 acres were unoccupied, and the remainder was occupied, an assessment of Rs. 1,06,385 being paid in respect of it.

Course of legislation.

5. During the year 1895 no Acts were applied to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, and only the rules specified in section I of Chapter III were issued.

Police.

6. A slight decrease in the police force of the province was effected during the year by the withdrawal of the military drill instructors temporarily deputed from the Hyderabad Contingent and the abolition of certain outposts in the Basim district. The sanctioned strength of the force at the close of the year stood at 9 gazetted officers, 567 subordinate officers, and 2,334 constables, or a total of all ranks of 2,910 as against 2,918 in 1894.

A noticeable feature in the administration of the police is the general diminution throughout the province in the number of cases of cognizable crime. The total number of cognizable cases (exclusive of nuisance cases) fell from 5,443 to 5,158, and the fall in this class of crime has been steady since 1892. Of the cases that occurred 84·7 per cent. were investigated by the police, and the percentage of police cases in which convictions were obtained was 65·9. The number of persons arrested and summoned was 8,932 as against 9,019 in 1894. The proportion of stolen property recovered was 25·3 as compared with 22·4 per cent. in 1894. The number of non-cognizable cases, on the other hand, increased slightly, being 6,706 as against 6,579 in 1894.

Anthropometry.

7. A set of rules for the working of the anthropometrical system of identifying criminals was issued during the year, but it will be some little time before the system can be brought into proper working order.

Criminal Justice.

8. The number of criminal courts open during the year was the same as in the preceding year, namely, 72. There was a slight decrease of criminal business in 1895 as compared with the preceding year. Offences reported fell from 17,978 to 17,468—a decrease of 510, or 2·8 per cent. Cases returned as true decreased from 14,655 to 14,288—a decrease of 367, or 2·5 per cent. Cases brought to trial decreased from 12,222 to 12,004—a falling off of 218, or 1·7 per cent. There were 20,701 persons for disposal by Magistrates during the year. Of these 20,398, or 98·5 per cent., were disposed of, of whom 11,486 were discharged or acquitted and 8,147 were convicted. Of the persons sentenced to punishments of all kinds, 5 were sentenced to be hanged, 34 to transportation, 1,706 to imprisonment, 6,402 were fined, and 563 were sentenced to be whipped. Offences affecting the human body decreased by 150, and offences against property by 131 cases. Fines imposed amounted to Rs. 50,549-6-9 as against Rs. 58,957 in 1894. The average duration of cases disposed of in Magistrates' Courts remained the same as in the previous year, viz., 8·3 days. The number of witnesses was 39,906, of whom 79·2 per cent. were detained for one day only, 14·3 per cent. for two days, 4·3 per cent. for three days, and 2·2 per cent. for more than three days. The Sessions Court tried 152 persons in its original jurisdiction, of whom 86 were convicted. The percentage of acquittals in Sessions cases fell from 60·2 to 42·1 per cent. The total number of appeals for disposal was 955. Of this number 930 were disposed of during the year.

Jails.

9. The status of the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts remained unaltered during the year. The scheme for enlarging the Amraoti jail and converting it into a central jail for the province is still under consideration. The number of jail population at the beginning of the year was 1,296 and the number admitted during the year was 3,601 as against 1,379 and 2,982 respectively in the preceding year. Of these, the number discharged during the year was 3,482 and the number left in jail at the end of the year was 1,415. The average daily strength was 1,318·83 as against 1,285·47 in 1894, or an increase of 2·7 per cent. over the figures of the preceding year. Of the 3,601 persons admitted to jail, 1,683 were convicts sentenced to imprisonment and admitted into jail during the year, of whom 1,446 were Hindus, 230 Muhammadans, and 7 belonged to other classes. The proportion of very short sentences not exceeding one month fell considerably during the year, while that of sentences above one month and not exceeding one year increased. Of the convicts imprisoned during the year, 7·78 per cent. had been previously convicted as against 10·17 per cent. in 1894. The average daily number of convicts under sentence of labour was 1,090. Of these 51·4 per cent. were employed on manufactures, and the rest, with the exception of 5·5 per cent. who were unable to work, were employed on other duties. The net total cost of the jails was Rs. 58,017 and the net cost per head of average strength was Rs. 44 as against Rs. 57,858 and Rs. 45 respectively in the preceding year.

Civil Justice.

10. The number of officers actually employed on civil judicial work on the last working day of the year was 41, or one more than in 1894. The total number of suits for disposal was 33,389—a decrease of 2,528, or 7·6 per cent. as compared with 1894, and the number disposed of was 27,923, or 83·6 per cent. of those for disposal. Of suits instituted, 24,384 were for money or movable property as against 26,218 in the previous year—a decrease of 1,834, or 7 per cent. The aggregate value of suits disposed of was Rs. 41,39,962 as against Rs. 40,53,167, or an increase of Rs. 86,795, or 2·1 per cent. The average value increased from Rs. 135 to Rs. 152. 75·6 per cent. of the suits were uncontested and 24·2 contested; the rest were either cases in which plaints were rejected or returned, or cases decided by arbitration. The average duration of contested cases was 123·7 days, while that of uncontested cases was 58·3 days, the corresponding figures for 1894 being 132·4 and 60·4 days respectively. The number of applications for execution of decrees disposed of during the year was 29,919, or 81·2 per cent. of the number for disposal. Of these 3,560 were transferred to other courts, in 3,842 the decrees were fully satisfied, in 3,977 they were partly satisfied, and 18,540 applications were wholly infructuous. The total amount realized on decrees during the year was Rs. 3,30,588-10-9 as compared with Rs. 3,35,355-0-9 in 1894. There were 54 applications in bankruptcy as against 44 in the previous year. Of these only 5 were granted. The total amount of fees realized during the year was Rs. 4,73,835-5-0—court fees Rs. 3,67,726-4-0, and process fees Rs. 1,06,109-1-0. The cost of the processserving establishment was Rs. 64,288-14-2 as against Rs. 64,651-8-0 in the previous year. Including appeals pending from last year, there were 1,689 appeals for disposal as against 1,749 in 1894, and 888 were disposed of.

Registration.

11. The number of registration offices rose from 63 to 68. Though the total number of registrations fell from 34,678 in 1894-95 to 33,942 in 1895-96, the aggregate value of property transferred rose from Rs. 1,02,91,099 to Rs. 1,08,21,118. Of the number of documents registered, 92 per cent. related to immovable property, the aggregate value involved being Rs. 1,05,35,564. The total receipts of the department amounted to Rs. 84,940 as against Rs. 86,014 in 1894-95, and the expenditure to Rs. 50,161 as against Rs. 47,550 in the preceding year. The aggregate surplus earned by the department since its formation stood at Rs. 4,81,159 at the end of the year.

Municipalities.

12. A new municipality was established at Karinja during the year under report, and this brought the total number of municipalities in the province to 12 as against 11 in the preceding year. The aggregate municipal income came to Rs. 2,45,807 as against Rs. 2,56,314 in the preceding year, and the expenditure to Rs. 2,52,332 as compared with 2,59,684 in 1894-95. The incidence of taxation per head of population ranged from Rs. 1-11-0 to 3 annas 6 pies.

Local Boards.

13. During the year there were, as in the previous year, 6 district boards and 21 taluk boards in the province. The Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district is the only tract in Berar outside municipal area which still continues to remain exempted from the operation of the provisions of the Berar Rural Boards Law. The number of persons entitled to vote was 26,719, but of these only 10·59 per cent. exercised the right of voting as against 9·73 in the preceding year. The total income of the boards during the year was Rs. 6,57,924 as against Rs. 6,58,926 in the preceding year, and the total expenditure Rs. 7,54,084 as against Rs. 6,57,935 in 1894-95. Of the expenditure incurred by the boards during the year, Rs. 3,01,850 were spent on Public Works, Rs. 2,00,570 on Education, Rs. 19,503 on Superannuation Allowances and Pensions, and the rest on Post Offices, Medical Institutions, and other objects. The average incidence of taxation per head of population was 8 pies as against 6 pies in 1894-95, and the incidence of income, excluding the opening balance, per head of population was 3 annas 10 pies as against 4 annas 5 pies in the preceding year.

Military.

14. The only place in Berar at which a military force is stationed is Ellichpur. During the year the force consisted of a detachment of the Hyderabad Contingent having a strength of 126 artillery and 804 infantry.

Agriculture.

15. Of the total area of the province (viz., 11,351,256 acres), 71·2 per cent. was culturable assessed land, 68·4 per cent. being in occupation and 2·8 per cent. waste. Of the total culturable land available for occupation in the province, excluding the Melghat, only 3·4 per cent. remained unoccupied, while 96·6 per cent. was occupied. Taking into account only the khalsa villages of the province, except the Melghat, the proportion of occupied and unoccupied areas stood as 98 to 2. The total culturable assessed land in occupation in the whole of the province was 7,775,038 acres, of which 86·4 per cent. was under crops. Of the area under crops, 65·5 per cent. was under kharif, 20·7 per cent.

under rabi, and ·3 per cent. under garden and miscellaneous crops, leaving 7·6 per cent. under grass and 5·9 fallow. The principal crops grown were, as usual, jowari, cotton, wheat, linseed, gram, and tur, and they occupied respectively 37·1, 30·8, 11·1, 7·4, 3·0, and 3·1 per cent. of the cropped area. The area under irrigation fell from 42,562 to 41,304 acres.

Rainfall.

16. The rainfall was deficient and its distribution uneven, the average for the different districts amounting to 25 inches and 89 cents, or 15 inches and 18 cents below the average of the preceding year. Scarcity of water was keenly felt, and rabi crops failed partially. Linseed and cotton crops, however, thrived well, and the latter crop yielded a splendid outturn.

Agricultural stock and horse-breeding operations.

17. As stated in previous reports, the statistics relating to agricultural stock supplied by the village patwaris are only approximate, and are not susceptible of check. The two remaining pony stallions belonging to Government were sold shortly after the commencement of the year. Horse-breeding operations have failed in Berar, and have been finally abandoned.

Loans to cultivators.

18. The amount advanced to agriculturists was Rs. 30,661, of which Rs. 29,652 were under the Land Improvement Loans Act and Rs. 1,009 under the Agriculturists Loans Act.

Cattle disease and veterinary.

19. Two serious outbreaks of rinderpest of a very fatal character were reported from the Jalgaon and Daryapur taluks. Foot-and-mouth disease was prevalent in the Basim district, but was not of a serious nature. Attacks of all sorts numbered 29,190, of which 10,003 were of foot-and-mouth disease, 9,595 of rinderpest, 2,310 of anthrax, 1,677 of pleuro-pneumonia, and 5,605 of other diseases. Of the number attacked, 57·02 per cent. recovered and 42·98 per cent. died.

Prices of produce and wages of labour.

20. There was a slight increase in the prices of wheat, gram, and rice, while there was a slight decrease in the price of jowari. There was not much difference between the wages of labour of 1894-95 and 1895-96.

Arboriculture.

21. At the close of the year under report, the number of nurseries maintained was 6, and the mileage of avenues planted 339 miles. The gross expenditure incurred on arboricultural operations during the year came to Rs. 41,421 and the receipts to Rs. 3,374.

Forests.

22. At the end of the Forest year ending 30th June 1896, the total area of State-forests in Berar was 4,178 square miles, or 23·5 per cent. of the entire area of the province, as against 4,179 square miles at the close of the preceding year. Boundary lines and marks were correctly maintained, except in Basim and Wun, where permanent boundary marks have yet to be set up in the new A and B reserves. The total expenditure on demarcation during the year was Rs. 2,331 as against Rs. 2,412 in the preceding year. The aggregate area under fire protection rose from 1,391 square miles to 1,413 square miles, of which 28 square miles were burnt as against 7 square miles in the preceding year; but considering that the season was the most trying on record, the success achieved was creditable. The cost of protection was about the same as in the preceding year, viz., Rs. 9·6 per square mile. Working plans for 721 square miles were completed at the beginning of the year, and plans for 4 square miles were put in hand at the close of the year, leaving 3,453 square miles still to be dealt with. The long pending question of free grazing has finally been settled. The total expenditure incurred on forest works was Rs. 15,058, of which Rs. 7,625 were spent on roads, Rs. 6,203 on buildings, and Rs. 1,230 on wells. The receipts of the year were Rs. 4,95,899 and the expenditure was Rs. 2,27,862, leaving a surplus of Rs. 2,68,037.

Manufactures.

23. The manufactures of the province are chiefly confined to twist and yarn, coarse cotton cloth, and oil. There is a cotton weaving mill at Badnera and three oil mills—two at Amraoti and one at Shegaon; but the cotton presses and ginning factories worked by steam power are the most important industries of the province. The mill at Badnera produced 1,049,266 lbs. of twist and yarn and 991,782 lbs. of cloth during the year. The two oil mills at Amraoti produced 654 tons of oil and 1,355 tons of oil cakes, and the Shegaon mill turned out 643 tons of oil. There were altogether 33 cotton presses and 66 ginning factories during the year as against 31 and 60 respectively in 1894-95 under the management of private firms and joint stock companies. The total number of factories coming within the scope of the Factories Act was 67 as against 66 in the preceding year. The total number of hands employed in them was 5,967 as against 5,852 in 1894. There was no difficulty whatever in enforcing the provisions of the Act. The Berar Manufacturing Company's Mill established at Badnera was the only mill dealt with under the provisions of the Cotton Duties Act, which was applied to Berar on the 27th December 1894. The total quantity of all cotton yarns produced from the 27th December 1894 to the 31st March 1895 was 417,089, and the total quantity produced during 1895-96 was 1,890,459 lbs.

Rail-borne trade.

24. Imports amounted to 3,146,000 maunds (value Rs. 1,97,94,000) and exports to 3,809,000 (value Rs. 4,40,82,000) as against 3,202,000 maunds (value Rs. 1,77,23,000) and 2,691,000 maunds (value Rs. 3,07,40,000) respectively in the preceding year, and thus both the quantity and value of the total trade of the province has considerably increased. The bulk of the trade of the province, both imports and exports, was with Bombay and the Central Provinces. The principal articles of import were coal and coke, manufactured cotton goods, grain and pulse, metals, oils, provisions, salt, spices, and sugar; while those of export were raw cotton, manufactured cotton goods, dyes and tans, grain and pulse, and oil-seeds. The export in raw cotton during the year was the largest on record.

Road-borne trade.

25. The registration of the road-borne trade was conducted during the year in the southern portion of Berar bordering on His Highness the Nizam's territory. The total imports registered amounted to 380,751 maunds and the exports to 141,965 maunds. The chief articles of both import and export were cotton both raw and manufactured, grain and pulse, oils, oil-seeds, and sugar. The cost of registration amounted to Rs. 4,945 during 1895-96.

Public Works.

26. The aggregate amount spent on Public Works from all sources during the year was Rs. 17,26,203 distributed thus:—Imperial Services, Rs. 29,848; Provincial Services, Rs. 10,21,308; Local Funds, Rs. 3,06,034; Railways, 97,761; and Contribution Works, Rs. 2,71,252. Of the provincial expenditure, 2·8 per cent. was spent on military buildings, 19·1 per cent. on civil buildings, 49·2 per cent. on communications, 4·2 per cent. on miscellaneous public improvements, and the remaining 24·7 per cent. on establishment, &c. Details of the works executed will be found in Part II, paragraphs 143 to 150 on pages 47 to 51 of this report. The principal contribution work is the Secunderabad water-works scheme, and the expenditure incurred on it during the year was Rs. 2,18,489.

Railways.

27. The total expenditure incurred on the Amraoti and Khamgaon State Railways was, as already stated, Rs. 97,761, and their net earnings were respectively 8·50 and 4·99 per cent. on the capital outlay.

Revenue and Finance.

28. The gross revenue of the province during the year 1895-96 amounted to Rs. 1,23,38,787, and the total disbursements to Rs. 1,11,90,857. Omitting the receipts and disbursements of the Incorporated and Excluded Local Funds and the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railway Police receipts and charges adjusted in the accounts during the year under review, the Provincial surplus was Rs. 11,23,863 compared with a surplus of Rs. 4,69,071 for the year 1894-95. The amount paid to His Highness the Nizam during the year 1895-96 was Rs. 2,91,726. This sum represe nts the balance of the surplus of the years 1890-91 to 1893-94 unpaid for want of funds, and a portion of the surplus of the year 1894-95; the balance at the credit of the British Administration of Berar on 31st March 1896 was Rs. 42,02,262. Of the gross income, Rs. 1,04,49,319 were derived from Provincial Revenues, Rs. 8,65,108 from Incorporated, and Rs. 10,24,360 from Excluded Local Funds. Rs. 93,24,701 of the Provincial Revenues, Rs. 10,01,048 of the Excluded Local Funds, and the whole of the Incorporated Local Funds revenue were utilized.

The Provincial contract shows a deficit of Rs. 38,169. The expenditure during the first four years of the present contract has exceeded by Rs. 2,56,144 the revenue assigned during that period plus the balance of the previous contract, namely, Rs. 7,12,306, placed at the credit of the Resident to meet the deficit anticipated for the whole period of the present contract. The balance in favor of the Resident at the close of 1895-96, inclusive of Rs. 5,00,000 allowed for any extraordinary emergencies in accordance with paragraph 4 of the Government of India, Finance Department, Resolution No. 5957, dated 5th November 1887, was under the above circumstances Rs. 2,43,856 only.

As compared with the transactions of the previous year, the receipts under certain heads show improvement. The only important exceptions are Excise, Provincial Rates, Law and Justice—Courts of Law, Police, Stationery and Printing; Contributions from Local to Provincial and Contributions from Provincial to Local under Civil and Ordnance Establishments, &c., under Military showing a net increase of Rs. 2,47,724. The causes of the several variations in the Revenue and Receipt heads are explained in the body of the report. As regards Expenditure heads, the principal increases have been separately explained. The outlay under the following heads shows decrease, namely—6. Stamps, 7. Excise, 11. Forest, 18. General Administration, 19-B. Law and Justice—Jails, 20. Police, 22. Education, 26. Scientific and other Minor Departments, 30. Stationery and Printing, 32. Miscellaneous, Contributions from Provincial to Local and Contributions from Local to Provincial under Civil. The expenditure of the Public Works Department also shows a considerable decrease. The decreases under the several Military heads of expenditure have been separately detailed and explained in the body of the report. They amount to a net decrease of Rs. 4,07,823. The decrease under Excise is due to the transfer to General Administration of the salary and allowances of the Deputy Superintendent of Excise. The decrease under Forest is principally under "A-II. Timber and other produce, &c.," and is due to less expenditure in the cost of collection and carriage of hilda than in the previous year. During 1894-95 there was a large outlay under General Admi nistration owing to the payment of privilege leave allowances, increased tour charges of the Resident, and the inspection of the office of the Comptroller by the Deputy Auditor-General, which took longer than usual. A decrease under this head in 1895-96 is the net result after allowing for increase of expenditure for the salary and allowances of the Inspector-General of Police and his Personal Assistant, which are being charged to this head from 14th June 1895. The decrease under Law and Justice—Jails is due to a portion of the salary of the Inspector-General being now debited to General Administration. During 1894-95 heavy expenditure was incurred under the head Police on account of the payment of arrears of contributions from cattle pound receipts to municipalities, the Chikalda sanitarium, and the Melghat taluk; and also on account of privilege leave allowances of officers and an increase in the cost of clothing and arms and accoutrements, and the refund of cattle pound receipts transferred in excess to the credit of the District Fund in the previous year. These causes, combined with the transfer of a portion of the Inspector-General's salary and allowances to General Administration, account for the decrease under the head Police in 1895-96. The decrease under Education is chiefly owing to savings in establishment charges and contingencies, and to a decrease under the sub-heads under "Grants-in-Aid," Indigeneous schools, and under Purchase and publication of books. The decrease under Scientific and other Minor Departments is due to the absence of the Veterinary Superintendent on furlough. The decrease under Stationery and Printing is chiefly under the heads "Lithography," "Cost of materials and stock," and "Stationery supplied from Central Stores." The decrease under Miscellaneous is chiefly under "Loss by exchange on local transactions," a fluctuating head of account not subject to regular influences. The decrease under Contributions from Provincial to Local is due to the resumption of the Provincial grant for primary education. The decrease under Contributions from Local to Provincial is due to the circumstance that no contributions from the District Fund were received on account of Public Works.

Vital statistics.

29. The system of registration of births and deaths adopted in Berar is effective. The total number of births registered during 1895 was 105,952 as against 94,759 in 1894. The ratio of birth-rate to population was 37·2 per mille as compared with 33·3 in the preceding year. The proportion of the sexes born were 105·2 males to every 100 females. Judging from the figures of mortality, the year was generally more unhealthy than the preceding one; indeed, according to the Sanitary Commissioner's statement, it was unhealthy beyond the average. The total number of deaths registered during the year was 141,937 as against 119,561 in 1894, an increase of 22,376. The increase in mortality occurred chiefly under cholera, dysentery, and diarrhœa. The death-rate was 49·9 per 1,000—a rate which has only been exceeded twice in the last twenty-eight years.

Medical relief.

30. During the year under report there was no change in the number of medical institutions in the province. At the 8 civil hospitals and 38 charitable dispensaries, the total number of patients treated was 4,912 in-door and 346,443 out-door, and the average daily attendance was 140·30 in-door and 2218·57 out-door patients. Of the total in-door patients treated, 82·8 per cent. were cured. The aggregate cost of all these institutions was Rs. 99,011.

The Dufferin Hospital for women and children at Amraoti, which was opened on the 15th January 1895, is reported to be working very satisfactorily.

Sanitation.

31. No new sanitary works of any magnitude were undertaken during the year, but satisfactory progress was made with the drainage works at Shegaon, and the practicability of undertaking the drainage of Amraoti Town is being considered. Leaving Karinja out of consideration, the municipalities of the province spent 5·6 per cent. of their aggregate estimated income on drainage, 10·9 per cent. on water-supply, and 28·7 per cent. on domestic cleansing. District Boards incurred an expenditure of Rs. 85,751 on works of sanitary improvement as against Rs. 1,22,592 in 1894 and Rs. 93,578 in 1893. The question of a sanitary law for Berar has been under consideration for some time past.

Vaccination.

32. There was a decrease both in primary vaccinations and re-vaccinations during the year as compared with the results of the preceding two years. The fall in primary vaccination is mainly attributed to the unhealthiness of the past two years, and that in re-vaccination to popular prejudice. The number of primary vaccinations performed during the year was 88,917, of which 95·9 per cent. proved successful. Re-vaccination cases numbered 13,911, of which 23·4 per cent. were successful. The number of successful vaccinations and re-vaccinations during the year amounted to 31·8 per mille of the population as against 32·2 in the previous year. The cost of the department amounted to Rs. 17,724 as against Rs. 17,577 in 1894-95. The average cost of each successful vaccination was 3 annas and 1 pie as against 3 annas in 1894-95 and 2 annas and 9 pies in 1893-94. The Vaccination Act, XIII of 1888, was in force in all the municipalities in Berar except Karinja.

Education.

33. Partly owing to the unhealthiness of the year, but mainly owing to the gradual closing of indigenous schools, education did not make any progress during the year under report. The total number of schools and pupils fell to 1,180 and 49,243 from 1,228 and 49,985 respectively in 1894-95. Girl scholars increased by 500, though the number of girls' schools fell by one. The number of girls attending boys' schools has also increased. The percentage of male scholars to male population fell from 21·01 to 20·46. Out of the 42 boys sent up from the two Government high schools, 18 passed the matriculation examination, and one of these won the second Jagannath Shankarshet Sanskrit scholarship—a result not before achieved since the establishment of high schools in Berar. A private high school was opened at Amraoti in December 1895. The middle schools have remained almost stationary. The District Board primary schools have shown a satisfactory increase both in their number and attendance and in the numbers of scholars who passed the examinations. The position of Municipal primary schools remained unchanged. Owing to temporary financial exigencies, the grant to primary education from Provincial revenues was entirely withdrawn during the year under report. The most unfavorable feature of the year's report was the steady decline of indigenous schools. The attendance at Muhammadan schools has improved. The total number of aboriginal pupils in the province was 166 as against 123 in the preceding year. Physical education received due attention. A new industrial school was opened at Amraoti during the year. School fees rose from Rs. 58,141 to Rs. 58,618, and popular contributions from Rs. 9,133 to Rs. 9,199. The total expenditure of the department fell from Rs. 4,32,958 to Rs. 4,11,883. The expenditure from district funds and subscriptions increased, but that from other sources fell off, the decrease in the expenditure from Provincial revenues being no less than Rs. 1,06,733.

Literature and the Press.

34. The number of books registered under Act XXV of 1867 during the year under report was 17 as against 19 in the preceding year. Nine of these were issues of the Berar School Paper, and five were issues of the Dñyan Sangraha, a monthly magazine.

The number of libraries or reading rooms opened during the year was four and the number closed was the same. Thus the total number of libraries in the province was still 39. The number of printing presses during the year was 11 as against 10 in the preceding year.

The office of the Second Assistant and Assistant Secretary for Berar was held throughout the year by Mr. W. E. Jardine, I.C.S.

Changes in Berar.

8. Colonel H.C.A. Mr. Bullock continued to hold that office till the end of the year. The office of the Judicial Commissioner was held by Mr. F. S. Bullock from the beginning of the year till he was relieved of those duties by Mr. R. Obbard, B.A., on 14th June 1895, and Mr. Obbard continued to hold that office for the rest of the year.

RELATIONS WITH TRIBUTARY STATES AND FRONTIER AFFAIRS.

CHAPTER II.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND.

SECTION I.

SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT.

Extent and nature of work.

10. A description of the extent and nature of the survey and settlement work in progress in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts has already been given in paragraphs 10 and 11 of the Administration Report of the province for 1893-94.

Field parties and their employment.

11. Four survey parties were at work during the year. Two parties, A and B, were employed continuously in revision work. The third party, in charge of the Assistant Director of Land Records and Agriculture, was engaged on the measurement and classification of izara villages in the Wun and Basim districts. It finished all its field work in February 1895, and thereafter was employed in the check and examination of all the field papers and maps and in the preparation of settlement registers of all izara villages till 31st October 1895. The izara work having then been brought to a termination, the appointment of the Assistant Director of Land Records and Agriculture was abolished, and the party thenceforward came to be known as party C, and was transferred to assist in the revision operations.

The fourth party, which did not commence operations till January 1896, was employed on the initial survey of the Melghat. Thus the field work of the year was confined to revision operations and to the initial survey of the Melghat. The two parties A and B continued to work in the Chikhli taluk of the Buldana district till they completed the revision of that tract in June 1895. Then they were joined by party C in November 1895, and commenced their operations in the Akola and Akot taluks of the Akola district, and as a test of the old work entirely remeasured six villages in the former and four in the latter taluk.

Outturn of survey work and cost.

12. The following statement contrasts the work done and the expenditure incurred by the revision survey parties during 1895-96 with those of 1894-95, and shows similar particulars relating to the Melghat initial survey party for 1895-96 :—

Year.	District and taluk.	No. of Government villages.		Measurement.	Confirmed.	Classification.	Boundary mark inspection.	Total expenditure.	Cost per acre.	Cost per square mile.

*Does not include cost of supervision.

The total strength of the revision survey parties for five months (1st November 1895 to 31st March 1896) was much greater than in the previous year, but there was a corresponding increase in the amount of work turned out. The easy nature of the country in which the operations were conducted also contributed to this increase in the amount of work.

It was found that the forest survey of the Melghat would not be so useful for revenue purposes as was anticipated at first owing to the absence of boundary marks in cultivated areas, which will much delay the progress of the work.

Revised working plan.

13. During the year under report the question of preparing a revised working plan in connection with the revision survey operations of the province was taken in hand. It is anticipated that according to the revised plan the work will be completed two years earlier than was originally estimated.

Settlement.

14. Proposals for the revision settlement of the Balapur taluk in the Akola district were sanctioned in August 1895, and the revised rates were announced in February 1896, and will be payable for 1896-97.

The revision settlement report of the Chikhli taluk in the Buldana district was received during the year, and orders on it have been passed since the close of the year.

SECTION II.

WASTE LANDS.

Culturable land not occupied.

15. From the first tabular statement in Chapter IV, Section I, of this Report it will be observed that of the total culturable assessed land of 8,082,567 acres in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts 307,529 acres, or 2·8 per cent. of the total area of the province, remained unoccupied. The following table shows the distribution of this area :—

		Classification of villages.					Total for villages of all classes.

Unoccupied land newly taken up and occupied land relinquished in khalsa villages.

16. Of the unoccupied land in khalsa villages, 12,082 acres were brought under cultivation during the year, of which 4,787 acres were in the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district, 3,171 in the Basim district, 3,050 in the Wun district, and the balance in the remaining three districts of Akola (761), Amraoti (281), and Buldana (32). The total area of occupied land relinquished during the year was 19,937 acres, and this decreased the occupied area in the province by 7,855 acres. The largest relinquishment was in the Wun district, amounting to 11,488 acres; the next largest, 5,173 acres, was in the Melghat. Of the total area abandoned, only 15 acres represent lands actually relinquished by razinama, and the rest represents (1) areas reduced by remeasurement at the revision survey; (2) areas taken up for the Januna tank; and (3) areas converted into State-forest of class A.

SECTION II.

POLICE.

Strength and cost.

22. During the year under report the military drill instructors temporarily deputed from the Hyderabad Contingent were withdrawn, and their places were ordered to be supplied by the enlistment of two additional head constables as drill instructors in each district. Besides this, the remaining frontier posts in the Basim district were abolished on the 1st April 1895. With these changes the total sanctioned strength of the police force at the end of the year under report was brought to 9 gazetted officers (including the Inspector-General of Police), 567 subordinate officers, and 2,334 men, or a total of all ranks of 2,910 as against 2,918. The proportion of the whole police force to area and population of the province was 1 to every 6·08 square miles and every 998 of the population. The total cost of the force amounted to Rs. 5,66,360 as against Rs. 5,68,598 in 1894.

Equipment.

23. Of the total number of 2,901 subordinate officers and men, 1,018 were provided with fire-arms, 1,400 with swords only or swords and batons, and 483 with batons only.

Classification by race and religion.

24. Omitting gazetted officers and the 50 vacancies that existed on the 31st December 1895, the actual strength of the remaining force numbered 2,852. Of these 4 were Europeans, 12 Eurasians, and 2,836 natives. Classified according to religion, 27 were Christians, 1,096 Muhammadans, 4 Parsis, and 1,725 Hindus.

Health.

25. The percentage in hospital of the total strength of the force ranged from 35·5 in the Amraoti district to 63·7 in the Ellichpur district. These figures and the figures of the other districts as compared with the statistics of the previous year show a decrease in the percentage of admission into hospitals in all the districts except Wun, which returned a percentage of 63·3 during the year under report as against 50·9 in 1894. Judging from these figures, it would appear that the health of the force improved in all the districts except Wun, although the total number of deaths in the force was unusually large, being 62 as against 29 and 35 in 1894 and 1893 respectively.

Conduct and discipline.

26. The details given in the statement below show the conduct and discipline of the force for the years 1894 and 1895:—

Year.	Sanctioned strength of subordinate officers and men.	Length of service of number on roll at end of year.			Punishments.			Number rewarded.	Number who left the force owing to the following causes.
		Number enlisted during the year.	Number with service of one year and under ten years.	Number with service of ten years and upwards.	Departmental.		Judicial.		On pension and gratuity.	By resignation without pension or gratuity.	By discharge otherwise than under columns 6, 10 and 11.	By desertion.
					Dismissals.	Others, i.e., fine, degradation, or suspension.	By a Magistrate.

General state of crime.

27. A noticeable feature of the year is the diminution in the number of cases of cognizable crime, which was general throughout the province. The number of cases in 1895 under this head, excluding cases of public nuisances, was 5,158 as against 5,443 in 1894, 5,637 in 1893, and 5,880 in 1892. This shows a steady decrease under this class of crime since 1892.

The following statement furnishes comparative details for 1894 and 1895 :—

Nature of offence.	Number. 1894.	1895.
Class I.—Offences against the State, public tranquillity, safety, and justice.	76	70
„ II.—Serious offences against the person.	246	248
„ III.—Serious offences against person and property or against property only.	1,590	1,484
„ IV.—Minor offences against the person.	172	155
„ V.—Minor offences against property.	2,978	2,903
„ VI.—Other offences not specified above.	3,677	3,964
Total ...	8,739	8,824
Deduct public nuisances ...	3,296	3,666
Total of cognizable offences, excluding public nuisances.	5,443	5,158

28. The following table compares the statistics relating to some of the more important offences committed during 1895 with those for 1894 :— Serious crime.

Nature of offence.		Number. 1894.	1895.
Rioting and unlawful assembly ...	Total ...	37	30
Murders ...	(1) For robbery	2	9
	(2) Of illegitimate or other children, not for robbery	8	2

Robberies ...	Total ...	44	65
House-breakings,	Cases in which no property o· property less than Rs. 10 in value was taken	805	630
	Cases in which property of Rs. 10 in value and upwards was taken ...	606	625
	Total ...	1,411	1,255

Nature of offence.		Number. 1894.	1895.
Theft ...	Cases in which no property or property less than Rs. 10 in value was stolen	1,626	1,594
	Cases in which property of Rs. 10 in value and upwards was stolen	738	729

The serious offences of dakaiti and robbery were more numerous, and the failure of the police to bring the persons concerned to justice was more conspicuous during the year under report than in previous years. Under murder there has been an increase of only one case over the number for the previous year, and the decrease shown under house-breaking is satisfactory as indicating a break in the continuity of the rise of this class of offence for the past three years, though Amraoti is still responsible for a very large proportion of crime under this head. Under theft also there has been a slight decrease during the year under report.

In the Amraoti district a gang of Rohilla burglars of Badnera was broken up, and the leaders were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment. In the Wun district the punitive police located on certain tandas of Banjaras during the year has had a good effect, and the force has now been withdrawn. In the Buldana district some gangs of Bhils who had given much trouble along the hill ranges were successfully dealt with; an association of Mangs who had been concerned in many house-breakings was also dispersed.

Working of the police in cognizable cases.

29. The following abstract gives a summary of the working of the police and the results of police action as regards all cognizable offences during 1894 and 1895 :—

Cases.	1894.	1895.
1. Number of cases occurred, inclusive of old cases investigated during the year and cases pending from previous year ...	8,897	8,963
2. Percentage of all cases (whether investigated by police or not) ending in conviction to cases occurred	55·8	58·3
3. Percentage borne by cases investigated by police to cases occurred	80·5	84·7
4. Percentage borne by cases investigated by police and in which conviction was obtained to total number of cases investigated by police	65·1	65·9
Persons.
1. Number of persons arrested and summoned.	9,019	8,932
2. Percentage of persons convicted to total arrested	66·2	69·2
3. Percentage of persons arrested by police and convicted to total number of persons arrested by police	84·3	83·6
Property.
1. Value of property stolen ... Rs.	2,07,342	2,24,824
2. Percentage of property recovered ... „	22·4	25·3

These statistics show that the results of 1895 do not materially differ from those of 1894. Taking the percentage of cases investigated by the police that ended in convictions and the percentage of persons arrested by the police who were convicted, the districts of Basim and Wun show the best, and Ellichpur and Akola the worst, results.

Non-cognizable crime.

30. The number of non-cognizable offences dealt with during 1895 was 6,706 as against 6,579 in the preceding year. In only 35 of these cases were the police employed to enquire. The total number of persons who actually appeared before the courts was 12,920 as against 13,170 in 1894, and of these 2,554, or 19·7 per cent., were convicted as against a percentage of 22·6 in 1894.

Escapes from police custody.

31. There were 9 cases of escape from police custody during 1895 as against 7 in the preceding year, and of these only 5 persons were re-captured as against 6 in 1894. In 2 cases the constables responsible were prosecuted judicially, the other cases having been dealt with departmentally.

Railway Police.

32. The following statement compares the working of the Railway Police for the three years 1893 to 1895:—

Anthropometry.

33. The following is extracted from the departmental report of the Inspector-General of Police regarding anthropometry:—

In July last a code of rules was issued for the working of the anthropometrical system of identifying criminals. These require that unidentified persons arrested by police as suspects, or who are under trial on a criminal charge, shall be measured, and that remands be asked for for purposes of identification. Certain other classes of criminals are measured after conviction. The measurement cards of convicted persons are deposited in specially arranged almirahs in my office, and those of unidentified persons are sent there for comparison. Qualified measurers are attached to the head-quarters of each district, and their measurements are tested by skilled measurers attached to Amraoti and Akola, for East and West Berar respectively.

During the year 579 cards were deposited in my office, making a total of 926 cards since the introduction of the system.

Four criminals were identified by means of the system during the year. In the case of one of these, the rule requiring the measurement of an unidentified person before or while under trial and an application for remand was neglected, and it was not until after his conviction and sentence to three months' imprisonment that it was ascertained that he was a habitual offender. The case was brought to the notice of the Judicial Commissioner, and the sentence was enhanced to two years.

A class of instruction in the method of measurements and use of cards and almirahs was held in the month of August, and two Assistant Superintendents, one Inspector, and four chief constables qualified as efficients in the entire system, while four chief constables qualified as measurers; another chief constable more recently appointed has also since qualified in both branches.

The system requires some more time to be brought into full working order, and it is as yet too soon to judge of its effects.

Drill Manual.

34. The Drill Manual prepared in 1894 was found defective, and has since been revised. The revised edition and a Marathi translation of it will issue shortly.

SECTION III.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE.

Tribunals.

35. The effective strength of the magistracy at the close of 1895 as compared with the year 1894 was as follows:—

		1895.	1894.
District Magistrates	...	6	6
First Class Magistrates	...	21	23
Second Class Magistrates	...	16	14
Third Class Magistrates	...	12	11
Special Magistrates	...	13	14
Benches of Magistrates	...	4	4
Total	...	72	72

Amount of crime.

36. The annexed table exhibits the number of offences reported and struck off the register of offences as well as the cases brought to trial before the Criminal Courts in each of the last two years:—

Years.	Offences reported.	Cases dismissed under section 203, Criminal Procedure Code.		Cases struck off as false.		Cases returned as true.		Cases brought to trial.
		No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent	No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent.
1894 ...	17,978	2,652	14·7	671	3·7	14,655	81·5	12,222	67·9
1895 ...	17,468	2,530	14·48	650	3·7	14,288	81·8	12,004	68·7

The table indicates that there was a slight decrease of criminal business in the year 1895 as compared with the preceding year, offences reported falling from 17,978 to 17,468—a decrease of 510, or 2·8 per cent; cases returned as true decreasing from 14,655 to 14,288—a decrease of 367, or 2·5 per cent.; and cases brought to trial decreasing from 12,222 to 12,004—a decrease of 218, or 1·7 per cent.

Classification of offences.

37. The following is an abstract comparing the offences in each class with the number for the preceding year:—

—	Total for 1894.	Total for 1895.	Increase.	Decrease.
Offences against the State	...	...	...	...
Do. relating to the Army and Navy ...	...	...	...	...

Offences relating to coin and Government stamps.	20	19	...	1
Offences relating to weights and measures ...	16	18	2	...
Offences affecting the public health, safety, convenience, decency, and morals	121	157	36	...

Do. special and local laws	4,755	4,651	...	104
GRAND TOTAL ...	14,655	14,288	72	439—367

Offences affecting the human body have decreased by 150 cases, which is accounted for by a decrease of 186 cases in the pettier forms of crime, such as assault and criminal force. The decrease of 131 cases in offences against property is traced to the decrease in criminal trespasses and thefts. Security cases decreased by 481, whereas nuisance cases under the Police Act increased by 381. The other heads of crime call for no particular remark.

Persons brought to trial.

38. Inclusive of 297 persons under trial at the end of 1894, there were 20,701 persons for disposal during the year. Of these 20,398, or 98·5 per cent., were disposed of as shown below, and the cases of 303 were pending at the close of the year :—

Died, &c.	464, or 2·2	per cent.
Discharged or acquitted ...	11,486, or 55·5	do.
Convicted	8,147, or 39·4	do.
Committed or referred ...	301, or 1·4	do.

Distribution of work.

	1895.	1894.	1895.	1894.
Deputy Commissioners	423	350	3·6	3
Assistant Commissioners	825	653	7	5·5

Naib Tahsildars	...	...	...	...
Special Magistrates	1,987	1,829	17	15·3
Benches of Magistrates	1,441	694	12·3	5·8
Attachés	335	370	2·9	3
Total ...	11,703	11,955	100	100

The District Magistrates took a fair share of the criminal case work seeing that they have many other matters to attend to and do much criminal work which does not appear in returns. The number of cases disposed of by them increased from 350 to 423. Those disposed of by Assistant Commissioners increased from 653 to 825, while those disposed of by Extra Assistant Commissioners decreased from 965 to 900. The number of cases disposed of by Benches of Magistrates has more than doubled, having increased from 694 to 1,441.

Average duration.

40. The average duration of cases disposed of in the Magistrate's Courts, including cases under section 30, Criminal Procedure Code, remained the same as in the previous year, viz., 8·3 days.

Special jurisdiction of Deputy Commissioners.

41. In 80 cases involving 184 persons disposed of by Deputy Commissioners in exercise of their enhanced powers, 61 persons were convicted and 123 were acquitted or discharged.

Summary trials.

42 The number of cases tried summarily under Chapter XXII of the Criminal Procedure Code rose from 310 in 1894 to 382 in the year under report. Of the total number of persons disposed of under this section, 374 were convicted.

Jurisdiction over European British subjects.

43. One European British subject was tried during the year under report for criminal force and assault. The trial resulted in a conviction.

Details of punishments.

44. The following table gives the details of the kinds of punishments inflicted in the years 1894 and 1895 :—

Class of tribunals.	Year.	Total number of persons punished.	Persons sentenced to						Persons ordered to find or give security or recognizance to keep the peace or sureties for good behaviour.	Persons imprisoned in default of security for good behaviour.

48. The following table shows the appellate work of the province (counting each appellant's case as a separate appeal) :— Appeals.

The number of appeals pending at the close of the year was only 24 as compared with 74 in 1894.

48·8 per cent. of appellants in the Magistrate's Court, 77·8 per cent. of appellants in Sessions Court, and 62·5 per cent. of the appellants in the Judicial Commissioner's Court were unsuccessful. The corresponding percentages for 1894 were 50·6, 77·1, and 62·8.

During the year 14 sentences of death were referred to the Judicial Commissioner for confirmation. Five of these sentences were confirmed, 5 were commuted to transportation for life, and 4 were reversed.

SECTION IV.

JAILS.

Status of jails.

50. The status of the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts continued to be the same as in the year 1894. The scheme for enlarging the Amraoti Jail is still under consideration, and when that is carried out a central jail for the province will have been established.

Cubicles.

51. There was no opportunity during 1895 for increasing the cubicle sleeping accommodation in the several jails of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts: most of them, however, have a fair number of separate sleeping cubicles already.

Jail population.

52. The total jail population at the beginning of 1895 was 1,296 as against 1,379 in the preceding year, and the number received into the jails during the year under report was 3,601 as against 2,982. Deducting the 3,482 prisoners discharged from all causes during the year, the number left at the close of 1895 was 1,415 as against 1,296 at the end of 1894. The average daily strength was 1318·83 as against 1285·47 in 1894, or an increase of 2·7 per cent. on the numbers of the preceding year. The following statement compares the figures of the jail population of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1895 with the corresponding figures for 1894:—

Classification of convicts according to religion, age, education, and previous occupation.

53. Of the 1,683 convicts (1,576 males and 107 females) imprisoned during the year, 1,446 were Hindus and Sikhs, 230 Muhammadans, and 5 Christians, besides 1 Buddhist and 1 Parsi; according to age, 8 were under 16 years, 1,406 between 16 and 40 years, 260 between 40 and 60 years, and 9 above 60 years; according to education, 88 were able to read and write and 88 to write only, while 1,507 were illiterate. Of the 107 female convicts, 66 were married, 4 unmarried, 35 widows, and 2 prostitutes. The previous occupations of 1,576 male convicts are compared in the following table with the corresponding figures for 1893 and 1894:—

Nature and length of sentence.

54. The following table gives the comparative statistics relating to the nature and length of sentence for 1894 and 1895 :—

		Not exceeding one month.	Above 1 month and not exceeding 3 months.	Above 3 months and not exceeding 6 months.	Above 6 months and not exceeding 1 year.	Above 1 year and not exceeding 2 years. 	1895.	23·8	18·1	22·9	16·9	10·5	4·1	3·5					99·8

It will be seen that the proportion of very short sentences not exceeding one month has fallen very considerably in Berar during 1895, and that the main corresponding increase is to be found among sentences above one month and not exceeding one year.

Previous convictions.

55. Of the total number (1,683) of convicts admitted into the jail during the year, 131, or 7·78 per cent., were identified as habituals as against 152, or 10·17 per cent., in 1894. Of the old offenders imprisoned during the year, 70 had been convicted once, 34 twice, and 27 more than twice.

Escapes and recaptures.

56. One prisoner escaped from the Yeotmal Jail, and was recaptured a few days later in the Basim district. The convict warder and the jail warder, who were responsible for the escape, were reduced and dismissed respectively.

Jail offences and punishments.

57. The total number of jail offences was 952 as against 1,084 in 1894. Of the former, 2 were dealt with by Criminal Courts and the rest by Jail Superintendents, who inflicted minor punishments in 789 cases and major punishments in 161 cases. The provincial ratio of punishments to jail population stood at 76·3 as against 87·7 in 1894.

Mark system.

58. The number of convicts released during the year who gained remissions under the mark system was 385 as against 422 in 1894 and 146 in 1893. The maximum remission gained by any one convict was 533 days as against 599 days in the previous year.

Health.

59. The following statistics show the health of the prisoners for the three years from 1893 to 1895 :—

		1893.	1894.	1895.
Daily average strength		1,283·2	1,285·4	1,318·8

	Deaths	28·8	30·3	25

Of the 33 deaths that took place during 1895, 20 occurred at Akola. There was no cholera during the year in any of the jails.

Employment of convicts.

60. The average daily number of convicts under sentence of labour was 1089·96 as against 1077·1 in 1894. The following table gives comparative statistics showing how convicts were employed during the years 1894 and 1895 :—

Sick	30·04
Convalescent and infirm	29·14

Jail manufactures.

61. As regards jail manufactures, the general financial results will be found in the following table :—

	1893.	1894.	1895.
	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.
Total cash earnings	17,655 15 0	17,947 12 0	14,310 2 0
Average earnings per head sentenced to labour	14 9 0	14 11 0	11 9 0
Average earnings per head employed on jail manufactures	34 8 0	39 8 0	26 3 0

There has been a decrease in the proceeds of the year under report, and this is due principally to light work in the lithographic department of the Amraoti Jail.

Expenditure.

62. The expenditure on jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during the year under report shows a satisfactory decrease as compared with that of the previous year. Although there was a considerable increase in the daily jail population during 1895, the gross expenditure under all heads amounted to Rs. 72,327 and the total net expenditure to Rs. 58,017, which works out to a net cost of Rs. 44 per head as compared with Rs. 45 in 1894 and Rs. 48-3-0 in 1893. The reduction in the cost per head is mainly under dieting and clothing. The following table compares the figures of expenditure for the last three years :—

Out of 1,297 suits for immovable property, 996, or 76·8 per cent., were suits relating to survey numbers. Suits to recover possession by persons claiming as proprietors decreased by 198 cases, and suits to declare or establish right in survey numbers by 101 cases.

There were 49 watandari suits during the year under report as against 55 in the previous year.

Disposal of suits.

66. The total number of cases for disposal in 1895 amounted to 33,389, of which 4,649 were cases pending from previous years. Of these, 27,923, or 83·6 per cent., were disposed of during the year and 5,466 were pending at the close of the year. The following table shows how suits were disposed of, and compares the method of disposal with that of the previous year :—

The aggregate value of suits capable of valuation disposed of was Rs. 41,39,961-14-9 as against Rs. 40,53,166-14-4, giving an increase of Rs. 86,795-0-5, and the average value of suits has increased from Rs. 135-3-1 to Rs. 151-12-5. The increase is due to the large number and increased value of suits for values exceeding Rs. 10,000 disposed of during the year.

The aggregate cost of suits disposed of has decreased from Rs. 5,58,626-3-3 to Rs. 5,57,995-15-5 owing to the decrease in the total number of suits disposed of. The average cost per suit has increased from Rs. 16-13-5 to Rs. 18-4-0 in spite of the decrease in the aggregate cost owing to the increase in the average value.

Distribution of civil work.

68. The annexed table shows the manner in which the regular suits disposed of were distributed among officers of different ranks:—

70. The total number of applications for execution of decrees was 36,842 as against 33,542 in 1894. Of these 29,919 were disposed of during the year as compared with 27,435 in the previous year. Out of 29,919 applications which were disposed of, only in 3,842 cases was the decree wholly satisfied and in 3,977 cases partially satisfied, while 18,540 cases proved wholly infructuous, 3,560 applications were transferred, and 6,923 were pending at the close of the year.

The realizations amounted to Rs. 3,30,588-10-9 as against Rs. 3,35,355-0-9 in the preceding year. Of this Rs. 12,892-15-0 were paid voluntarily and Rs. 3,17,695-11-9 after issue of process. Immovable property was sold in 1,117 cases.

Insolvency.

71. There were 54 applications for a declaration of insolvency. Five only of these were granted, this number being the same in the previous year.

Processes.

72. There were 297,405 processes issued during the year as against 318,572 in 1894. The total income realized during the year on account of court-fees was Rs. 3,67,726-4-0 and of process fees Rs. 1,06,109-1-0, amounting in all to Rs. 4,73,835-5-0 as against Rs. 5,01,120-11-0 in the preceding year. The process-serving establishment cost Rs. 64,288-14-2 as against Rs. 64,651-8-0 in 1894.

Courts in the Hyderabad Contingent stations.

74. The civil judicial work of the Hyderabad Contingent stations of Aurangabad, Jalna, and Mominabad was disposed of by the Cantonment Magistrate, Aurangabad. The work arising in Hingoli was disposed of by the courts at Basim, and has been included in their returns. In the Cantonment Magistrate's Court 213 suits were instituted during the year as against 476 in 1894. The falling off has not been satisfactorily accounted for.

Including cases pending from the previous year, there were in all 376 cases for disposal, of which 330 were disposed of during the year, leaving a pending file of 46 cases at the close of the year.

The suits were disposed of as follows :—

Without trial	65
Without contest	171
After contest	94

The average duration of contested and uncontested cases was 256·8 and 201·6 days respectively.

The total value of the suits disposed of in 1895 amounted to Rs. 37,730-12-4, and the average value of suits capable of valuation was Rs. 114-1-6. The average cost of each suit came to Rs. 9-5-8.

Forty-eight miscellaneous original cases were disposed of, and two were left pending at the end of the year.

Excluding transfers, there were 31 applications for execution of decrees. Of these 194 were thus disposed of during the year : 40 were completely satisfied, 34 were partially satisfied, and 120 proved wholly infructuous. The number of applications left pending was 37.

The total income of the Courts from court and process fees amounted to Rs. 3,096-12-0 as against Rs. 3,937-9-3, the decrease being due to the falling off in the number of suits instituted.

SECTION VI.

REGISTRATION.

Number of officers.

75. The report furnished by the Inspector-General of Registration at the end of 1895-96 is the full report ordered to be submitted at the end of every three years, and it compares the results of the working of the Registration Department for the triennial period from the 1st April 1894 to the 31st March 1896 with the results of previous triennial periods. The number of registration offices in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts was 63 during 1893-94 and 1894-95, and rose to 68 during 1895-96. This increase is due to the opening of three new offices in the Buldana district under salaried Sub-Registrars and two new offices in the Wun district under rural Sub-Registrars. Excluding the Melghat, there is in Berar one Sub-Registrar's office to every 46,729 head of population and to every 263 square miles.

Registration business.

76. The following figures show that on the whole there has been a steady progress in the work of registration in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during the last nine years :—

Years.	Compulsory.	Optional.		Wills, &c.	Total registrations.
		Immovable.	Movable.
1887-88	18,089	6,152	1,962	87	26,290
1888-89	19,679	6,411	1,988	73	28,151
1889-90	23,234	6,499	1,932	101	31,766
1890-91	21,519	4,812	1,845	113	28,289
1891-92	22,129	4,762	1,840	137	28,868
1892-93	24,081	5,028	1,937	116	31,162
1893-94	27,669	5,400	1,999	115	35,183
1894-95	27,230	5,338	2,004	106	34,678
1895-96	26,622	5,258	1,912	150	33,942

This will be clearer if the above figures are divided according to triennial periods as shown below :—

Triennial periods.	Compulsory.	Optional.		Wills, &c.	Average total annual registration for the three years concerned.
		Immovable.	Movable.
1st—1887-88 to 1889-90 ...	20,334	6,354	1,960	87	28,735
2nd—1890-91 „ 1892-93 ...	22,576	4,867	1,874	122	29,439
3rd—1893-94 „ 1895-96 ...	27,174	5,332	1,972	124	34,601

It will be seen that there has been some diminution of work since 1893-94, but the number of compulsory registrations in each of the last three years has been considerably larger than in any of the previous years. Thus the total business of the last triennial period shows a large increase. Optional registrations have throughout remained at much the same figure, but the number of wills registered in 1895-96 exceeded the record of all previous years.

The following table compares the different kinds of documents registered during each year of the triennium under report and the value of the property represented by them :—

77. The number of documents impounded during 1895-96 was 131 as against 100 in 1894-95 and 117 in 1893-94. It is reported that the Sub-Registrars in Buldana and Akola have impounded documents with less discrimination than elsewhere. Documents impounded.

78. Of the total number (33,942) of documents presented for registration during 1895-96, 31,253 were registered on the day of presentation, 1,205 on the next day, 864 within a week of presentation, and the remaining 620 after a greater lapse of time. Despatch of business.

79. The total receipts of the year amounted to Rs. 84,939-12-6 as against 86,013-12-6 in 1894-95 and 88,080 in 1893-94, and the total expenditure Financial results.

came to Rs. 50,160-9-10 during the year under report as compared with Rs. 47,550-4-9 in 1894-95 and Rs. 48,797-14-8 in 1893-94. The decrease in receipts during 1894-95 and 1895-96 is due to the decrease in the work of registration during these years, and the increase in expenditure during 1895-96 is due to the opening of new offices in the Buldana and Wun districts. However, on the whole, the results of the three years under report compare very favorably with those for the previous triennial period, as will be seen from the figures given below:—

	Receipts. Rs.	Expenditure. Rs.	Surplus. Rs.
1890-91 to 1892-93 ...	2,14,285	1,25,420	88,865
1893-94 „ 1895-96 ...	2,59,033	1,46,508	1,12,525

The aggregate surplus earned by the department since its formation now stands at Rs. 4,81,159-0-9.

Sub-district lists.

80. The lists of villages comprised in each registration sub-district, which were in course of preparation during 1894-95, have now been completed and published. Similar lists in Marathi, which will be useful to Sub-Registrars, are in course of preparation.

SECTION VII.

MUNICIPALITIES.

Number of municipalities and their constitution.

81. The town of Karinja was brought under the operation of the Berar Municipal Law, 1886, with effect from the 1st April 1895, so that at the end of the year 1895-96 there were 12 municipalities as against 11 in the preceding year. The constitution of these municipalities is shown in the following table :—

Name of Municipality.	Population within municipal limits.	Sanctioned strength.			Remarks.
		Nominated members.	Elected members.	Total number of members.
Amraoti Town ...	28,946	6	18	24	All these municipalities are constituted under the Berar Municipal Law of 1886, but during the year of report the municipalities of Amraoti Camp, Buldana, and Ellichpur Civil Station and the Civil Station Ward of the Basim Municipality continued to be exempted from the operation of the provisions of the law which require that a certain proportion of members shall be elected. The Karinja Municipality was also similarly exempted.

Of the 182 memberships, 1 was vacant at the end of the year, and the remaining 181 were held by 63 officials and 118 non-officials, 27 members being Europeans and 154 natives. Electoral rights were exercised in all the municipal areas except those named in the last column of the foregoing statement, but the Commissioner thinks that the grant of electoral rights which were accorded to the Yeotmal Municipality, with effect from the 1st January 1895, was rather premature.

82. The income of each municipality during 1895-96 compares as follows with the corresponding figures for 1894-95 :— Income.

Name of Municipality.	Income from all sources, 1894-95.	Income from all sources, 1895-96.	Increase.	Decrease.

The above table shows a decrease of Rs. 10,507-3-3 in the year under report as compared with the income of the preceding year. This is chiefly attributed to the fact that in Amraoti Camp two years' contribution from Local Funds was realized in 1894-95, and that a sum of Rs. 4,965 was lent in the same year by the District Board to the Municipality for the construction of the combined office of the Amraoti District Board and the Camp Municipality. The total income of Rs. 2,45,806-11-11 of the year was obtained from the following sources :—

	Rs.	a.	p.
(1) Municipal rates and taxes... ...	94,584	2	1

The incidence of taxation per head of population ranged from Rs. 1-11-0 in Buldana to 3 annas 6 pies in Shegaon.

83. The total expenditure incurred by all the municipalities during 1895-96 was Rs. 2,52,332, or Rs. 7,352 less than that of the previous year. The following Expenditure.

table shows the details of expenditure incurred by each municipality and the objects on which the money was spent;—

SECTION VIII.

LOCAL BOARDS.

Number of boards.

84. There was no change in the number of district and taluk boards in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during the year under report, and there were, as in the previous year, 6 district boards and 21 taluk boards. The only tract outside municipal area which continues to remain exempted from the operation of the provisions of the Berar Rural Boards Law is the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district.

Constitution of the boards and their attendance.

85. At the end of the year under report the strength of the several district boards consisted of 32 nominated and 123 elected members, and of these 20 were officials and 135 non-officials. The total number of members on the taluk boards was 376, of whom 245 were elected and the rest nominated, while 31 were officials and 345 non-officials. There were no Europeans on the taluk boards, and on the district boards there were only 7 of this class, the rest being natives. The number of meetings held by taluk boards during the year was 242 as against 243 in the previous year, and that by district boards was 42 as against 45 in the preceding year. The average attendance at each meeting continued to be much the same as in 1894-95.

Elections.

86. The total number of taluk board vacancies to be filled up by election amounted to 116, for which there were 250 candidates. The number of persons entitled to vote was 26,719, but out of this only 2,830, or 10·59 per cent., exercised their right. The corresponding percentage for the preceding year was 9·73. These percentages show how little interest is evinced by the people in the election of Local Boards members.

The financial position of the boards.

87. The total income of the several boards from all sources amounted to Rs. 6,57,924 as against Rs. 6,58,926 in the preceding year, a decrease of Rs. 1,002. Adding to the total income the balance of Rs. 7,58,963 at the commencement of the year under report, the sum available for expenditure during the year was Rs. 14,16,887 as against Rs. 14,16,898. Out of the sum available, the amount actually spent was Rs. 7,54,084 as against Rs. 6,57,935 in 1894-95, a net increase of Rs. 96,149.

MILITARY.

88. The only place in Berar at which a military force is stationed is Ellichpur, and this force during the year under report consisted of a detachment of the Hyderabad Contingent having a strength of 126 artillery and 804 infantry.

SECTION X.

MARINE.

89. There is nothing to record under this head.

91. Of the total culturable land available for occupation in the province, excluding the Melghat, only 3·4 per cent. remained unoccupied. If the lands in khalsa villages alone are taken into account, the occupied and unoccupied areas stand in the proportion of 98·0 to 2·0. Further details are furnished in the following statement :—

Area under crops.

92. Of the total area of 7,775,038 acres under occupation, 6,720,670 acres were under crops as against 6,747,313 acres in the preceding year, showing a decrease of 26,643 acres, which occurred chiefly on rabi land in the districts of Buldana and Basim, and was caused by the insufficiency of the autumn rain, which made sowings impossible. Of the area under crops, 65·5 per cent. was under "kharif" crops, 20·7 under "rabi" crops, ·3 per cent. under garden and miscellaneous crop, leaving 7·6 per cent. under grass and 5·9 fallow. The following statement shows the proportion borne by the area under principal crops to the total area under crops for the five years ending 1895-96 :—

Irrigation.

93. The total area under irrigation fell from 42,562 acres to 41,304 acres, of which rice covered an area of 136 acres and garden crops, including sugarcane, 41,168 acres as against 183 and 42,379 acres respectively in 1894-95.

Crop experiments.

94. Fresh instructions were issued during the year under report for the conduct of crop experiments with special reference to the selection of fields and the method of estimating the outturn, but as sufficient time has not elasped since their issue the results based on them are not yet available.

Agricultural conference.

95. In pursuance of the instructions issued by the Government of India in their Revenue and Agricultural Department Resolution No. $\frac{15}{19-1}$, dated the 7th September 1895, appointing Sir E. Buck, K.C.S.I., to confer with the several Local Governments to discuss the various subjects on which the Agricultural Conference held at Simla in 1893 formulated recommendations, a conference was held at Akola on the 24th, 25th, and 26th February, at which the discussion was confined to the following subjects :—

(1) The organization of establishments for collecting agricultural facts and statistics; and

(2) The organization of a system of supervising and training the establishments.

Agricultural farms.

96. With regard to farms, the conference did not consider that the position of the Berar Administration justified the establishment of experimental farms, and suggested that the results obtained at the farms in the Bombay Presidency and Nagpur could be utilized in Berar.

Agricultural stock.

97. The following table compares the agricultural stock of the province for the year under report with that of the previous year :—

Year.	Cows and bullocks.	Buffaloes.	Sheep and goats.	Carts.	Ploughs.

* Figures since revised.

Loans to agriculturists.

98. A total sum of Rs. 30,661 was advanced to agriculturists during the year under report, of which Rs. 29,652 was under the Land Improvement Loans Act and Rs. 1,009 under the Agriculturists Loans Act. Of the amount advanced under the former Act, Rs. 5,500 were for wells, Rs. 1,300 for reclamation of lands, Rs. 16,202 for improvement of wells and fields, Rs. 3,728 for removing stones, and Rs. 2,872 for raising bunds to nalas, &c.

As there was a divergence of practice in the matter of making advances and taking security under the provisions of the Acts cited above, instructions were issued during the year under report to Deputy Commissioners to secure uniformity in the matter; but it is too soon to note the results of the action taken.

Cattle fairs.

99. The chief cattle fair in the province, that held at Wun, was more successful than in the previous year; 4,191 animals were sold as against 3,788 in 1894-95, though the animals exposed for sale during the year were not so many as in the preceding year.

Cattle disease.

100. Two serious outbreaks of rinderpest of a very fatal character were reported from the Jalgaon and Daryapur taluks; foot-and-mouth disease was prevalent in the Basim district, but it was not of a serious nature. The total attacks were 29,190 (against 21,478 in 1894-95), of which cases of rinderpest were 9,595, anthrax 2,310, foot-and-mouth disease 10,003, pleuro-pneumonia 1,677, and other diseases 5,605. Deaths numbered 12,546, or 3 per cent. more than in 1894-95.

Horse-breeding.

101. The two remaining pony stallions belonging to Government were sold shortly after the commencement of the year, and indeed horse-breeding operations have failed in Berar, and have therefore been finally abandoned.

SECTION II.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Rainfall.

102. The average rainfall of the various districts in the province during 1895-96 amounted to only 25 inches and 89 cents, or 15 inches and 18 cents below the average of the preceding year. Compared with the quinquennial average for the period ending 31st March 1892, the decrease amounts to 14 inches and 13 cents. The following is the record of the rainfall showing the average of the province according to its distribution by months :—

Average rainfall of the year.

Month.	1895-96.		Quienquennial average.
	I.	C.	I.	C.

September	5	18	7	76
October	1	15	2	88
November to March	0	16	2	33
Total ...	25	89	40	2

Though the rainfall of the year was deficient and its distribution uneven, its character appears to have been beneficial to the cotton crop.

The following is extracted from the Revenue Report of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1895-96 :—

" Jowari suffered to a greater or less extent everywhere, except in Wun; " and in Buldana there was a long break from the 15th August to the 10th Sep- " tember, which, had it continued a few days longer, would have resulted in a " total failure of the kharif. The general scantiness of the latter rains resulted " in a partial failure of the rabi crops, of which linseed is the only kind that " thrived fairly well.

" Owing to the abnormally small rainfall and the long drought that followed, " there was a scarcity of water, which at some places was keenly felt. In Amra- " oti the Kalapani and the Wadali tanks failed just at the commencement of the " hot season, and special measures had to be adopted to meet the wants of the " inhabitants. The wells, which for many years had ceased to be used, were " drained and deepened, and water continued to be distributed through the pipes " to the town and station, but to a limited extent by raising it from wells."

Prices of food-grains.

103. The following table shows the average quantity of food-grains sold for a rupee for the last three years :—

	1895-96.		1894-95.		1893-94.

Wages of labour.

104. The average wage rate of skilled labour fell from 12 annas and 3 pies in 1894-95 to 12 annas and 1 pie in 1895-96; while that of unskilled labour remained the same for both the years, viz., 3 annas and 11 pies. The hire of a cart and a pair of bullocks rose from 15 annas 3 pies in 1894-95 to 15 annas 7 pies in the year under report, and the hire of camels was 14 annas 2 pies as against 13 annas 4 pies in the preceding year. The daily hire of donkeys per score was Rs. 3-9-3 as against Rs. 3-7-11 in 1894-95, and that of a pair of bullocks was 10 annas 2 pies as against 9 annas 11 pies in 1894-95.

*Purchased locally.

From the various district reports and from the Commissioner's personal observation it is found that very poor results have been obtained for the large outlay under District Boards. Proposals are therefore under the consideration of the local authorities to reduce the expenditure by District Boards to more reasonable dimensions.

106. A summary of the progress of the arboricultural operations during 1895-96 as executed in the Public Works Department is exhibited in the following table:— Work done in the Public Works Department.

(a) In former years (from 1888-89) Public Works Department planting information was supplied in various forms, and this form was compiled in Conservator's office. This year Executive Engineers' reports were made in this form, and various discrepancies were detected, which are corrected above both in the columns showing work and expenditure.
(b) Executive Engineer notes that 16,000 of these (from Murtizapur nursery) failed.
(c) The remark under (a) equally applies in the case of expenditure shown in previous reports.

FORESTS.

Staff.

107. Mr. C. Bagshawe held the office of the Conservator of Forests, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, throughout the forest year (July to June) 1895-96, except for a short period, viz., from the 3rd to the 23rd September 1895, when he was on privilege leave, during which time Mr. Calthrop, Deputy Conservator of Forests, officiated.

Forest area.

108. On the 30th June 1896 the total area of the State-forests in Berar was 4,178 square miles, which is equal to 23·5 per cent. of the entire area of the province. Compared with the area as recorded in the preceding year, there is a decrease of 695 acres, of which 550 is due to disforestation and 145 to corrections in the area statements. The following table shows the alterations in the forest area of the province :—

Class of forest.	Area on 1st July 1895.	On 30th June 1896.
		Area in square miles.	Percentage borne by the forest area in the preceding column to the total area of Berar, viz., 17,735 square miles.

4. State-forests of Class D—A temporary class ...	...	...	...
GRAND TOTAL ...	4,179	4,178	23·5

During the year of report various nominal changes were made by inter-divisional transfers and in the improvement of boundaries, and the Conservator does not now anticipate any more changes in area or classification except in regard to the free-grazing area in Akola, Buldana, and Basim.

Boundaries.

109. There was no change in the system of demarcation of State-forests during the year, which was as described in paragraph 107 of the Administration Report for 1894-95. The boundaries were periodically checked by Range Officers and occasionally by Divisional Officers, and were reported to have been generally in good order. The Conservator himself checked the boundaries in each class of forests in almost every division, and was satisfied that the boundary lines and marks were correctly maintained.

In Basim and Wun permanent boundary marks have yet to be set up in the new A and B reserves, and will not be completed before two years, as sufficient funds cannot be allotted in one year; but they are sufficiently indicated by field boundary marks, and so the matter is not pressing. The total expenditure incurred on demarcation during the year was Rs. 1,230 on new works plus Rs. 1,101 on repairs as against Rs. 881 and Rs. 1,531 respectively during 1894-95.

Surveys.

110. A map of each taluk in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts on a one-inch scale has now been locally completed, and some of them have been passed through the press at Dehra Dun. These maps will be very useful, as they exhibit all such particulars as are required for forest, revenue, police, and general administrative purposes.

Breaches of Forest Law.

111. In the year of report there were 704 offences committed against the Forest Law as against 843 in the preceding year. Of the 704 offences, 613 were compounded and 91 were taken before criminal courts. Besides these cases, 55 cases remained undetected. Of the number of cases brought before the courts, a proportion of 78·3 ended in conviction, which shows that prosecutions were undertaken with discretion.

Fire protection.

112. The area under protection increased from 1,391 square miles in 1894-95 to 1,413; but the area burnt (28 square miles) was four times as large as the area burnt in the preceding year, or 2 per cent. of the area attempted. The number of fires too increased from 20 to 30. The season was one of the most trying on record, because there was practically no rain from the first week of September 1895 until the last week of May 1896, and many forests were not safe till the third week of June. The success attained under such trying circumstances was creditable. The average provincial cost per square mile of area attempted was Rs. 9·6, or about the same (Rs. 9·5) as in the preceding year, though the variations between one district and another were striking.

Working plans.

113. The following table exhibits the progress of working plans :—

	State-forests.			Sq. miles.
	A.	B.	C.	Total.
Areas for which working plans were completed at the beginning of the year ...	721	...	...	721
Areas for which working plans were completed during the year	...	...	...	...
Areas for which working plans are in hand.	4	...	...	4
Area not dealt with	792	96	2,565	3,453
Total ...	1,517	96	2,565	4,178

The area of 721 square miles referred to above represents the permanent working plans completed, the provisions of which were duly carried out. The final draft of a working plan in respect of the babul bans in the Akola Division is under consideration by the local authorities, and this, when sanctioned, will complete the permanent working plans for the present. Besides the permanent working plans, it has been decided to draw up short-term or provisional plans of operations for all those forests in Berar which call for very simple treatment, and in which on administrative and economic grounds it is desirable to introduce systematic management as quickly as possible. The preparation of such a plan for each forest range has been put in hand, and it is anticipated that the work will be completed by the ensuing year. The work has well advanced in all the divisions except Wun. The annual plans of operations for Amraoti, Akola, and Basim were worked up to, but those for Ellichpur and Buldana could not be carried out fully for want of funds; while in Wun it was found necessary to sanction some deviation in order to meet urgent demands for timber by villagers consequent on serious fire.

Grazing.

114. There was no material change in the arrangements regarding grazing. Of the total area of State-forests of all classes comprising 4,178 square miles, the area closed to grazing was 1,330 square miles, or 31·8 per cent., as against 1,322 in the preceding year. The area open without restriction rose from 2,650 to 2,659 square miles, while the area open under certain conditions fell from 207 to 189 square miles.

The long pending question of free grazing has finally been settled since the close of the year of report, and arrangements will now be made to put all districts as far as possible on an equal footing in connection with this matter. The total amount of grazing fees realized during 1895-96 was Rs. 2,11,952 as against Rs. 2,11,139 in the preceding year.

Forest growth.

115. All A and many B forests show visible signs of improved growth, while many C, and especially all or nearly all heavily grazed C, forests manifest obvious indications of deterioration. In most places the regular cuttings in A and C forests of recent years have resulted in well grown teak coppice, in which 9 years old shoots measure 25 feet high and 6 inches in diameter. Under natural reproduction good results are recorded.

Artificial reproduction.

116. Petty cultural operations in all divisions were carried on at a cost of Rs. 598 with varying results, while resowing operations were carried on in three districts at an expenditure of Rs. 492. The total area planted up at the end of the year was 9,152 acres as against 9,131 in 1894-95.

Other operations for the improvement of forest growth.

117. In the Ellichpur division climber cutting was carried out under the Bairagarh working plan. The work was lighter than last year, and was well and cheaply done. In the same division badly grown useless teak was cut back over 12,437 acres at a cost of Rs. 1,586. During the year lantana scandens was for the first time weeded out and burnt in certain large areas of the Ellichpur district, and certain other areas containing the shrub, which had been worked in previous years in the Ellichpur and other districts, also underwent second and third cleanings. During the three years ending 30th June 1896, a sum amounting to Rs. 15,288 was expended on the work of destroying this noxious plant, and the Conservator estimates that by the end of March 1897 the total cost will be raised to Rs. 20,000. The primary eradication of lantana scandens is now complete in Berar, and its re-growth has only to be checked hereafter.

Communications and buildings.

118. The total expenditure incurred on forest works during the year showed a decrease of Rs. 9,864, being Rs. 15,058 as against Rs. 24,922 in the preceding year. The amount spent on roads was Rs. 7,625, on buildings Rs. 6,203, and on wells Rs. 1,230. Of the 5 wells put in hand, 2 were completed.

Outturn of forest produce.

119. The Government of India has directed that in treating of yield as a whole the money value of timber, fuel, and bamboos should be omitted, and that an estimate should be framed of the portion of the outturn utilized by agricultural and village resident concessionnaires. These instructions have accordingly been kept in view in the statement below, which exhibits the statistics relating to the forest produce of the year under report, including the portion sold and the portion supplied gratis by the State under general concessions:—

		Free grants.	Sales.
Timber	c. ft.	314,724	459,930
Fuel	c. ft.	1,177,836	983,466
Bamboos	Nos.	1,273,710	2,494,588
Grass	Rs.	665	36,799
Grazing	Rs.	1,38,018	2,11,952
Minor produce.. ...	Rs.	13,335	35,540

Total value, free grants, Rs. 2,96,717.

Total receipts from sales, Rs. 4,90,996 as against Rs. 4,66,014 in 1894-95.

There was a good demand for forest produce during the year, and as a consequence the gross revenue per square mile rose from Rs. 112 to Rs. 119, and the net revenue from Rs. 51 to Rs. 64.

Financial position.

120. In the following table the financial results of the forest year 1895-96 are compared with those of the preceding year:—

	1894-95. Rs.	1895-96. Rs.
Receipts	4,66,014	4,95,899 *
Expenditure	2,49,188	2,27,862
Surplus	2,16,826	2,68,037

* Rs. 4,90,996 from sales plus Rs. 4,903 from waif and drift and miscellaneous receipts.

The receipts and surplus of the year when compared with those of the preceding three years show a steady improvement, and the satisfactory result of the year is attributed to the general prosperity of the province consequent on the splendid cotton crop of 1895.

SECTION V.

MINES AND QUARRIES.

121. There is nothing to record under this head.

SECTION VI.

MANUFACTURES.

Manufactures of the province.

122. The manufactures of the province are chiefly confined to twist and yarn, coarse cotton cloth, and petty unskilled handicrafts; silk weaving is carried on at Kholapur in the Amraoti district, where pitambars are prepared; cotton carpets are woven at Akot and Ellichpur; saris, turbans, khadis, and blankets are manufactured in several parts of the province; khadis of different textures and colors are woven at Ellichpur and Wun. Nut-crackers are made at Deulghat in the Buldana district.

Mills, cotton presses, and ginning factories.

123. There are three oil mills in the province—two at Amraoti, and one at Shegaon. One of the two at Amraoti was opened during the year under report. There is a cotton weaving mill at Badnera. The cotton presses and ginning factories worked by steam power are by far the most important industries in the province. The mill at Badnera produced 1,049,266 lbs. of twist and yarn and 991,782 lbs. of cloth as against 927,564 and 930,095 respectively in the preceding year, showing an increase under the former of 121,702 and an increase of 61,687 under the latter. The number of persons employed in the mill during the year under report was 1,027 as against 996 in the previous year.

The two oil mills at Amraoti have produced 654¼ tons of oil and 1,355 tons of oil cakes. The Shegaon oil mill has turned out 643 tons of oil.

There are altogether 33 cotton presses and 66 ginning factories as against 31 and 60 respectively in 1894-95 under the management of private firms and joint stock companies, showing an increase of 2 under the former and 6 under the latter.

The following is a statement of the ginning factories open in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during 1895-96:—

Number of factories.

124. The first report on the working of the Indian Factories Act in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts was that relating to the year 1894, during which there were 105 factories at work in Berar, and of these only 66 came within the scope of the Act. Of the 66 factories under the Act, 37 were cotton cleaning factories, 28 were cotton presses, and 1 was a cotton spinning and weaving mill. During 1895 there was an increase of only one, and that a cotton cleaning factory.

Number of operatives.

125. The following abstract gives the daily number of operatives employed during 1894 and 1895 :—

Year.	Daily average number.
	Males.	Females.	Children.	Total.
1894	3,608	2,098	146	5,852

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

Inspections.

126. The work of inspection performed by the provincial Inspector and the Deputy Commissioners and other civil officers during 1894 and 1895 was satisfactory, but the work done in this respect by medical officers was nominal during both the years. The Resident has issued the necessary instructions to remedy this defect.

Sanitation.

127. During 1894 and 1895 the sanitary condition of factories was generally good, but in 1894 it was reported that the latrine accommodation was inadequate. This inconvenience was removed in 1895.

Accidents.

128. During 1894 there were 8 accidents, of which only 4 were serious. The total number of accidents during 1895 was only 4, of which 1 was serious.

Prosecutions.

129. There was no difficulty whatever in enforcing the provisions of the Act, and no prosecutions were instituted during 1894 and 1895.

Cotton Duties Act.

130. The first report regarding the working of the Cotton Duties Act in Berar relates to the period from the 27th December 1894 to the 31st March 1896. There was only one mill in the province which was dealt with under this Act during the period referred to, namely, the Berar Manufacturing Company's Mill at Badnera in the Amraoti district. On the 3rd February 1896 the Cotton Duties Act of 1894 was repealed by Act II of 1896, and the provisions of this latter Act were applied to Berar by the Foreign Department Notification No. 476-I., dated the 3rd February 1896. The total quantity of all cotton yarns produced from the 27th December 1894 to the 31st March 1895 was 417,089 lbs., and the total quantity produced during 1895-96 was 1,890,459 lbs.

SECTION VII.

TRADE.

Rail-borne trade.

System of registration.

131. The arrangements for the registration of rail-borne trade continued unaltered during the year under report. The annual returns of the trade were as usual compiled in the office of the Examiner of Guaranteed Railway Accounts, Bombay, and furnished by that officer.

Total traffic.

132. The total traffic of 1895-96 is contrasted with that of the previous year and the average of the preceding five years in the following table :—

[Figures in thousands of maunds and rupees.]

Description of trade.	Quantity in maunds.			Value in rupees.
	Average of five years ending 1894-95.	1894-95.	1895-96.	Average of five years ending 1894-95.	1894-95.	1895-96.

The volume of trade during the year under report is 18·02 per cent. above that of last year, but 5·6 per cent. below the average of the past five years. The value shows an increase of 31·8 per cent. as compared with last year's value and of 8·6 per cent. as compared with the average annual value during the last five years. The total trade consists of 45·23 per cent. of imports and 54·77 per cent. of exports.

The increase in volume is due to increased exports, which are 41·55 per cent. above the previous year's figures, though nearly 2 per cent. below the five years' average. As compared with the imports of last year and the average annual imports for the past five years, the imports of the year under report have fallen off by 1·75 and 9·6 per cent. respectively. Exports have increased in value by 43·4 per cent, and imports by 11·96 per cent. The rise in exports was for the most part due to the brisk trade in raw cotton consequent on an unusually good cotton harvest, and the fall in imports occurred mainly under the heads "coal and coke" and "grain and pulse."

133. The following table shows the total import and export trade of Berar with the adjoining provinces during 1895-96 as compared with the total trade of the previous year and the average of the five preceding years :— External trade.

The trade between Berar and the Central Provinces and Bombay as usual far exceeds that between Berar and other provinces or centres; it amounts to 88·04 per cent. of the total imports and 90·47 per cent. of the total exports. The imports from Bombay are 41·91 per cent. and the exports to Bombay nearly 79 per cent, of the total trade. With the Central Provinces the import trade is 46·14 per cent., and the export trade 11·55 per cent., of the whole trade of the province. These figures when compared with those of the previous year show very slight variations.

The trade between Berar and the North-Western Provinces and Oudh shows an increase in the imports, but a falling off in the exports. With Rajputana and Central India and with the Punjab there has been an increase both in imports and exports. There has been again a decrease in the imports from Bengal; but the exports have risen considerably.

The principal variations are explained below :—

Coal and coke.—The consumption of coal and coke almost invariably follows the cotton crop. A good cotton season causes a large consumption of coal and coke by the gins and presses, and vice versâ. The season of 1894-95 was a poor one, and lessened the importation of coal and coke during the first two quarters of the year under report.

Cotton, manufactured.—The imports under this head have risen by 22,000 maunds. The increase occurs markedly in the last two quarters of the year, and was due probably to prosperity caused by a succession of good harvests. The increase is most noticeable under European piece-goods. Imports of Indian piece-goods have also increased.

Grain and pulse.—The cause of the fall is doubtless the good harvests of the year under report. The large exports show that there was grain, and to spare, grown within the province.

Sugar.—There is an increase of 20,000 maunds under this head, which occurred for the most part under the head of refined sugar, and was most marked in the last two quarters of the year. This is attributed to increased prosperity owing to a succession of good harvests and to the unusual number of marriage festivities that took place in the last quarter of the year under report.

The variations in the other articles are not sufficiently large to require comment.

Exports.

135. The exports of the province are summarized in the table below :—

The principal fluctuations in the figures above are explained thus :—

Cotton, raw.—The present year's figures are the highest on record. The increase is due to the excellent cotton crop of the year under report. The exports rose very high in the last two quarters of the year.

The export of raw cotton from Bombay to Japan increased largely during the year under report, but the export to Europe, though considerably in excess of the previous year, has apparently been impeded by high prices in Bombay.

Grain and pulse.—The exports under this head show an increase of 240,000 maunds. The province is slowly recovering from the great depression in 1893-94; but the Indian wheat harvests have been poor, and the prices in Europe continue low.

Oilseeds.—The export has increased by 77,000 maunds, the increase being entirely in linseed.

General remarks.

136. Generally the trade of the year indicates satisfactory progress, and has resulted in an increase in value both in imports and exports. The increase in the quantity of exports shows productive capacity, while the decrease in the quantity of imports is principally due to the recent good harvests which have decreased the demand for imported food-grains.

Road-borne trade.

System of registration.

137. The registration of road-borne trade has been conducted during the year under report on the southern portion of Berar bordering on His Highness the Nizam's territory; and, as anticipated last year, the establishment employed completed a circuit of the province on the 1st April 1896, registering both export and import trade at all the most important localities.

There has been no alteration in the number of nakas. Since the close of the year it has been decided to utilize the staff in registering the internal trade of the province in accordance with the wishes of the Government of India with a view to maintain statistics that may be useful hereafter in supplying information for the construction of railways, &c.

Imports and exports.

138. The total imports amounted to 380,751 maunds and the exports to 1,41,965 maunds. The volume of trade was largest in the articles mentioned below :—

	Imports. Mds.	Exports. Mds.
Cotton, raw	11,306	6,080
Cotton, manufactured ...	1,929	21,762
Grain and pulse	125,773	7,388
Oils	4,892	8,687
Oil-seeds	193,302	634
Sugar	28,234	5,539

Of the ten stations selected for trade registration, Rajgaon recorded the largest traffic, as it was the only place served by a Public Works Department road. The considerable quantity of exports under manufactured cotton consisted chiefly of cotton cloth imported into the Nizam's territory from Bombay. The large imports under "grain and pulse" and "oil-seeds" mainly comprised wheat and jowar" under the former and linseed under the latter. The trade in sugar, as usual, has been almost entirely confined to "gur," and, as compared with last year, shows an increase of 7,424 maunds in imports and an increase of 811 maunds in exports.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

One thousand and thirty-nine and three-quarter miles of Provincial Public Works Department, metalled and unmetalled, and fair-weather roads were maintained in good order throughout the year at a cost of Rs. 3,51,831, being at the rate of Rs. 338·38 per mile as against a mileage rate of Rs. 391·11 for the previous year. This included an expenditure of Rs. 27,689 for special repairs on the Gugumal forest road consequent on the heavy land slips which occurred during the unusually heavy monsoon of 1894.

Miscellaneous Public Improvements.

146. Akola water-works.—This project was practically completed during the year, but owing to unusual drought, which caused great scarcity of water in Berar, and the total failure of supply from the water-works at Amraoti and Khamgaon, the flow by gravitation from the infiltration gallery failed in February 1896, and it was subsequently necessary to raise the supply by pumping. This is believed, however, to have been an exceptional circumstance; and as the reservoir originally proposed would have been of no use if it had been constructed, it has been decided to abandon the idea of making the reservoir.

The expenditure to end of 31st March 1896 was Rs. 4,95,970, that during the year being Rs. 41,639 as against an estimated amount (as revised) of Rs. 5,22,479.

Cistern at Chikalda.—A cistern for drinking water was constructed at Chikalda at a cost of Rs. 9,342.

Tools and Plant.

148. The total outlay incurred on account of tools and plant during the year amounted to Rs. 6,934.

Local Funds.

Contribution works.

150. Secunderabad water-works.—The expenditure to the end of the current year was Rs. 7,58,722, the expenditure during the year being Rs. 2,18,489 against an estimated amount of Rs. 8,49,410.

The construction of the dam of the reservoir was steadily continued, although much difficulty and delay were occasioned by outbreaks of cholera among the work people and by disputes with the principal contractor. The earthwork and pitching were carried up to about two-thirds the full height. The main was laid, and the laying of the distribution system was commenced.

The following works and repairs were completed during the year :—

Provincial Contract scheme.

153. The year under review is the seventeenth in which the system has been in force of assigning a certain percentage of the Provincial revenues to the Resident for Civil, Public Works, and Railway expenditure. The proportion for the first four years was 54 per cent., and thereafter up to 1886-87 fifty-two per cent. This was subsequently reduced to 50 per cent. for a period of five years commencing from the year 1887-88 ; but as this percentage was found insufficient, it was increased to 51 for the three years 1889-90 to 1891-92. The present percentage is 50, and it has been fixed for the five years beginning with the year 1892-93.

The balance at credit of the Resident under the new contract scheme on the 31st March 1896 was Rs. 2,43,856 as shown below :—

The increase in both cases is chiefly due to partial reassessment of land revenue and to arrear collections.

The revenue under this head represents the duty levied by the Opium Agent at Malwa on opium imported into Berar. The falling off was due to the quantity of opium imported in 1895-96 being below the expectation.

Miscellaneous	209	79	...	130
Total ...	9,01,474	9,17,320	16,156	310

The increase in both cases is chiefly in the sale of court-fee stamps, and is explained by the Commissioner as due to increased litigation in suits of high valuation.

V.—Excise.

The increase as compared with the estimate is apparently due to arrear collection, and the decrease as compared with the actuals of the previous year is due to a falling off in sales, various causes for which are suggested by the Commissioner in paragraph 7 of his remarks upon the Excise Administration Report for 1895-96.

Total ...	4,73,401	4,94,339	22,497	1,559

The decrease as compared with the estimate is in the sales of timber owing to the continued ill effects of the bad harvest of 1894-95, which had the effect of reducing the ordinary demand for wood for building purposes. A slight improvement in the sale of timber, &c., accounts for the increase in 1895-96.

This is a fluctuating head of account dependent upon the amount of loans and advances granted. The decrease in 1895-96 is chiefly due to the interest on certain Government securities formerly belonging to the Local Committee of Karinja having now been credited to municipal funds owing to the establishment of a municipality at Karinja.

Do. (Local) ...	175	167	...	8

The increase over the estimate is chiefly due to the inclusion in the accounts for the first time of certain receipts of the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railway Police. The decrease as compared with the actuals of 1894-95 is mainly due to a refund made in that year from the District Funds on account of surplus of cattle pound receipts transferred in excess to the District Funds in the previous year, and to decrease in receipts for fines for cattle impounded.

E.—MISCELLANEOUS.

XXII.—Receipts in aid of Superannuation, &c.

Better than the estimate ... ... Rs. 11,648
Better than the actuals of 1894-95 ... „ 5,039

The increase in both cases is chiefly under "Contributions of officers other than police officers lent to foreign service," due to additional officers lent during the year; also increase owing to recovery of arrear contributions of Public Works Department officials employed under District Boards.

XXIII.—Stationery and Printing.

Below the actuals of 1894-95 ... ... „ 3,385

The decrease in both cases chiefly occurs in the item of Jail Press receipts under the minor head "Other press receipts"—a fluctuating head of account not subject to correct estimate.

XXV.—Miscellaneous.

Better than the actuals of 1894-95 ... ... „ 9,487

The increase as compared with the estimate is chiefly under the head "Gain by exchange on local transactions," due to the prevalence of favorable rates of exchange during the year; the increase as compared with the actuals of the previous year is also under the above head and under the head Rates and Taxes, Local (bazar assessment, including taxes on stalls and markets.)

H.—RAILWAYS.

XXVI.—State Railways.

XXXII.—Civil Works.

Better than the estimate ... ... Rs. 3,931

The increase over the estimate is due apparently to these receipts having been underestimated, and the slight increase over the actuals of the previous year calls for no remark.

L.—Receipts by Military Department.

XXXIII.—Army, Hyderabad Contingent.

Below the actuals of 1894-95 ... ... „ 46,682

The receipts under this head are of a fluctuating character. The differences in both cases occur chiefly under the head "10. Ordnance Establishment, Stores and Camp Equipage," and depend upon the quantity of advance stores returned to arsenals and their value credited in the accounts.

155. The receipts credited under this head represent the contributions received from District Boards towards the cost of erecting certain public works and for supervision charges of the District Post establishment. No transactions have occurred in the accounts for 1895-96 on account of the former, and hence the decrease.

Local.

Contributions from Provincial to Local.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 2,176

The decrease as compared with the estimate occurs under contribution for public works. The decrease as compared with the actuals of 1894-95 is on account of resumption of provincial grant for primary education during 1895-96.

Disbursements.

156. The charges for 1895-96 aggregate Rs. 1,01,89,809 as against Rs. 1,05,97,632 for the previous year, resulting in a net decrease of Rs. 4,07,823 as shown in the following statement :—

Total ...	39,74,721	38,47,961	42,054	1,68,814

Grant 1.—Army and Garrison Staff. Decrease Rs. 3,746.

The difference is chiefly under musketry instruction class and under salaries and exchange compensation allowance of General Officer Commanding and Assistant Adjutant-General, Hyderabad Contingent. During 1894-95 a musketry instruction class was held, while in 1895-96 no such class was held. The saving under salaries is due to the absence on leave out of India of the General Officer Commanding Hyderabad Contingent and to the appointment of Assistant Adjutant-General having been held by a Captain instead of by a Major as in 1894-95.

Grant 3.—Regimental Pay, Allowances and Charges. Increase Rs. 37,878.

The increase under this grant is chiefly due to the grant of good conduct pay and increased rate of pay to sowars of the lancer regiments of Hyderabad Contingent and under exchange compensation allowance to regimental officers.

Grant 4.—Commissariat Establishment. Decrease Rs. 32,107.

The decrease is chiefly under compensation to natives and for horses of Cavalry, Hyderabad Contingent, and is due to closer supervision of prices.

Grant 5.—Stud and Remount Establishment. Increase Rs. 3,629.

During 1895-96 a larger number of remounts and bullocks was purchased than during the year 1894-95.

Grant 6.—Clothing. Decrease Rs. 17,107.

During the year 1895-96 the Infantry regiments, Hyderabad Contingent, received no clothing, hence the decrease. The decrease is also partly due to the discontinuance of the further enlistment of the active reservists.

Grant 9.—Medical Establishment. Decrease Rs. 5,270.

The saving is chiefly due to the transfer of a Senior Assistant Surgeon to the pension establishment and to a smaller supply of medical stores than in the previous year having been obtained during 1895-96 for hospitals, Hyderabad Contingent.

Grant 10.—Ordnance Establishment. Decrease Rs. 87,266.

The decrease is under cost of ordnance stores obtained on indent and under purchase of camp equipage. During 1894-95 Webley pistols and carbine buckets were supplied to Lancer regiments, Hyderabad Contingent; rifles, &c., to reservists, and accoutrements to Infantry regiments, Hyderabad Contingent; and new carriages, &c., to two batteries of Hyderabad Contingent. No such expenditure was incurred during 1895-96.

Grant 12.—Education. Decrease Rs. 258.

The saving under this head is due to the abolition of the appointment of Inspector of Schools, Hyderabad Contingent, from 1st June 1894.

Grant 13.—Sea Transport Charges. Decrease Rs. 2,364.

The saving under this head occurs under passage money on account of officers to and from Europe, and is due to a smaller number of officers who are entitled to passage money having proceeded to Europe on medical certificate during 1895-96 than in 1894-95.

Grant 14.—Miscellaneous Services. Decrease Rs. 8,388.

The decrease under this grant occurs chiefly under compensation for losses and camp of exercise. During 1894-95 a sum of Rs. 4,329 was incurred under compensation for losses on account of horses in Lancer regiments, Hyderabad Contingent, with the special sanction of the Government of India, while a sum of Rs. 380 only was incurred under this head during 1895-96. An expenditure of Rs. 2,921 was incurred under camp of exercise during 1894-95, while in 1895-96 a sum of Rs. 260 only was incurred.

Grant 16.—Rewards for Military Services. Increase Rs. 401.

The increase under this grant is due to the admission of certain native officers to the 2nd Class Order of British India, and to the advancement of a native officer to 1st Class Order of British India during 1895-96.

Grant 17.—Military Pensions to Europeans. Decrease Rs. 9,164.

The saving is under—

I. Pensions to Medical warrant officers.

II. Gratuities.

III. Contributions on account of Royal Artillery and Medical officers, and is due to—

I. The death during 1894-95 of a medical warrant officer.

II. The grant of gratuity on retirement to Captain R. J. Bevan, R. A., which was adjusted in 1894-95.

III. The smaller amount of contributions adjusted in 1895-96 than in 1894-95 owing to absence of Royal Artillery and Medical officers on leave.

The decrease is chiefly under pensions to native commissioned, non-commissioned officers and soldiers, and is due to arrears of pensions for previous years paid in other provinces having been adjusted in 1894-95.

Grant 18.—Military Pensions to Natives. Decrease Rs. 2,819.

The decrease is due to the death during 1894-95 of widows of certain warrant officers of Hyderabad Contingent.

Grant 19.—Widows' Pensions. Decrease Rs. 313.

CHAPTER VI.

VITAL STATISTICS AND MEDICAL RELIEF.

SECTION I.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

System of registration.

163. The system of registration of births and deaths adopted in Berar during the year under report was the same as that in force in the preceding year. The details of this system have been fully explained in paragraph 151 of the Administration Report for 1894-95, from which it will be seen that it is complete and effective.

Births, provincial figures.

164. The total number of live-births registered during 1895 was 105,952 as against 94,759 in 1894, showing an increase of 11,193. The birth-rate to population was 37·2 per mille, or 3·9 more than the rate for the preceding year. The greatest number of births was registered in the months of March, October, August, and September, and the least in January, June, and May.

Births according to district.

165. The birth-rate in the districts varied considerably, the largest was 44·2 per 1,000 in the Buldana district, and the lowest was 25·4 in the Wun district; the rates of the remaining four districts—Ellichpur, Akola, Amraoti, and Basim—standing at 43·1, 41·4, 40·7, and 27·3 respectively. On the whole there was an increase in the birth-rate recorded for each district as compared with the previous year, except the Basim district, where there was a decrease of 0·1 per 1,000.

Births according to sex.

166. Of the total live-births registered during the year, 54,340 were those of males and 51,612 of females, the proportion of the sexes born being 105·2 males to every 100 females as compared with 105·6, the average of the last quinquennium.

Still-births.

167. The number of still-births registered, but not included in the provincial return, numbered 5,305 as compared with 4,338 in the previous year. Of these 3,026 were males and 2,279 females, or 132 still male-births to every 100 still female-births. The proportion of still to live births was 5·0 per cent. as compared with 4·3, the mean of the previous five years.

Deaths, provincial figures.

168. Judging from the figures of mortality, the year was generally more unhealthy than its predecessor, and, according to the Sanitary Commissioner's statement, it was "an unhealthy one beyond the average." This, he says, was due to an abnormally light rainfall and an abnormally high mean temperature during the hot weather. The total number of deaths registered during the year was 141,937 as against 119,561 in 1894, or an increase of 22,376. The increase in mortality occurred chiefly under cholera, dysentery, and diarrhœa, which together accounted for an increase of 18,033 deaths. The death-rate in proportion to population was 49·9 per 1,000—a rate which has only been exceeded twice in the last twenty-eight years.

Death-rate according to districts.

169. According to districts the death-rate ranged from 58·4 in the Basim district to 41·6 in the Wun district. Wun district, which recorded the minimum birth-rate, also recorded the minimum death-rate; whilst Basim, which came next to Wun with a low birth-rate, has recorded the highest death-rate (58·4). Buldana, which returned the highest birth-rate, shows the next highest death-rate to Basim (55·3). It was in these two districts that cholera was most severely raging, and this in a measure accounts for the high mortality in those districts.

Death-rate according to sex.

170. Of the total recorded deaths, 74,781 were males and 67,156 females. The death-rate of males per 1,000 of population was 51·1 and of females 48·7 as against 43·3 and 40·7 respectively in the previous year. The difference between the two (2·4) is very similar to that of the previous year (2·6).

In every district male deaths exceeded those of females, the proportion for the province being 111·3 deaths amongst males to every 100 deaths amongst females, ranging from 121·1 in the Wun district to 106·7 in the Buldana district.

Death-rate according to age.

171. The following statement shows the death-rate as distributed at the different ages per 1,000 of the total population :—

Age.	1893.	1894.	1895.
At all ages	32·6	42·0	49·9

Death-rate according to class.

172. The following table exhibits the number of deaths registered by class and the rate of mortality compared with similar figures for the previous year :—

Class.	Population.	1894.		1895.
		Deaths registered.	Deaths per 1,000 of population.	Deaths registered.	Deaths per 1,000 of population.

Other classes	119,288	6,425	53·8	6,747	56·5

Causes of death.

173. The statement below compares the number of deaths registered from different causes during the year under report with the figures for 1894 and the mean of the previous ten years :—

Causes of death.	Mean for 10 years.		1894.		1895.

Sale of quinine.

174. The system of selling quinine through the agency of the Postal Department, which was introduced in January 1895, has proved successful to the extent that 97½ lbs. of quinine have been sold, which is fairly good, as the year was not marked by any malarial fever epidemic. The extension of the measure to the Melghat is under consideration, and, if possible, will be given effect to during 1896.

SECTION II.

IMMIGRATION AND EMIGRATION.

175. There are no means available for obtaining accurate statistics relating to immigration and emigration.

MEDICAL RELIEF.

Civil Hospitals.

Number of hospitals.

176. The number of civil hospitals open during the year was, as formerly, eight. These institutions are maintained solely at the expense of the State.

Patients treated.

177. The statement given below shows the extent to which medical relief was afforded at these institutions during the three years which ended with 1895:—

Year.	In-door patients.						Out-door patients.		Total of in-door and out-door patients.
1893 ...	2,071	1,847	44	2·12	135	70·61	48,746	260·6	50,817
1894 ...	2,213	1,980	61	2·75	128	71·07	54,028	282·11	56,241
1895 ...	2,363	2,048	96	4·06	141	71·47	56,298	284·80	58,661

Classification of patients.

178. Of the total number of patients treated, 790 were Europeans, 1,060 Eurasians, 34,608 Hindus, 18,598 Muhammadans, and 3,605 belonged to other classes. According to sex, 33,676 were men, 7,495 women, and 17,490 children.

Diseases treated.

179. The figures of the chief diseases treated during the year under report contrast as follows with those relating to the two preceding years:—

Diseases.	1895.	1894.	1893.
Malarial fevers	16,196	17,214	13,070
Worms	4,856	4,427	4,159
Ulcers	3,827	3,863	3,440
Diseases of the eye	3,455	3,629	3,757
Diseases of the skin	3,382	3,261	2,751
Dyspepsia	1,708	1,164	1,394
Dysentery	1,613	1,019	858
Diarrhœa	1,399	1,143	967
Rheumatism	1,167	1,000	1,154
Ear diseases	1,116	1,092	1,185

Surgical operations.

180. On the 1st January 1895 there remained under treatment 5 cases which had undergone major operations during the preceding year, which, added to the 224 similar cases of the year, give a total of 229 as compared with 272 in the preceding year. The number of minor operations performed during the year was 2,446 as against 3,341 in 1894. Thus the year's record shows a fall in both the classes of operations compared with the figures of 1894. Of the 229 cases of major operations referred to, 197 were successful; in 23 cases the patients were either relieved or discharged, and 6 cases proved fatal, leaving 3 cases still under treatment at the close of the year.

Income and expenditure.

181. The following table gives an abstract of the income and expenditure of civil hospitals in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1895 as compared with 1894 and 1893:—

The only sums under the head "Income" requiring notice are those received from sources other than Government. They are represented by Rs. 351-13-5 under "Sale of medicines," Rs. 631-12-0 under "Subscriptions," and Rs. 26-12-0 under "Miscellaneous receipts," making in all a total of Rs. 1,010-5-5.

As the whole cost of the civil hospitals is met by Government, and as all receipts derived from sources other than Government are credited to Government, the sum of Rs. 1,010-5-5 referred to above is shown on the expenditure side as "credited to Government." There is therefore no closing balance in the table above.

Levy of fees for medicine and medical attendance.

182. The rules for the payment of fees for medicine and medical attendance by the well-to-do were in operation in all the civil hospitals, and the amount realized by the operation of these rules during 1895 was Rs. 351-13-5 as against Rs. 16-14-0 in 1894. The suggestion made by the Government of India in 1893 for providing a separate moribund ward at each civil hospital for the admission and treatment of persons in a dying condition is receiving attention. Such wards have been constructed in three places, and plans and estimates for their construction in two other places are under consideration.

Charitable Dispensaries.

Number of dispensaries.

183. The number of dispensaries during the year continued to be the same as in the two previous years, viz., 38. It is under contemplation to open a new dispensary at Rallegaon in the Wun district.

Patients treated.

184. The following table shows the extent to which medical relief was afforded in the dispensaries at work during 1895 as compared with 1894 and 1893 :—

185. Of the total number (292,694) of patients treated during 1895, 130,625 were men, 44,550 women, and 117,519 children. Of these 154 were Europeans, 893 Eurasians, 170,986 Hindus, 110,442 Muhammadans, and 10,219 other classes.

Surgical operations.

187. The total number of surgical operations, both major and minor, fell from 9,996 in 1894 to 9,448 in the year under report. Major operations, excluding the 7 cases which were left over from 1894, show a decrease from 438 to 401, and minor operations from 9,558 to 9,047. Of the major operations, including the 7 cases referred to, 364 were cured; in 23 cases the patients were relieved and in 3 discharged otherwise, while 7 cases proved fatal, leaving 11 still under treatment on the 31st December 1895.

Levy of fees for medicine and medical attendance at dispensaries.

189. The rules for the payment of fees for medicine and medical attendance were in force in all the 38 dispensaries in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during the year under report, and a sum of Rs. 2,591 was realized as fees under the operation of these rules at 37 dispensaries as against a sum of Rs. 1,560 realized at 18 dispensaries in 1894. The results of the year show that the attendance at dispensaries did not suffer by the operation of these rules.

The Dufferin Hospital.

190. The Dufferin Hospital for women and children at Amraoti, which was opened on the 15th January 1895, has now been working for a year, and shows good results. The in-door attendance was 96 and the out-door attendance 6,215. Of the cases treated, 17 were midwifery cases, 4 of which were disposed of in the hospital. The expenditure incurred during the year was Rs. 11,616, including Rs. 6,795 spent on buildings and repairs.

SECTION IV.

SANITATION.

Expenditure on sanitation by municipalities.

191. During 1895 there were 12 municipalities in Berar. Excluding Karinja, which was brought under the operation of the Berar Municipal Law with effect from the 1st April 1895, the total municipal expenditure in the province on sanitary works was Rs. 1,02,504 as against Rs. 1,07,879 in the preceding year. Of this, Rs. 10,486 were spent on drainage, Rs. 25,944 on water-supply, and Rs. 66,074 on domestic cleansing, or 5·6, 10·9, and 28·7 per cent. respectively of the total estimated income of all the municipalities except Karinja. No works of any magnitude were undertaken during the year under report, but satisfactory progress was made with the drainage work at Shegaon, and a drainage scheme has been devised for Amraoti Town.

Expenditure on sanitation by District Boards.

192. A sum of Rs. 94,715 was set apart by District Boards for expenditure on sanitary works during 1895, out of which Rs. 85,751 were actually spent as against Rs. 1,22,592 expended in 1894 and Rs. 93,578 in 1893. Besides the sum of Rs. 85,751, which represents an expenditure of Rs. 10,449 under drainage, Rs. 32,979 under water-supply, and Rs. 42,323 under domestic cleansing, Rs. 25,874 were spent on other works not coming under the above heads.

Water-supply and drainage as bearing on mortality.

193. The most important works in connection with water-supply and drainage as bearing on mortality are shown in the following statement:—

Sanitary Boards and sanitary survey.

194. The District Sanitary Board met six times, or once at each head-quarter station, during the year under report to take stock of the improvements effected on the recommendations made by the Sanitary Commissioner since 1888, the year in which a systematic sanitary survey was started in Berar. During 1895 seventy-seven villages were surveyed, which brings the total number surveyed from the year 1888 to 33 towns and 626 villages, leaving 6 towns and 5,160 villages still to be surveyed in the province.

Sanitation Law.

195. The question of a Sanitary Law for the province has been under consideration for some time past, and is now engaging the attention of the Sanitary Commissioner and Commissioner, whose proposals are awaited.

SECTION V.

VACCINATION.

Staff.

196. The establishment worked up to its sanctioned strength, and the average number of vaccinators employed throughout the year under report was the same as in the preceding two years, viz., 44.

System of vaccination.

197. The system in force in Berar is vaccination with animal lymph taken direct from the cow or buffalo to the exclusion of all other methods, except that the season's work is started with lanoline paste manufactured at head-quarters under the immediate supervision of the Sanitary Commissioner.

Work done.

198. The following abstract contrasts the work done during 1895-96 with that of the previous two years :—

Year.	Primary vaccination.			Re-vaccination.			Average number of persons vaccinated by each vaccinator.
	Total.	Successful.	Percentage of success.	Total.	Successful.	Percentage of success.
1893-94 ...	97,786	92,954	95·1	39,366	8,344	21·2	3,117
1895-96 ...	92,694	88,917	95·9	13,911	3,260	23·4	2,423

This shows a decrease both in primary vaccinations and re-vaccinations as compared with the previous two years. The fall in primary vaccination is mainly attributed to the unhealthiness of the past two years, and that in re-vaccinations to want of popularity of the operation.

Of the 88,917 successful primary operations, 67,439 were on infants under one year of age and 19,200 on children over one year and under six years, and 2,278 on children over six years of age and adults.

VITAL STATISTICS AND MEDICAL RELIEF.

Influence of vaccination in checking small-pox.

199. The rate of protection afforded during the year was 31·8 per 1,000 of the population as compared with 32·2 in the previous year and 34·7 the mean of the previous five years. The efficacy of vaccination in diminishing mortality from small-pox is exhibited in the following table:—

	Average for the five years ending with					1893-94.	1894-95.	1895-96.

Expenditure.

200. The total cost of the department amounted to Rs. 17,724, showing an increase of Rs. 147 over the expenditure of the previous year and of Rs. 229 over that for 1893-94. Of this the pay of the sanctioned establishment alone came to Rs. 16,918 as against Rs. 16,972 in the previous year and Rs. 17,066 in 1893-94. The average cost of each successful vaccination was 3 annas and 1 pie as compared with 3 annas in the previous year and 2 annas and 9 pies in 1893-94.

Compulsory vaccination in municipalities.

201. The Vaccination Act, XIII of 1880, was in force in all the municipalities in Berar except Karinja, which became a municipality at the beginning of the year under report. It is under contemplation to introduce the Act in that area as well. The Act worked satisfactorily and without friction, and no prosecutions under it were found necessary.

CHAPTER VII.

INSTRUCTION.

SECTION I.

GENERAL SYSTEM OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

202. An account of the general system of public instruction in Berar will be found in paragraphs 197 to 206 of the Administration Report for 1892-93.

EDUCATION.

203. The following statement summarises the statistics of all classes of educational institutions in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for the years 1894-95 and 1895-96. It will be seen that the year under report was not quite favorable to the progress of education in the province. The total number of schools and pupils fell to 1,180 and 49,243 from 1,228 and 49,985 respectively in 1894-95. Of the 1,180 institutions, 52 were for girls, and of the 49,243 scholars, 3,473 were girls. The percentage of male scholars to male population of school-going age was 20·46, and of female scholars to female population of school-going age was 1·65 as against 21·01 and 1·41 respectively in 1894-95. The decrease during the year in the number of schools and scholars is attributed principally to the gradual closing of indigenous private schools, aided and unaided, and partially to the unhealthiness of the year :— Number of school and scholars.

University education.

205. Of the students who have received education at the local high schools and who are now studying in the colleges of the Bombay Presidency, seven passed various University examinations during the year.

Secondary education.

206. An important event in the educational history of Berar during the year under report was the opening of a private high school at Amraoti in December 1895 by four young men from Nagpur, three of whom were graduates of the Calcutta University, and one a Shastri. There were 129 students on its rolls at the close of the year 1895-96. The fees charged in it are the same as in the Government high schools, and at present the institution depends entirely on its fee income. The number of Government high schools and middle schools was the same as in 1894-95, viz., 2 and 24 respectively. The average number of scholars attending the two Government high schools showed in the aggregate an increase of 16 as compared with the preceding year, but the actual number on the rolls at the close of the year 1895-96 was 117 less than at the end of 1894-95. This large difference is due to the opening of the private high school at Amraoti, which in a little more than three months drew away 103 scholars from the Government high schools of Amraoti and Akola. The average daily attendance in the 24 middle schools was 2,554 as against 3,085 in 1894-95. The aggregate cost of the two Government high schools and 24 middle schools amounted to Rs. 76,043 as against Rs. 80,485 in the preceding year. To this expenditure of Rs. 76,043, Provincial revenues contributed Rs. 52,727, school fees Rs. 20,380, and Municipal funds and subscriptions Rs. 2,936. Taking the two Government high schools only, their total cost amounted to Rs. 21,838, of which Rs. 14,592 were met from Provincial revenues and the balance from school fees; while of the total expenditure of Rs. 54,204 on the 24 middle schools, Rs. 38,136 were spent from Provincial revenues, Rs. 13,132 from school fees, and Rs. 2,936 from Municipal funds and subscriptions. Thus the total cost of educating each pupil in secondary schools amounted to Rs. 20-3-10 as against Rs. 18-4-11 in 1894-95, and the cost to Provincial revenues per pupil came to Rs. 14-0-6 as against Rs. 13-4-5 in the preceding year.

The following extract from the provincial report on education shows the success achieved by the Berar students in the matriculation examination during 1895-96:—

Matriculation.

Twelve boys from the Akola High School and 30 from the Amraoti High School appeared for the matriculation examination of the Bombay University held in November 1895, and 6 out of the former and 12 out of the latter succeeded in passing the test. Of the 2,981 candidates who appeared for the examination, 944, or a little more than 31 per cent., passed, while the percentage of passes from the Akola High School was 50, and that from the Amraoti High School was 40. A very satisfactory feature of the year's result was that of the 18 successful candidates from the two high schools, 10 got more than 40 per cent. of the total number of marks against 1 of the previous year; and that the best of our students stood as high as 20th in the list of passed men (944). This indicates that the quality of instruction in the two high schools has decidedly improved during the year. Another gratifying feature of the year was that a boy from the Akola High School won the second Jagannath Shankarshet Sanskrit scholarship for the first time since the establishment of high schools in Berar. The same boy got the "Sinclair prize." Two boys from the Akola High School and one from the Amraoti High School were awarded the Berar University scholarship.

Primary public schools for boys under public management.

207. During 1895-96, 33 District Board primary schools for boys were opened and 14 closed, while the number of Municipal schools remained unchanged. Thus there was a net increase of 19 primary schools for boys under public management. The number of pupils attending these schools has also increased by 1,957. Owing to temporary financial exigencies, the grant to primary education from Provincial revenues was entirely withdrawn during the year under report. Further particulars relating to primary schools for boys under public management will be found in the table below:—

Education of Europeans and Eurasians.

209. During the year under report the only school for Europeans and Eurasians in the province was, as in the preceding year, the Catholic school at Amraoti. On the 31st March 1896 it had on its rolls 17 boys and 37 girls as against 22 boys and 33 girls at the end of the preceding year. The average daily attendance was 16 boys and 28 girls. As the manager has represented that the month of April is unsuitable for the holding of the annual examination of this school, the usual examination was at his request not held during that month, and it has been arranged that in future it shall be held in September instead of in April.

Education of Muhammadans.

210. The following statement summarises the statistics of the Government, District Board, and Municipal Hindustani schools :—

Total No. of schools on 31st March.						Total No. of scholars on 31st March.						Total No. of pupils examined and passed under standards I to VIII.
1895.			1896.			1895.			1896.
Boys.	Girls.	Total.	Boys.	Girls.	Total	Boys.	Girls.	Total.	Boys.	Girls.	Total.	Examined.	Passed.

											Total for 1894-95 ...	1,981	1,225

This statement does not show the number of Muhammadan boys attending other than Hindustani or Anglo-Hindustani schools. If the 31 Muhammadan boys attending the high schools, 16 attending the Training College, and 2,198 studying in the Marathi and Anglo-Marathi schools are also taken into account and the 171 non-Muhammadans in Hindustani schools are omitted, the total number of Muhammadan pupils in all classes of schools under public management works out to 6,618 as against 6,297 at the close of 1894-95. Adding to this total the number of Muhammadan pupils in schools under private management, the aggregate number of Muhammadan pupils under instruction at the close of the year under report comes to 7,233 as against 6,835 on the last day of the previous year.

Education of aborigines.

211. There is only one school, that at Chikalda, for aboriginal races. On the 31st March 1896 the total number of aboriginal pupils in the province was 166 as against 123 at the close of the previous year. The numbers examined and passed were 51 and 32 respectively as against 41 and 21 in the previous year. Fourteen boys passed in the 1st standard 4 in the 2nd, 10 in the 3rd, 2 in the 4th, 1 in the 6th, and 1 in the 7th. The boy who has passed in the 7th standard in the high school entrance examination from the Anglo-Marathi school at Wun is now studying the 8th standard in the Amraoti High School. The highest standard in which boys passed during 1894-95 was the 5th.

Female education.

212. From paragraph 203 ante it will be seen that at the close of the year under report there were 52 girls' schools, both public and private, in the province, attended by 45,773 girl scholars as against 47,015 in the preceding year. Of these 1,508 were studying in various institutions for boys, showing an increase of 466 over the number of the previous year in this respect. This increase the Director looks upon as a gratifying feature of the year's administration, as it has been obtained without any extra cost, and as it has tended to lessen the cost of educating each pupil in District Board schools. The number of girls' schools under public management remained the same as in 1894-95, viz., 47; but the girl scholars in them have risen from 1,809 to 1,831. The expenditure of these schools has fallen during the year under report from Rs. 12,100 to Rs. 11,677, giving Rs. 6-9-0 as the cost of educating each girl as against Rs. 6-15-9 in the preceding year. 699* girls passed examinations in standards I to VI as against 548 in the preceding year.

* Includes the number of girls who passed the several standards in boys' schools.

Classification of pupils by race or creed.

213. The following is a comparative statement for the last five years of the pupils in Government, District Board, and Municipal schools classified according to race or creed :—

Physical education.

214. The number of gymnasia rose from 505 in 1894-95 to 517 in 1895-96. Great interest is taken by the educational authorities in the matter of physical education. Easy school drill is also taught in most of the big schools.

Institutions for training teachers.

215. During 1895-96 the number of pupils in the Akola Training College was 71, or 1 less than in the preceding year. Of these 55 were on the Marathi side and 16 on the Hindustani side. The pupil-teachers' classes hitherto attached to Anglo-Vernacular schools were altogether abolished during the year. Of the total number of pupils in the Training College, 18 passed the first year's course and 17 the certificate examination. Twenty-two of the passed students obtained employment. As the state of the Training College was not satisfactory, a scheme for its reorganization was undertaken during the year under report, and has since been sanctioned.

Drawing.

216. The two high schools at Akola and Amraoti and the Training College sent up 79 candidates for the 1st grade examination of the Bombay School of Art, of whom 28 obtained certificates as against 18 in 1894-95. Besides these candidates, 2 boys from the Akola High School passed the 2nd grade Art examination.

Industrial training.

217. During the year under report there were two industrial schools in the province. One of these was that already in existence in Akola belonging to the American Mission, and the other was a new institution opened at Amraoti on the 1st January 1896. The latter school has classes in carpentry, tailoring, and blacksmith's work. On the 31st March 1896 these classes contained 4, 2, and 3 students respectively, of whom 3 were Brahmins, 2 Telugus, 1 a Parbhu, 1 a Vidur, 1 a Lad, and 1 a Burud. The school at Akola had at the close of the year 13 pupils as against 11 in the previous year. Of the 13 students, 10 were Christians and 3 Muhammadans.

Rao Saheb Deorao Vinayek's practical engineering class at Akola was opened on the 10th January 1895, and contained 14 pupils on the 31st March 1896, of whom 10 were Brahmins, 2 Kunbis, 1 a Parbhu, and 1 a Muhammadan. This class imparts instruction in engineering, fitting, carpentry, and smithing.

Instruction of candidates for patwarishipsin land measuring.

218. On the 31st March 1896, ninety-three candidates for patwarishipwere under instruction, and 13 passed the test during the year.

School fees and popular contributions.

219. The total amount of fees realized in all classes of Government schools and in Local Board primary schools was Rs. 58,618 as against Rs. 58,141 in 1894-95. Of the former amount, Rs. 7,677 were collected from high, Rs. 13,740 from middle, and Rs. 37,201 from primary schools. The amounts contributed by the people for educational purposes amounted to Rs. 9,199 as against Rs. 9,133 in 1894-95.

Expenditure.

220. The total expenditure of the department fell from Rs. 4,32,958 to Rs. 4,11,883, showing a decrease of Rs. 21,075. In the previous year there was a decrease of Rs. 18,200. The expenditure from district funds and subscriptions increased, but that from other sources decreased, the decrease in the expenditure from Provincial revenues in particular being Rs. 1,06,733. The reduction in expenditure effected within the last two years has in no way impaired the efficiency of public instruction, but implies the better and more careful administration of the Educational Department.

SECTION III.

LITERATURE AND THE PRESS.

Work done by Text-book Committee.

221. At the beginning of the year the Text-book Committee had nine books on hand for review, and six books were sent to them for opinion during the year. Three books were reported on, and the remaining twelve books were under consideration.

Book depôts.

222. There has been no change in the number of book depôts during 1895-96. There was one central depôt at Akola, with 29 branch depôts attached to Government or Local Board schools in towns and villages in all districts. The stock account of the depôt for the year 1895-96 stands thus:—

	Amount. Rs.	a.	p.
Value of the balance of stock on 31st March 1895 ...	21,479	5	4
Add cost of books and maps purchased during the year	11,505	5	4

Value of the balance on 31st March 1896 ...	15,483	9	7

Literature.

223. The number of books registered under Act XXV of 1867 during the year under report was 17 as against 19 in the preceding year. Nine of these were issues of the Berar School Paper, and five were issues of the Dñyan Sangraha, a monthly magazine. The other publications which were registered during the year were the Epitome of the Berar Census Report for 1891, Purane koni lihili (Who wrote the Puranas?), and a revised edition of Bala Niti, Part I. The Berar School Paper was printed at the Akola Shuddha Varhadi Press; Dñyan Sangraha at the Amraoti Pramod Sindhu Press, and Bala Niti at the Shri Vithal Press at Poona. The last book has been registered for copyright.

Public libraries.

224. The number of libraries or reading rooms opened during the year was four, and the number closed was the same. Thus the total number of libraries in the province was still 39.

Printing Presses.

225. The number of printing presses during the year was 11 (5 in the Akola district, 4 in the Amraoti district, and 2 in the Ellichpur district) as against 10 in the preceding year.

The period for which these operations are now reported is the sixteen months from the 1st April 1896 to the 31st July 1897. During this period four survey parties were at work, and their total expenditure came to Rs. 42,818. Three of the parties were continuously employed in the revision survey, and the fourth, known as the Melghat party, was for the most part engaged in the settlement work of the Melghat and for a short period in the revision survey work. The revision survey work of the province was during the period under report confined to the Akot, Akola, and Jalgaon taluks of the Akola district, Daryapur taluk of the Ellichpur district, Mehkar and Chikhli taluks of the Buldana district, and the Murtizapur taluk of the Amraoti district, and the amount of work finished was 1,377,909 acres. The cost of this work for the first four months of this period was Rs. 38-6-8 per square mile, and for the remaining twelve months Rs. 15-7-3. The initial survey of the Melghat commenced in January 1896 was found likely to be useless and expensive, and was therefore abandoned. In its stead a thorough revision of the yoke rates was undertaken and completed. The Melghat party measured 6,937 acres and classed 11,536 acres at a cost of Rs. 102-8-9 per square mile. Proposals for the revision settlement of the Chikhli taluk of the Buldana district were sanctioned in July 1896, and the revised rates proclaimed in January 1897. The revision settlement reports of the Akola and Akot taluks were received during the year and new assessments sanctioned.

Waste lands.

3. As will be seen from paragraph 16 post of this summary, culturable assessed waste lands formed 2·8 per cent (i.e., 321,228 acres) of the total area of the province. By far the larger portion of this area, i.e., 310,129 acres, belonged to the Wun and Basim districts and the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district. The area of unoccupied lands in khalsa villages newly occupied during the year was 14,702 acres, and that of occupied land relinquished was 13,550 acres, Leased villages.

4. The total number of leased villages at the end of the year was 464 as compared with 470 in the previous year. The aggregate area of these was 855,127 acres, of which 106,113 acres were unoccupied; the occupied area amounted to 595,854 with an assessment of Rs. 2,42,684,

Course of legislation.

5. During the year (1896) the Cotton Duties Act, II of 1896, Act VIII of 1895 (an Act to amend Act V of 1861), the Glanders and Farcy Act, XX of 1879, the provisions of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts Land Revenue Code, 1896, and the Petroleum Act, XII of 1886, were applied to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. The rules issued during the year are those specified in statement B of section I of Chapter III,

Police.

6. The police force of the province was reduced during the year under report by 4 head constables and 8 constables. Its strength at the end of the year consisted of 9 gazetted officers, 563 subordinate officers, and 2,326 constables, or one policeman to 6·1 square miles and 1,001 of the population. The aggregate cost of the force amounted to Rs. 5,68,532.

Crime.

7. The total number of cognizable cases (exclusive of nuisance cases) rose from 5,158 in 1895 to 5,742 in 1896, the increase spreading over almost all classes of offences. This increase is due to the sudden rise in the crime returns in the last quarter of 1896 owing to scarcity and hard times brought on by an early cessation of the monsoon. Of the cases that occurred 78·9 were investigated by the police, and the percentage of police cases in which conviction was obtained was 65·8. The number of persons arrested and summoned was 10,777 as against 8,932 in 1895. The proportion of stolen property recovered was 28·1 per cent. against 25·3 in the preceding year. The number of non-cognizable offences also rose from 6,706 to 7,696.

Anthropometry.

8. The operations in connection with anthropometrical system are not as yet sufficiently advanced to afford any material for criticism: the supersession of anthropometry by the system of finger tip impressions has now been decided on.

Criminal Justice.

9. The number of criminal courts open during the year was the same as in the preceding year, namely 77. There was a large increase of criminal business in 1896 as compared with the preceding year. Offences reported rose from 17,577 to 19,223—an increase of 1,646 or 9·3 per cent.; cases returned as true increased from 14,396 to 16,106—an increase of 1,710 or 11·9 per cent.; and cases brought to trial increased from 12,112 to 13,868—an increase of 1,756 or 14·5 per cent. There were 25,707 persons for disposal by magistrates during the year. Of these 25,052 or 97·4 per cent. were disposed of, of whom 14,957 were discharged or acquitted and 9,217 were convicted. Of the persons sentenced to punishments of all kinds, 4 were sentenced to be hanged, 13 to transportation, 1,941 to imprisonment, 7,059 were fined, and 840 were sentenced to be whipped. Offences affecting the human body increased by 1,049 cases, and offences against property by 363 cases. Fines imposed amounted to Rs. 65,789-8-0 as against Rs. 51,636 in 1895. The average duration of cases disposed of was 8·4 days as against 8·2 in the preceding year. The number of witnesses was 45,772, of whom 80·8 per cent. were detained for one day only, 13·9 per cent. for two days, 3·3 per cent. for three days, and 2 per cent. for more than three days. The Sessions Court tried 84 persons in its original jurisdiction, of whom 48 were convicted. The percentage of acquittals in Sessions cases fell from 42·1 to 41·7 per cent. The total number of appeals for disposal was 1,057. Of this number 996 were disposed of during the year.

Jails.

10. During the year under report there was no change in the status of the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. The scheme for enlarging the Amraoti Jail is still held in abeyance for want of funds. The increase of crime during 1896 naturally resulted in an increase of the jail population, the daily average strength of which rose from 1318·83 to 1329·66. The number in the jails at the beginning of the year was 1,415, the number admitted during the year was 4,060, and the number discharged was 3,940. Of the total admissions 1,817 were convicts imprisoned during the year. Of the convicts 1,524 were Hindus and Sikhs and 293 were Muhammadans, and 10·4 per cent. of the whole number had been previously convicted. The percentage borne by the daily admissions into hospital to average strength was 17·5. The average number of convicts under sentence of labour was 1095·84, and of these nearly 50 per cent. were employed on manufactures, and the rest were either unable to work or were employed on jail duties. The total net cost of the jails was Rs. 69,094, and the net cost per head of average strength was Rs. 52, the corresponding figures for the preceding year being Rs 58,017 and Rs. 44 respectively.

Civil Justice.

11. The number of officers actually employed on civil judicial work on the last working day of the year was 42, or the same as in 1895. The total number of suits for disposal was 33,570—a decrease of 195 cases, or ·6 per cent., as compared with 1895, and the number disposed of was 27,058, or 80·6 per cent. of those for disposal. Of suits instituted, 23,033 were for money or movable property as against 24,580 in the previous year—a decrease of 1,547 or 6·3 per cent. The aggregate value of suits disposed of was Rs. 40,02,993-10-8 as against Rs. 41,77,692-11-1, being a decrease of Rs. 1,74,699-0-5 or 4·2 per cent. The average value of suits decreased from Rs. 151-6-2 to Rs. 151-5-10. Seventy-four per cent. of the suits were uncontested and 25·3 contested; the rest were either cases in which plaints were rejected or returned, or cases decided by arbitration. The average duration of contested cases was 138·7 days, while that of uncontested cases was 69·1 days; the corresponding figures for 1895 being 125·5 and 59·9 respectively. The number of applications for execution of decrees disposed of during the year was 30,478, or 80·4 per cent. of the number for disposal. Of these 3,582 were transferred to other courts; in 3,894 the decrees were fully satisfied; in 3,674 partially satisfied, and 19,328 applications were wholly infructuous. The total amount realized on decrees during the year was Rs. 3,59,506-3-0 as compared with Rs. 3,32,902-13-1 in 1895. There were 58 applications in bankruptcy during the year as against 54 in the previous year. Of these only 15 were granted. The total amount of fees realized during the year was Rs. 4,99,631-6-0—court fees Rs. 3,84,981-9-0, and process fees Rs. 1,14,649-13-0. The cost of the process-serving establishment was Rs. 66,248-14-6 as against Rs. 65,488-14-2 in the previous year. Including appeals pending from 1895-96, there were 1,872 appeals for disposal as against 1,689 in 1895, and 1,403 were disposed of.

Registration.

12. The number of registration offices fell from 68 to 67, but the total number of registrations rose from 33,942 to 36,507, the highest figure on record. The aggregate value of property transferred rose slightly from Rs. 1,08,21,188 to Rs. 1,08,44,054. Of the number of documents registered nearly 95 per cent. related to immovable property, the aggregate value involved being Rs. 1,06,01,888.

The total receipts of the Registration Department amounted to Rs. 90,473 as against Rs. 84,940 in 1895-96, and the expenditure to Rs. 50,512 as compared with Rs. 50,161 in the preceding year. The total surplus earned by the department since its formation stood at Rs. 5,21,120 at the end of the year.

Municipalities.

13. The total number of municipalities continued to be the same as in 1895-96, viz., 12. The aggregate income of these bodies was Rs. 2,50,912 and their expenditure Rs. 2,41,440.

Local Boards.

14. During the year under report there was no change in the number and constitution of the district and taluk boards in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. The only tract outside municipal area which is still exempt from the operation of the Berar Rural Boards Law is the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district. The income of the boards during the year was Rs. 6,55,655, of which 16·1 was contributed by provincial revenues, and the remaining 83·9 per cent. was realized from local sources. The expenditure aggregated Rs. 6,35,024, of which 40·5 was spent on Public Works, 31·9 on Education, 7·3 on Establishments, 3·6 on Superannuation Allowances and Pensions, 2·9 on Famine Relief, and the balance, i.e., 13·8 per cent., on Post Offices, Medical Institutions, and other heads.

Military.

15. Ellichpur is the only place in Berar at which a military force is stationed. During the year under report the force consisted of a detachment of the Hyderabad Contingent, having a strength of 129 artillery and 814 infantry.

Agriculture.

16. Of the total area of the province (viz., 11,352,798 acres) 72·4 per cent. was culturable assessed land, of which 69·6 was in occupation and the balance, 2·8 per cent., waste. Of the total area available for cultivation, excluding the Melghat taluk, 96·5 per cent. was occupied and 3·5 per cent. unoccupied, and in khalsa villages alone, excluding the Melghat, the proportion of occupied and unoccupied lands stood as 97·9 to 2·1.

The total culturable assessed land in occupation in the whole province was 7,889,742 acres, of which the area cropped during the year amounted to 6,251,718 acres or 79·2 per cent. The area kept under grass was 7·1 per cent. and the area left fallow 11·5 per cent. The patches of unculturable land in cultivated fields amounted to 2·2 per cent. of the area occupied. Of the total area under crops of all kinds (excluding 5,558 acres of land cropped for the second time), the area under kharif was 84 per cent. and the area under rabi 15·6 per cent., leaving 0·4 per cent. under garden cultivation. The principal crops grown were, as usual, jowari, cotton, wheat, tur, linseed, and gram, and they occupied respectively 39·2, 36, 6·2, 4·3, 3·4, and 3·1 per cent. of the cropped area. The area under irrigation increased from 41,304 acres to 63,346 acres. Buldana district is the only district in which cultivation by irrigation is comparatively important. The principal crops grown by this process were wheat, vegetable, and sugarcane.

Rainfall.

17. The year under report was the second year of scanty rainfall. The average fall amounted to 28 inches and 98 cents, or 3 inches and 9 cents more than the average of the preceding year, and 11 inches and 51 cents less than the average of the last quinquennium. After about the 20th of August 1896 there was a complete cessation of rain up to about the end of November, which resulted in the failure of the kharif to a greater or less extent and a diminution in the area under rabi. From September 1896 to March 1897 the rainfall was very much below the average.

Agricultural stock and horse-breeding and mule-breeding operations.

18. The statistics regarding agricultural stock show some fluctuations, but, as stated in previous reports, it is difficult to check the figures in a satisfactory manner. No operations either of horse-breeding or mule-breeding were carried on during the year under report. As stated in paragraph 17 of the Summary of the Administration Report for 1895-96, horse-breeding was finally abandoned in Berar as it proved a failure, and mule-breeding has never been successfully undertaken.

Loans to cultivators.

19. The amount advanced to agriculturists was Rs. 64,557, of which Rs. 60,762 were under the Land Improvement Loans Act and Rs. 3,795 under the Agriculturists Loans Act.

Cattle disease and veterinary.

20. There was no serious outbreak of any particular cattle disease in the province during the year under report. The total number of attacks of all kinds fell from 29,190 to 17,022, of which 787 were cases of rinderpest, 1,735 of anthrax, 4,005 of foot-and-mouth disease, 1,263 of pleuro-pneumonia, 70 of charbon symptoms, and 9,162 of other diseases. The percentage of deaths to attacks rose from 42·98 to 47·82.

Prices of produce and wages of labour.

21. The prices of wheat, gram, and jowari were nearly doubled during the year under report, and the price of rice also rose, but not to that extent. There was a general fall in the wages of labour.

Arboriculture.

22. At the close of the year under report the number of nurseries maintained was 100, and the mileage of new avenues planted was 352. The gross expenditure incurred on account of arboricultural operations during the year amounted to Rs. 41,286 and the receipts to 4,279.

Forests.

23. The total area of State-forests was 4,179 square miles, or 23·6 per cent. of the total area of the province, against 4,178 square miles at the end of the forest year ending 30th June 1896, the increase of one square mile being due to corrections in the area statements and changes in the area and the classification of forest lands. As heretofore these lands are divided into three classes, class A being primarily reserved for the production of timber and fuel, class B for fodder-grass, and class C for pasture; and the number of square miles under each was 1,519, 92, and 2,568 respectively as against 1,517, 96, and 2,565 in the previous year. The boundaries of State-forests of the A and B classes were in good order, but the permanent demarcation of the reserves newly constituted in 1895-96 in the Basim district being now fully completed, and that of similar reserves in Wun partly so, the boundaries of C class reserves require further improvement. The total expenditure on demarcation during the year was Rs. 1,793 against Rs. 2,331 in 1895-96. The area under protection from fire was 1,423 square miles, or 10 square miles more than in 1895-96, the average cost of protection per square mile falling simultaneously from Rs. 9·6 to Rs. 9·1. A small increase of three miles in the area burnt, viz, from 28 square miles to 31, or 2·1 per cent. of the area, whose conservancy from fire had been undertaken, may be attributed to the drought and to the special concessions granted to the people in consequence to enable them to utilize forest produce more freely, and so minimize the effects of the period of high prices which Berar has since emerged from. Permanent working plans for the felling and planting of State-forests or portions thereof in rotation over a series of years had been completed for 725 square miles, and provisional or short-term plan of operations compiled for 967 square miles. For the rest plans for some 2172 square miles were in hand, and only 315 remained to be dealt with. The scanty growth of grass during the year revealed considerable progress in the natural reproduction of teak, and this tree was sown in the Basim district, besides which 952 acres of babul tracts were taken in hand and planted where necessary, the total cost of planting operations in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts being Rs. 1,565 against Rs. 1,090 in 1895-96. At the same time badly grown teak was cut down over 11,356 acres at a cost of Rs. 403 and the Melghat cleared of the lantana scandens, this noxious creeper having been cut back over 2,170 acres, and eradicated over 38¼ square miles at a total cost of Rs. 6,315, bringing the total area cleared to date to 38,816 acres. The total amount spent on forest works was Rs. 20,401—Rs. 13,218 on roads, Rs. 5,444 on buildings, and Rs. 1,739 on other works. The income of the year was Rs. 4,96,717 derived chiefly from the sale of timber, fuel, and bamboos, and from the grant of grazing licenses; and, besides this, free grants were made of the estimated value of Rs. 3,55,041, including Rs. 62,712, the value of special concessions granted on account of the famine. The expenditure, on the other hand, was only Rs. 2,54,696, leaving a surplus of Rs. 2,42,021.

Manufactures.

24. The manufactures of the province are, as stated in paragraph 23 of the General Summary of the Administration Report for 1895-96, chiefly confined to twist and yarn, coarse cotton cloth, and oil. There is a cotton weaving mill at Badnera and three oil mills—two at Amraoti and one at Shegaon; but the cotton presses and ginning factories worked by steam power are by far the most important industries in the province. The mill at Badnera produced 1,546,668 lbs. of twist and yarn and 935,742 lbs. of cloth during the year. The two oil mills at Amraoti produced 464 tons of oil and 1,632 tons of oil-cakes, and the mill at Shegaon turned out 531 tons of oil. There were altogether 76 ginning factories and 32 cotton presses under the management of private firms and joint stock companies as against 66 and 33 respectively in the previous year The total number of factories which came under the operation of the Indian Factories Act was 74 against 67 in the year 1895. The total number of hands employed in them was 6,925 against 5,967 in 1895. There was one prosecution under the provisions of the said Act, and the offender was punished by a fine. The Berar Manufacturing Company's mill at Badnera was the only mill dealt with under the Cotton Duties Act, II of 1896. Cotton goods of 906,476 lbs. and cotton-yarn of

2,343,499 lbs. were produced during the year under report. No difficulty was experienced in recovering the duty under the Act.

Rail-borne trade.

25. The total traffic of the year consisted of 2,815,000 maunds of imports and 3,522,000 maunds of exports as compared with 3,145,000 and 3,809,000 maunds respectively in 1895-96, thus showing a considerable decrease both in volume and value. The general decrease in the trade of the province is due to the scarcity and famine that prevailed in the last six months of the year, not only in Berar, but all over India. The plague in Bombay has also had a serious effect on trade. As usual, the trade of Berar was almost entirely confined to the Central Provinces and Bombay. The principal articles of import were coal and coke, manufactured cotton, grain and pulse, oil, metals, salt and sugar, and those of export were raw cotton, grain and pulse, and oil-seeds. The cost of registration of the rail-borne trade during the year was Rs. 795.

Road-borne trade.

26. The registration staff was during the year under report utilized in registering the internal trade of the province and employed on the principal railway feeder roads at ten selected stations. The total imports during the year amounted to 2,436,143 maunds and exports to 887,228 maunds. The chief articles of trade were cotton, both raw and manufactured, grain and pulse, oils, oil-seeds, provisions, and sugar. The cost of registration amounted to Rs. 5,238.

Public Works.

27. The amount spent on Public Works from all sources during 1896-97 was Rs. 14,51,417, distributed thus :—Imperial Services, Rs. 34,182 ; Provincial Services, Rs. 8,49,898 ; Local Funds, Rs. 2,51,040 ; Railways, Rs. 95,153 ; and, finally, Contribution Works, Rs. 1,91,144. On account of scarcity of food-grains and distress among the poorer classes famine relief works were started in December 1896. Provincial revenues spent Rs. 38,009 on these works and Local Funds Rs. 18,603. Besides the expenditure under this head, Provincial expenditure on Military Buildings was Rs. 16,991, on Civil Buildings Rs. 94,198, on Communications Rs. 3,73,277, on Miscellaneous Public Improvements Rs. 31,038, and on Establishment, &c., Rs. 2,96,385. Details of the works executed will be found in Part II, paragraphs 138 to 146, on pages 47 to 50 of this Report. The Akola water-works project was completed during the year. The principal contribution work is the Secunderabad water-works scheme. This was entirely completed in March 1897. The expenditure to the end of the year 1895-96 on this work was Rs. 9,08,745 against an estimate of Rs. 9,09,610, the expenditure during the year under review being Rs. 1,50,024.

Railways.

28. As stated in the preceding paragraph, the expenditure on railways, i.e., the Amraoti and Khamgaon State Railways, amounted to Rs. 95,153 ; and the net earnings of these two lines were 4·68 and 9·50 respectively on the capital outlay.

Revenue and Finance.

29. The gross revenue of the province during the year 1896-97 amounted to Rs. 1,21,20,243, and the total disbursements to Rs. 1,15,53,445. Omitting the receipts and disbursements of the Incorporated and Excluded Local Funds and the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railways Police charges, the provincial surplus was Rs. 5,62,210 compared with the surplus of Rs. 11,23,863 for the year 1895-96. The amount paid to His Highness the Nizam during the year 1896-97 was Rs. 7,24,806, being a portion of the surplus of the previous years. The balance at credit of the British Administration of Berar on the 31st March 1897 was Rs. 40,39,666. Of the gross income Rs. 1,00,75,560 were derived from Provincial Revenues, Rs. 10,02,760 from Incorporated, and Rs. 10,41,923 from Excluded Local Funds. Rs. 95,14,104 of the Provincial Revenues, Rs. 9,93,237 of the Incorporated Local Funds, and Rs. 10,46,104 of the Excluded Local Funds revenue were utilized.

The Provincial Contract shows a deficit of Rs. 2,26,886. The expenditure during the first five years of the present contract has exceeded by Rs. 4,83,030 the revenue assigned during that period plus the balance of the previous contract, namely, Rs. 7,12,306, placed at credit of the Resident to meet the deficit anticipated for the whole period of the present contract. The present contract has terminated with the year under review, but under the orders conveyed in paragraph 6 of Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, Resolution No. 2374-A., dated 27th May 1897, the same arrangement has been allowed to continue for a further period of two years. The balance in favour of the Resident at the close of 1896-97, inclusive of Rs. 5,00,000 allowed for any extraordinary emergencies in accordance with paragraph 4 of the Government of India, Financial Department, Resolution No. 5957, dated 5th November 1887, was under the above circumstances Rs. 16,970 only.

As compared with the transactions of the previous year, the receipts under certain heads show improvement, while the only important exceptions are Land Revenue, Opium, Stamps, Excise, and Miscellaneous, showing a net decrease of Rs. 2,36,107. The causes of the several variations in the revenue and receipt heads are explained in the body of the report. As regards expenditure heads, the principal increases have been separately explained. The outlay under the following heads shows a decrease, namely, Refunds and Drawbacks, Forest, Law and Justice—Courts of Law, Medical, Scientific and other Minor Departments, and Miscellaneous under Civil. The expenditure of the State Railways and Public Works Department also shows a considerable decrease. The differences under the several military heads of expenditure have been separately detailed and explained in the body of the report. In the result there is a net increase of Rs. 3,27,055. The decrease under Refunds and Drawbacks is nominal, as a larger amount of land revenue was refunded to the Jagirdar of Chincholi jagir village during the previous year. The decrease under Forest chiefly occurs under salaries. The decrease under Law and Justice—Courts of Law is chiefly under Criminal Courts owing to the appointment of a lower grade officer as Cantonment Magistrate, Jalna and Aurangabad, and also under Refunds. The decrease under Medical chiefly occurs under Sanitary Commissioner, and is due to savings in the cost of exchange compensation allowance and contingencies. The decrease under Scientific and other Minor Departments is scattered under several minor heads, and calls for no special remarks. The decrease under Miscellaneous is chiefly under loss by exchange on local transactions—a fluctuating head of account not subject to regular influences. The decrease under State Railways is due to less payments made to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company in consequence of the decrease in earnings on the Khamgaon State Railway. The decrease under Public Works provincial expenditure is due to the completion of several large projects during the previous year, and that under Public Works Local Fund expenditure is due principally to the falling off on works generally.

It remains to be noted that the increase of expenditure in the year under review is partly attributable to a special cause, namely, Famine Relief. The total charge under this head for the year amounted to Rs. 90,310.

Vital statistics.

30. The system of registration adopted in Berar did not undergo any change during the year under report. The total number of births recorded during the year was 109,013 as against 105,952 in the previous year. The birth-rate of the province was higher than the rates of the preceding two years, being 38·3 per mille as against 33·3 and 37·2 per mille in 1894 and 1895 respectively; but it fell below the average of the last decennial period, viz., 40·7, and the estimated birth-rate for the whole of India, viz., 48·8. The proportion of male births to female births was 105·3 to 100.

In spite of several adverse causes the health of the year 1896 showed a considerable improvement on that of the previous year. The total number of deaths registered during 1896 was 124,787 or 43·8 per mille as compared with 49·9 in 1895 and 36·2, the average of the ten years ending 1894. As compared with 1895 there was an increase in mortality under cholera and small-pox and a decrease under all other causes.

Medical relief.

31. The total number of medical institutions in the province was 46 as in 1895. They were maintained at an aggregate cost of Rs. 99,011. The total number of patients treated was 4,500 in-door and 340,134 out-door, the average daily attendance being 129 in-door and 2,040 out-door patients. Of the total in-door patients treated, 81 per cent. were cured.

The year 1896 was the second complete year of the working of the Dufferin Hospital for women and children at Amraoti. In this institution the number of in-patients rose from 96 to 128, but the number of out-patients fell from 6,215 to 5,806.

Sanitation.

32. The twelve municipalities in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts spent Rs. 1,70,515 on sanitary works during 1896, of which Rs. 10,208 were devoted to drainage, Rs. 71,180 to water-supply, Rs. 59,988 to domestic cleansing, and Rs. 29,139 to other sanitary works. As already stated, the Akola water-works project reached completion during the year under report. District Boards incurred an expenditure of Rs. 82,695 on works of sanitary improvement as against Rs. 85,751 in 1895. The preparation of a Sanitary Law for Berar has been postponed for the present.

Vaccination.

33. The number of primary operations performed during the year was 98,594, of which 96·8 proved successful. Re-vaccination cases numbered 21,717, of which 20·5 per cent. were successful. The number of successful vaccinations and re-vaccinations during the year amounted to 34·5 per mille of the population as against 31·8 in 1895-96. The whole cost of the department was Rs. 17,573 as against Rs. 17,724 in the previous year. During the year under report the Vaccination Act was extended to the Municipality of Karinja.

Education.

34. The chief feature of the year's record is that in spite of severe scarcity during the last six months of the year the number of schools increased from 1,180 in 1895-96 to 1,361 and the number of scholars from 49,243 to 54,343. This increase was evenly distributed over all districts, but was almost entirely confined to indigenous schools, the prevalence of high prices compelling private schoolmasters to teach on nominal salaries. The number of girls under instruction increased considerably, though the number of girls' schools decreased by two. The percentage of male scholars to male population rose from 20·2 to 22·2. The results of the Matriculation examination, particularly of the Amraoti High School, were gratifying, and the middle schools and primary schools acquitted themselves on the whole very fairly at the annual examinations. The condition of indigenous schools improved greatly, and the grants earned by them showed an increase. The number of Muhammadan and aboriginal pupils under instruction increased, and larger numbers passed at the annual examination. The interest taken in physical education also increased. With a view to improve the quality and status of trained men, a scheme for the re-organization of the Training College at Akola was finally sanctioned during the year, and the revised scheme was given effect to from the 1st of December 1896. The Training College Code has been revised, and new courses of study drawn up consistent with the tenor and object of the sanctioned scheme. The number in the industrial school at Amraoti has nearly doubled, and the school has achieved a fair amount of success. The industrial school at Akola is also reported to be progressing well. School fees decreased from Rs. 58,618 to Rs. 57,950 and popular contributions rose from Rs. 9,199 to Rs. 9,834. The total expenditure of the department rose from Rs. 4,11,883 to Rs. 4,24,578.

Literature and the Press.

35. The number of books registered under Act XXV of 1867 during the year under report was 11 against 17 in the preceding year. Ten of these were issues of the Berar School Paper, and the remaining one was a publication in Urdu entitled Divan Amjad. Four libraries or reading rooms were opened and six closed during the year, the number open on the 31st March 1897 being 37 against 39 on the corresponding date of the preceding year. The number of printing presses remained the same (viz., 11) as in 1895-96.

CHAPTER II.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND.

SECTION I.

SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT.

Extent and nature of work.

10. The extent and nature of the revision survey and settlement operations now progressing in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts have already been described in paragraphs 10 and 11 of the Administration Report of the province for 1893-94.

Field parties and their employment.

11. The period under report is the sixteen months from the 1st April 1896 to the 31st July 1897. During this period four survey parties were at work; of these parties A, B and C were employed continuously on the revision survey, while the Melghat party was employed for the most part in the Melghat taluk.

During April and May 1896 the Melghat party conducted its work on the principles on which it had been commenced in January 1893, that is, on the rayatwari system similar to that in force in the plains. During the recess, however, this work was examined, and found likely to be costly and unprofitable and ill-suited to the country. It was therefore decided to abandon it and to confine the work of the survey party to a revision of the existing yoke rates and area units. In November and December this party was employed before entering the Melghat in revision work in the Daryapur taluk, and from January to May inclusive it was at work in the Melghat. The revision of the yoke rates and area units was completed during the season; and the party having finished its work has since been disbanded.

From the 1st April 1896 A, B and C parties continued to work in the Akot taluk of the Akola district, which was completed before the recess of 1896.

From November 1896 to March 1897 A party was engaged in the Daryapur taluk of the Ellichpur district, on the completion of which the party was moved into the Murtizapur taluk of the Amraoti district.

B and C parties were employed up to March 1897 in the Mehkar taluk of the Buldana district, and then moved into Murtizapur to assist A party in completing that taluk by the close of the field season.

The old work was tested by the complete re-measurement of six villages in the Mehkar taluk and six villages in the Daryapur taluk. This test having now been continued for five years always with the same result, it was dispensed with in Murtizapur taluk, and the old measurements were confirmed without further test.

Outturn of survey work and cost.

12. The following statement shows the work done and the expenditure incurred during the years 1895-96 and 1896-97 :—

The strength of the parties was again considerably increased, and there was more than a proportionate increase in the amount of work turned out, which brings the cost per acre and square mile to almost the same figure as in 1895-96.

Settlement.

13. The proposals for the revision settlement of the Chikhli taluk of the Buldana district were sanctioned in July 1896, the revised rates were proclaimed in January 1897, and will be payable for the year 1897-98.

The revision settlement report of the Akola taluka of the Akola district was received during the year; the revised rates were sanctioned in January 1897. They will be leviable for the year 1897-98.

The revision settlement report of the Akot taluk of the Akola district was received during the year, and orders on it have been passed. The revision of the Akola district is now complete.

SECTION II.

POLICE.

Strength and cost.

21. Owing to the reduction during 1896 of four head constables and eight constables in the Ellichpur district whose services the abkari contractor no longer required, the total sanctioned strength of the police force of the province was brought to 2,898, consisting of nine gazetted officers (including the Inspector-General of Police), 563 subordinate officers, and 2,326 men. The proportion of the police force to area and population was one man to every 6·1 square miles and every 1,001 of the population. The aggregate cost involved was Rs. 5,68,532 as against Rs. 5,66,360 in 1895.

Equipment.

22. Of the 2,889 subordinate officers and men, 1,018 were provided with fire-arms, 1,479 with swords only or with swords and batons, and 392 with batons only.

Classification by race and religion.

23. Exclusive of the gazetted officers and the 46 vacancies that existed at the end of the year, the remaining force numbered 2,843. Of these 4 were Europeans, 13 Eurasians, and 2,826 Natives, or classified according to religion 32 were Christians, 1,046 Muhammadans, 3 Parsis, and 1,762 Hindus.

Health.

24. The percentage of admission into hospital to the total strength of the police force in each district showed some improvement during 1896 as compared with the two previous years. The number of deaths, however, increased, being 69 in 1896 as against 62 in 1895 and 29 in 1894.

Conduct and discipline.

25. The following statement compares the details relating to the conduct and discipline of the force for 1896 with those for 1895 :—

Year.	Sanctioned strength of subordinate officers and men.	Length of service of number on roll at end of the year.			Punishments.			Number rewarded.	Number who left the force owing to the following causes.

General state of crime.

26. Cognizable crime, exclusive of petty nuisance cases, increased by 11 per cent. as compared with 1895. This increase is due to the sudden rise in the crime returns in the last quarter of the year owing to scarcity and hard times brought on by an early cessation of the monsoon. But for this the crime return of the year would have been unprecedentedly low. The following table furnishes comparative details for 1895 and 1896 :—

	Cases in which property of Rs. 10 in value and upwards was stolen ...	729	639

The more serious forms of crime were more prevalent during 1896 than in 1895, except house-breakings, which showed a decrease of 5 per cent. as compared with the figures for 1895. In spite of the general decrease of this kind of offence throughout the province, Amraoti district has still maintained its usual bad record in this respect.

The punitive police force which was withdrawn in 1895 from the Wun district was again imposed during the year under report on a Banjara tanda in that district. The Banjaras are responsible for many crimes committed in the Wun and Basim districts, and steps are being taken to bring them under more effective control. In Buldana, Ramparsad, a notorious offender, was captured and his gang dispersed ; one Himmat Khan, a dakait of the Ajanta Hills, and his gang were also successfully dealt with by the Thagi and Dakaiti Department, since when that border of the Buldana district has been free from dakaitis.

Working of the police in cognizable cases.

28. The following figures summarize the working of the police and the results of police action in regard to cognizable offences during 1895 and 1896:—

	1895.	1896.
Cases.
1. Number of cases occurred, inclusive of old cases investigated during the year and cases pending from previous year ...	8,963	9,429
2. Percentage of all cases (whether investigated by police or not) ending in conviction to cases occurred	58·3	55·8
3. Percentage borne by cases investigated by police to cases occurred	84·7	78·9
4. Percentage borne by cases investigated by police and in which conviction was obtained to total number of cases investigated by police	65·9	65·8
Persons.
1. Number of persons arrested and summoned	8,932	10,777
2. Percentage of persons convicted to total arrested	69·2	61·4
3. Percentage of persons arrested by police and convicted to total number of persons arrested by police	83·6	80·8
Property.
1. Value of property stolen	Rs. 2,24,824	1,92,497
2. Percentage of property recovered ...	25·3	28·1

Non-cognizable crime.

29. The number of cases instituted during 1896 by complaint, i.e., taken up by a Magistrate suo motu, was 7,696 against 6,706 in the preceding year. In only 124 of these cases were the police employed to enquire. The total number of persons who appeared before the courts was 15,298 as against 12,920 in 1895, and of these 2,872 or 18·7 were convicted, the corresponding percentage for 1895 being 19·7.

Escapes from police custody.

30. There were 4 cases of escape from police custody during the year under report against 9 in the preceding year. Of these only two persons were recaptured as against five in the preceding year; the third is reported to have met with an accidental death; and as for the fourth, the relatives who had rescued him were on that account convicted under section 225 of the Indian Penal Code.

Railway Police.

31. The following table compares the working of the Railway Police for the three years ending 1896:—

	Cases.						Persons.						Property.

Anthropometry.

32. The following extract from the Police Report of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1896 regarding anthropometry may be usefully quoted here:—

During the year the measurement cards of 630 convicts were deposited in the anthropometrical office. The total number of cards received since the introduction of the system is 1,556. Thirty-seven cards were sent to the office for the purpose of identification, and in three cases the cards of those who had been previously measured were traced. These results are not very striking, but time must elapse before complete working can be attained. The system has been in working less than three years, and a large majority of those criminals whose cards have been received are still in jail or have at least spent a considerable portion of the interval in jail, and probably very few have come into the hands of the police again since their first measurement.

In the course of the year instructions were received to introduce the system of identification by impressions of finger tips, but it has not been found practicable to do so yet pending a decision as to the classification under which the impressions can be usefully dealt with. I understand that Mr. Henry, Inspector-General of Police, Lower Provinces, has been engaged in working out a scheme of classification, and it seems desirable to await the results at which he may arrive.

Classes of instruction in anthropometry were held at Amraoti and Akola in the month of August with the result that one inspector, four chief constables, and one head constable qualified as efficients in the entire system, while six chief and two head constables qualified as measurers.

The operations in connection with the anthropometrical system are not as yet sufficiently far advanced to afford any material for criticism: the supersession of anthropometry by the system of finger tip impressions has since been decided on.

Drill Manual.

33. The Drill Manual was revised and translated into Marathi during the year, and the Marathi extracts from the Police Orders were also revised. These works will issue shortly.

SECTION III.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE.

Tribunals.

34. The effective strength of the Magistracy at the close of 1896 as compared with the year 1895 was as follows:—

	1896.	1895.
District Magistrates	6	6
First Class Magistrates	23	22
Third Class Magistrates	15	14
Special Magistrates	12	13
Bench of Magistrates	4	4
Total ...	77	77

Amount of crime.

35. The annexed table exhibits the number of offences reported and struck off the register of offences as well as the cases brought to trial before the criminal courts in each of the last two years:—

Year.	Offences reported.	Cases dismissed under section 203, Criminal Procedure Code.		Cases struck off as false.		Cases returned as true.		Cases brought to trial.
		No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent.
1895 ...	17,577	2,530	14·4	650	3·7	14,596	81·9	12,112	68·8
1896 ...	19,223	2,359	12·3	758	3·9	16,106	83·8	13,863	72·1

The table indicates that there was a large increase of criminal business in the year 1896 as compared with the preceding year, offences reported rising from 17,577 to 19,223, an increase of 1,646 or 9·3 per cent.; cases returned as true rising from 14,396 to 16,106, an increase of 1,710 or 11·9 per cent.; and cases brought to trial rising from 12,112 to 13,868, an increase of 1,756 or 14·5 per cent.

Classification of offences.

36. The following is an abstract comparing the offences returned as true in each class with the number for the preceding year:—

	Total for 1895.	Total for 1896.	Increase.	Decrease.
Offences against the State	...	...	...	...
Do. relating to the Army and Navy ...	...	...	...	...
Do. against public tranquillity	38	70	32
Do. by or relating to public servants ...	19	12	...	7
Contempts of the lawful authority of servants ...	140	140	...	...
False evidence and offences against public justice ...	55	71	16	...
Offences relating to coin and Government stamps ...	20	14	...	6
Offences relating to weights and measures ...	18	23	5	...
Offences affecting the public health, safety, convenience, decency, and morals...	157	118	...	39
Offences relating to religion...	5	6	1	...
Offences affecting the human body	4,233	5,282	1,049	...
Do. against property	4,744	5,107	363	...
Do. not included in the above	313	322	9	...
Do. against special and local laws	4,654	4,941	287	...
GRAND TOTAL ...	14,396	16,106	1,710	...

The number of offences is larger than the number for any of the five preceding years. The increase was not due to an increase under thefts or housebreakings, but to an increase in hurts, wrongful restraints, mischiefs, petty trespasses, and breaches of local and special laws. Murders and culpable homicides increased to 18 over the last year's figures, and robberies and dakaitis increased to 53 over the last year's figures.

Persons brought to trial.

37. Inclusive of 329 persons under trial at the end of 1895, there were 25,707 persons for disposal during the year. Of these 25,052 or 97·4 per cent. were disposed of as shown below, and the cases of 655 were pending at the close of the year:—

Died, &c.	...	503 or 2·0 per cent.
Discharged or acquitted	...	14,957 or 58·1 do.
Convicted	...	9,217 or 35·8 do.
Committed or referred	...	375 or 1·5 do.

Distribution of work.

	Cases disposed of.		Percentage.
	1896.	1895.	1896.	1895.
Deputy Commissioners	629	446	4·6	3·7

Attachés	880	318	6·3	2·8
Total ...	13,674	11,951	100·	100·

With the exception of the Deputy Commissioner of the Ellichpur district, all the Deputy Commissioners did more criminal case work than in the preceding year. The number of cases disposed of by them increased from 446 to 629. The number of cases disposed of by Assistant Commissioners and Extra Assistant Commissioners also increased from 882 and 900 to 1,241 and 966 respectively. The number of cases disposed of by Honorary Magistrates, however, decreased from 3,461 to 3,020 owing chiefly to the decrease in the number of working Magistrates and to the decrease in the number of nuisance cases.

Average duration.

39. The average duration of cases disposed of during the year was 8·4 as against 8·2 in the preceding year.

Special jurisdiction of Deputy Commissioners.

40. In 110 cases involving 311 persons disposed of by Deputy Commissioners in exercise of their enhanced powers, 157 persons were convicted and 154 were acquitted or discharged.

Summary trials.

41. The number of cases tried summarily under Chapter XXII of the Criminal Procedure Code rose from 398 in 1895 to 764 in the year under report. Of the total number of persons disposed of under this section 745 were convicted.

Jurisdictions over European British subjects.

42. No European British subjects were tried within the year.

Details of punishments.

43. The following table gives the details of the kinds of punishments inflicted in the years 1895 and 1896 :—

Fines.

44. 7,059 persons as against 6,443 in the preceding year were sentenced to fine. In 98·1 per cent. of these cases as against 98·5 in the previous year the fines imposed were Rs. 50 and under. The fines imposed during the year amounted to Rs. 65,789-8-0 as compared with Rs. 51,636 in 1895, and the realizations were Rs. 49,294-14-6 as against Rs. 44,884 in the last year.

45. The details of the periods during which witnesses were detained are as follows:—

	1895.		1896.
	Number of witnesses.	Percentage.	Number of witness	Percentage.

Sessions Court.

46. Thirty-eight Sessions cases involving 103 persons came up for disposal in the Sessions Court as against 55 cases and 173 persons in 1895. Of these 33 cases involving 84 persons were disposed of as against 53 cases and 152 persons in the previous year.

The following abstract shows how the 84 persons were dealt with:—

Year.	Persons disposed of by the Sessions Court.	Persons acquitted.		Convicted.		Died, escaped, or transferred.
		Number.	Percentage.	Number.	Percentage.	Number.	Percentage.
1895	152	64	42·1	86	56·6	2	1·3
1896	84	35	41·7	48	57·1	1	1·2

The percentage of convictions rose from 56·6 to 57·1, and that of acquittals fell from 42·1 to 41·7.

The average duration of Sessions cases this year was 51·8 days, while that of 1895 was 61·3.

The opinions of the assessors were asked in regard to 80 persons. The Sessions Judge agreed with all the assessors in regard to the guilt or innocence of 67 persons. He disagreed with all in regard to the guilt or innocence of 3 persons, and in the case of the remaining 10 persons the assessors themselves disagreed.

Appeals.

47. The following table shows the appellate work of the province (counting each appellant's case as a separate appeal):—

	Appeals for disposal, including pending, but excluding transfers to other Courts.		Appeals disposed of during the year.		Appeals pending at the end of the year.
	1895.	1896.	1895.	1896.	1895.	1896.

The number of appeals for disposal by District Magistrates increased by 29, the number of appeals for disposal by the Sessions Judge increased by 139, and the number to be disposed of by the Judicial Commissioner decreased by 70.

The number of appeals pending at the close of the year was 61 as against 24 in the previous year.

53·1 per cent. of the appellants in the Magistrate's Courts, 81·4 per cent. of the appellants in the Sessions Court, and 75·0 per cent. of the appellants in the Judicial Commissioner's Court were unsuccessful. The corresponding percentages for 1895 were 48·8, 77·8, and 62·5.

During the year 12 persons under sentence of death came before the Judicial Commissioner. In the case of 4 persons the sentence of death was confirmed; in the case of 3 persons the sentence was commuted to transportation for life; one person was sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for 7 years, and the cases of 4 persons remained pending at the close of the year.

48. The figures for the Cantonment Courts at Aurangabad, Jalna, and Mominabad, in the Buldana district and Hingoli in the Basim district have this year been included in the figures for the province given above. The more important figures are, however, abstracted below:— Courts in the Hyderabad Contingent stations.

SECTION IV.

JAILS.

Status of jails.

49. There has been no change in the status of the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. On account of want of funds the scheme for enlarging the Amraoti Jail is still held in abeyance.

Cubicles.

50. As in 1895, no opportunity occurred during the year under report for increasing the number of cubicles available for separate sleeping accommodation.

Jail population.

51. The increase of crime during the year under report noticed in paragraph 26 ante has naturally resulted in the increase of the jail population of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. The following table gives a comparative abstract of the jail population of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1895 and 1896 :—

Classification of convicts according to religion, age, education, and previous occupation.

52. Of the 1,817 convicts (1,705 males and 112 females) imprisoned during the year 1896, 1,524 were Hindus and Sikhs and 293 were Muhammadans. According to age, 20 were under 16 years of age, 1,492 were between 16 and 40 years, 282 between 40 and 60 years, and 23 above 60 years; according to education, 96 were able to read and write and 78 to write only, while 1,643 were illiterate. Classified according to previous occupation, of the 112 female convicts, 65 were married, 6 unmarried, 34 widows, and 7 prostitutes. The previous occupation of the 1,705 male convicts are compared below with the corresponding statistics for 1894 and 1895 :—

Previous convictions.

54. Of the 1,817 convicts imprisoned during the year, 189 or 10·4 per cent. had been previously convicted as compared with 7·78 per cent. in 1895. Of the 189 re-convicted prisoners, 102 had been convicted once, 53 twice, and 34 more than twice.

Jail offences and punishments.

55. The total number of jail offences was 770 against 952 in 1895. No offence was referred to a criminal court during the year under report, all having been dealt with departmentally. The ratio per cent. of all punishments to jail population was 61·1 against 76·3 in 1895. There were no escapes of convicts and no recaptures during the year under report.

Mark system.

56. Of the convicts released during the year, 473 obtained remissions under the mark system against 385 in 1895. The maximum remission gained by any one convict was 484 days against 533 days in the previous year.

Health.

57. The figures relating to the health of the jail population in Berar for 1896 compare very favourably with those for 1894 and 1895. The following table gives the details :—

		1894.	1895.	1896.
Daily average strength	...	1285·4	1318·8	1330·2
Admissions into hospitals	...	1,741	1,171	755
Daily average sick	...	64·6	30·7	23·3

Daily average sick	...	50·3	23·3	17·5

There were a few cases of cholera in the Yeotmal Jail at the end of July 1896.

Employment of convicts.

58. The average number of convicts under sentence of labour on working days was 1095·84. They are thus accounted for :—

Sick	22·96
Convalescent and infirm	37·80
Not employed for other reasons	2·33
Prison officers	79·61
Prison servants	110·96
Gardening	107·09
Preparing articles for use or consumption in jails.	162·89
Jail repairs	11·72
On jail buildings	6·62
Manufactures	552·54
Hired out to municipalities, private individuals, or departments other than Public Works Department	1·32

Jail manufactures.

59. The following table shows the financial results of the working of the jail industries in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during 1894, 1895, and 1896:—

	Hyderabad Assigned Districts.
	1894.	1895.	1896.
	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.
Total cash earnings	17,947 12 0	14,810 2 0	11,873 2 0
Average earnings per head sentenced to labour	14 11 0	11 9 0	9 8 0
Average earnings per head employed on jail manufacture	39 8 0	26 3 0	21 8 0

The above figures show a steady decrease since 1894 under cash earnings and under average earnings calculated on those sentenced to labour and on those employed on jail manufactures.

Expenditure.

60. The following is a comparative statement of the figures of expenditure for 1894, 1895, and 1896 :—

	Hyderabad Assigned Districts.
	1894.	1895.	1896.
	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.
Total gross expenditure under all heads...	75,805 8 0	72,327 10 0	80,967 5 0
Net cost after deduction of cash earnings.	57,857 12 0	58,017 8 0	69,094 3 0
Gross cost per head of average strength...	58 15 0	54 13 0	60 14 0
Net cost per head of average strength ...	45 0 0	44 0 0	51 15 0
Daily average strength	1285 41	1318 83	1330 29

It will be seen that as compared with 1895 the gross expenditure of the year under report was more by Rs. 8,639-11-0 and the net cost, after crediting earnings, by Rs. 11,076-11-0, while the gross and net cost per head increased by Rs. 6-1-0 and Rs. 7-15-0 respectively. The increase under all these heads, though partly attributable to the increase of jail population already noticed, is mainly due to increased dieting charges consequent on the high prices of food-grains prevailing in the last three months of the year under review.

SECTION V.

Tribunals.

61. The total number of officers actually employed in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, including the cantonment stations of Aurangabad, Jalna, and Mominabad, on civil judicial work on the last working day of the year 1896 was the same as in 1895, namely 42. The following table shows the numbers of officers of the several grades that were on duty during the two years :—

Number of suits instituted.

62. The number of suits instituted in 1896 was 27,149 as against 28,228 in 1895. The following statement shows the number of suits instituted in the various classes of courts during the past two years:—

	1895.	1896.

There was thus a falling off of 1,079 in the number of suits instituted, or 3·8 per cent. as compared with the figures of the previous year.

Classification of suits.

63. The following table shows the nature of the suits instituted during the last two years:—

	1895.		1896.		Increase or decrease in number of suits, i.e., in columns 2 & 4.	Percentage of increase or decrease.

Of the total institutions 23,033 or 84·8 per cent. were for money or movable property as against 24,580 or 87·1 per cent. in the previous year, showing a decrease of 1,547 or 6·3 per cent. As for other suits, suits for immovable property increased by 16·1 per cent.; those to establish right of pre-emption by 12·4 per cent., and those for specific relief by 20 per cent.

Out of 1,520 suits for immovable property 1,057 or 69·5 per cent. were suits relating to survey numbers. Suits to recover possession by persons claiming as proprietors increased by 61 cases, and suits to declare or establish right in survey numbers by 223.

NOTE.—Miscellaneous cases (Judicial) have been omitted from this statement.

The aggregate value of suits capable of valuation disposed of was Rs. 40,02,993-10-8 as against Rs. 41,77,692-11-1, showing a decrease of Rs. 1,74,699-0-5, and the average value of suits has decreased from Rs. 151-6-2 to Rs. 151-5-10. The decrease is due almost entirely to the fact that fewer suits were disposed of.

The aggregate cost of suits disposed of has decreased from Rs. 5,61,083-9-5 to Rs. 5,51,934-10-1, while the average cost per suit has increased from Rs. 19-13-9 to Rs. 20-6-4.

SECTION VI.

REGISTRATION.

Number of offices.

73. During the year under report the number of registration offices fell from 68 to 67 owing to the abolition of the Rural Sub-Registrar's office at Bori in the Wun district. Sanction was accorded during the year to the opening of two new offices in the Basim district, but they were not open for work till the 1st April 1897.

Registration business.

74. The total number of registrations during the year came to 36,507, showing an increase of 2,565 or 7·5 per cent. over the record of the previous year. This increase is confined to those documents the registration of which is compulsory, and is attributed to the prevailing scarcity of the year. The number of registrations during 1896-97 was the highest on record, the figure previously recorded as highest being 35,183 in 1893-94. The following table compares the statistics of the year 1896-97 with those of its predecessor :—

SECTION VIII.

LOCAL BOARDS.

Number and constitution of boards.

83. There was no change during the year under report in the number and constitution of the district and taluk boards in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. The only tract outside municipal area which is still exempt from the operation of the Berar Rural Boards Law is the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district. The six district boards in the province were composed of 122 elected and 32 nominated members, of whom 34 were officials and 120 non-officials. The total strength of the twenty-one taluk boards consisted of 243 elected and 133 nominated members, of whom 34 were officials and 342 non-officials. There were no Europeans on the taluk boards, but there were 7 of this class on the district boards. The number of meetings held by the several taluk boards during the year was 219 against 200 in the previous year, and that by district boards 56 against 42 in 1895-96. The average attendance at taluk board meetings showed considerable improvement, but the reverse was the case with the district boards.

Elections.

84. The total number of taluk board vacancies to be filled up amounted to 72, for which there were 145 candidates. The number of persons entitled to vote were 27,491, of whom only 9·3 per cent. took part in the elections against 10·59 per cent. in 1895-96.

The area kept under grass was 553,017 acres or 7·1 per cent., and the area left fallow was 910,861 acres or 11·5 per cent. Irrigation.

principal crops grown by irrigation are wheat, vegetable, and sugarcane.

92. The estimated outturn per acre for the year under report is compared below with that for the preceding year :— Estimated outturn of crops.

93. The following table comprises the agricultural stock of the province for the year under report with that of the preceding year :— Agricultural stock.

1896-97	1,486,593	276,445	527,982	126,343	141,497

94. The total amount applied for by agriculturists as advances under the Land Improvement Loans Act amounted to Rs. 3,78,735. The sum allotted for such advances was Rs. 81,200 against Rs 48,450 in the preceding year, but the amount of loans actually advanced was Rs. 60,762 against Rs. 29,802 in 1895-96. Under the Agriculturists Loans Act the sum applied for was Rs. 20,859, but the amount allotted was Rs. 8,000 against Rs. 12,700 in 1895-96, and the amount actually disbursed Rs. 3,795 against Rs. 909 in the preceding year. Loans to agriculturists.

Of the total sum advanced under the two Acts, Rs. 21,565 were for new wells, Rs. 26,350 for reclamation of lands, Rs. 13,060 for improvement of wells and fields, Rs. 200 for removing stones, &c., Rs. 1,758 for damming up water-courses, and Rs. 3,795 for buying cattle, seed, &c.

95. The chief cattle fair of the province, viz., that held at Wun, attracted some 40,000 persons, and 9,981 head of cattle were brought for sale, of which 5,558 were disposed of for an aggregate sum of Rs. 1,09,041. Cattle fair.

The total number of attacks accordingly fell from 29,190 to 17,022, of which 787 were cases of rinderpest 1,735 of anthrax, 4,005 of foot-and-mouth disease, 1,263 of pleuro-pneumonia, 70 of charbon symptoms, and 9,162 of other diseases. Though there was a considerable decrease in the total number of attacks, the percentage of deaths rose from 42·98 to 47·82, the increase in mortality being due to the fact that the cattle having been weakened by the scarcity of fodder and water, yielded more readily to the effects of disease. Cattle-disease.

97. No operations either of horse-breeding or mule-breeding were carried on during the year under report. As stated in paragraph 101 of the Administration Report for 1895-96, horse-breeding was finally abandoned in Berar as it proved a failure, and mule-breeding has never been successfully undertaken. Horse-breeding and mule-breeding.

SECTION II.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Rainfall.

98. The average rainfall during 1896-97 amounted to 28 inches and 98 cents, or 3 inches and 9 cents more than the average of the preceding year.

Month.	1896-97,		Quinquennial average.
	I.	C.	I.	C.
April and May	0	57	0	79

October	0	4	3	30
November to March... ...	2	21	2	53
Total ...	28	98	40	49

The following is extracted from the Revenue Report of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1896-97:—

Up to about the third week of August 1896 the character of the rainfall was not unlike the average of the ten preceding years, and the crop prospects throughout the province were excellent. Compared with the average for the decennial period ending with 1895-96, the rainfall in June 1896 amounted to 7 inches and 2 cents against 6 inches and 87 cents; in July it amounted to 11 inches and 48 cents against 11 inches and 87 cents, and in August to 7 inches and 42 cents against 7 inches and 46 cents. After about the 20th of August there was almost a complete cessation of rain up to about the end of November, which resulted in the failure of the kharif to a greater or less extent and a diminution in the area under rabi. The rainfall in September was only 24 cents against the decennial average of 7 inches and 25 cents, whilst in October it dwindled down to only 4 cents against 3 inches and 61 cents. The total rainfall of the year was 28 98 inches as compared with an average of 40·57 for the preceding ten years, the deficiency being spread over the last six months of the year from September to March.

Prices of food-grains.

99. The following table shows the average quantity of food-grains sold for a rupee for the last three years:—

SECTION IV.

FORESTS.

Staff.

103. The office of the Conservator of Forests, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, was held throughout the year (i.e., the forest year 1896-97, which ended on the 30th June 1897) by Mr. C. Bagshawe, and the six divisional charges w ereheld either by Deputy or Extra Assistant Conservators. Mr. S. L. Kenny, Assistant Conservator of Forests, 2nd grade, joined in Berar on transfer from the Central Provinces on the 29th December 1896, and was employed on famine relief works until the close of the year under report.

Forest area.

104. The following statement shows the alterations in the forest area of the province :—

Class of forest.	Area on 1st July 1896.	On 30th June 1897.

2. State-forests of Class B—Primarily reserved for fodder grass	96	92	·5
3. State-forests of Class C—
(a) Division I.—Primarily reserved for pasture, but in which grazing can be regulated and is paid for	2,097	1,252	7·1
(b) Division II.—Primarily reserved for pasture, and in which during the current land settlement Government has conceded grazing free of any due	558	558	3·1
(c) Division III.—Forests in the Melghat reserved for pasture	...	758	4·3
GRAND TOTAL ...	4,178	4,179	23·6

The changes in area or classification were made for the purpose of improving existing boundaries and excluding from the administration of the Forest Department lands which according to working plans were not required for forest purposes, but which were suitable for cultivation. The net result of all these changes as well as of the corrections made in the area statements was an increase of one square mile in the total provincial forest area.

Boundaries.

105. The system of demarcation did not undergo any change during the year under report.

The boundaries of State-forests of the A and B classes were in good order, but those of the class C require further improvement. Of the permanent boundary marks of the new A and B reserves in the Basim and Wun districts referred to in paragraph 109 of the Administration Report for 1895-96, all those in the Basim district were completed during the year under report, while only a portion of those in the Wun district were finished. The amalgamation of the Ghatbori and Balapur reserves in the Akola district involved new demarcation, and the additions to the Gerumatergaon reserve in the Buldana district were also demarcated. The total expenditure incurred in the demarcation of all classes of State-forests was Rs. 841 on new works and Rs. 952 on maintenance against Rs. 1,230 and Rs. 1,101 respectively in 1895-96.

Breaches of Forest Law.

106. The scarcity prevailing during the year necessitated a lenient administration of the Forest Law which was not, however, widely abused. The total number of cases of breaches of the law was 959. Of these 38 cases remained undetected ; 754 cases, which were of a petty nature, were compounded, and the rest, viz., 157, which were of a serious nature, were taken before the Criminal Courts. The corresponding figures for the year 1895-96 were 58, 613, and 91 respectively.

Fire protection.

107. The area under protection was 1,423 square miles, or 10 square miles more than in 1895-96, while the area burnt rose from 28 to 31 square miles, or 2·1 per cent. of the area attempted. As regards fire protection, the year under report was more trying than the previous one owing to the practical absence of rain from August 1896 to July 1897 and to the special concessions allowed on account of famine which in volved enormous risk of fire. The average provincial cost per square mile of area attempted fell from Rs. 9·6 to 9·1.

Working plans.

108. The working plan referred to in paragraph 113 of the Administration Report for 1895-96 in respect of the babul buns in the Akola Division having been forwarded to the Inspector-General of Forests, the work of the permanent working plans in the province came to a conclusion. The total area dealt with under these plans is 725 square miles. The area for which provisional or short term plans of operations are compiled is 967 square miles, and the area for which plans are in hand is 2,172 square miles. There is an area of 315 square miles still to be dealt with.

Grazing.

109. The actual practice with respect to grazing in the several classes of State-forests during 1896-97 and 1895-96 is shown in the following table :—

1	2		3		4		5		6
Class of forests.	Closed to grazing.		Open for grazing for part of year. No browsers.		Open for grazing whole year. No browsers.		Open without restriction.		Total.
	1895-96.	1896-97.	1895-96.	1896-97.	1895-96.	1896-97.	1895-96.	1896-97.	1895-96.	1896-97.
	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.	Sq. m.
A ...	1,245	879	108	421	74	147	90	72	1,517	1,519
B ...	83	35	...	50	7	...	6	7	96	92
C ...	2	2	...	...	...	...	2,563	2,566	2,565	2,568
Total ...	1,330	916	108	471	81	147	2,659	2,645	4,178	4,179

The considerable variations disclosed in the above statement are due to the fact that from March to June 1897 all forest areas with sufficient water were thrown open for grazing purposes in view of the prevailing scarcity of fodder.

The re-classification of free-grazing lands is practically completed in six taluks, viz., Jalgaon, Malkapur, Chikhli, Khamgaon, Balapur, and Akola, and will shortly be completed in three more taluks, viz., Akot, Mehkar, and Daryapur.

The total amount of grazing fees realized during 1896-97 was Rs. 2,45,147.

Forest growth.

110. The following extract is taken from the Forest Report of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1896-97 :—

Though a year of drought must be detrimental to forest growth, and progress during the past year has been retarded, the exceptional feature of the South Berar forests being nearly cleared of grass has shown us that natural reproduction of teak, &c., has made far more advance than we hoped, or than toilsome walks through heavy grass led us to expect.

The wonderful improvement in the surface soil and the very general distribution of seedlings and saplings hitherto hidden by the grass was noticed by all interested in the forests ; and if conversion to a faith in protection from fire and cattle is ever needed now-a-days, a visit to the forests on the Ajunta ghats and a comparison of what we call "A" and "C" areas would convince the most sceptical.

Artificial reproduction.

111. Planting operations on a small scale were carried on in all the forest divisions of the province at a cost of Rs. 1,565 against Rs. 1,090 in 1895-96. Some 952 acres were operated on in the babul tracts of Ellichpur, Amraoti, and Akola, while in Basim some teak and other seeds were sown. Besides this bamboo nurseries were started in all divisions. The prolonged drought of the year was not favourable to the success of these operations.

Other operations for the improvement of forest growth.

112. In the Ellichpur Division climber cutting operations were effectively carried out for the first and second time under the Bairagarh working plan. In the same division badly grown and useless teak was also cut back over 11,356 acres at a cost of Rs. 403.

The year under report was, according to the plan of operations adopted for the destruction of lantana scandens, the last year of the primary eradication of the shrub. In the Melghat first clearance was completed over an area of 2,170 acres at a cost of Rs. 944, while second and third clearings in the same tract were undertaken over an area of 38¼ square miles at a cost of Rs. 5,371. The total area cleared in the Melghat since the work was started in 1893-94 is 36,816 acres. Though this completes the work of weeding out this plant in the Melghat, provision has been made to check its re-growth. A sum of Rs. 405 was paid by Local Funds for clearing the station of Chikalda, and a further sum of Rs. 1,200 by the Ellichpur District Board for cleaning the areas worked in 1895-96 in the Ellichpur and Daryapur taluks. The Ellichpur City Municipality has also contributed Rs. 500 towards the eradication of this plant within its area. The destruction of the plant was also undertaken both in the Amraoti and Buldana divisions.

Communications and buildings.

113. The expenditure of the year under report on forest works rose from Rs. 15,058 to Rs. 20,401. The increase was due to the utilization of all available funds for roads with a view to providing work for the famine-stricken laborers who looked to the forests for help. Of the expenditure incurred on forest works, Rs. 13,218 was on roads, 5,444 on buildings, and on other works Rs. 1,739.

Outturn of forest produce.

114. The following table shows the figures relating to the forest produce of the year, including the portion sold and the portion supplied gratis by the State under general concessions :—

Total value of free grants, Rs. 3,55,041

Total receipts from sales, Rs. 4,91,978 as against Rs. 4,90,996.

The value of free grants (Rs. 3,55,041) shown above includes an amount of Rs. 62,712 representing the value of special concessions granted in the forests on account of the famine.

Financial results.

MANUFACTURES.

Manufactures of the province.

117. An account of the chief manufactures of the province is given in paragraph 122 of the Administration Report for 1895-96.

Mills, cotton presses, and ginning factories.

118. During the year under report there were 4 mills in the province as in 1895-96. Of these one is a cotton weaving mill at Badnera and the other three are oil mills—2 at Amraoti and 1 at Shegaon. The cotton presses and ginning factories worked by steam power are by far the most important industries in the province. There were 76 ginning factories and 32 cotton presses during the year under report as against 66 and 33 respectively in 1895-96.

The mill at Badnera produced 1,546,668 lbs. of twist and yarn and 935,742 lbs. of cloth against 1,049,266 lbs. and 991,782 lbs. respectively in the previous year. The number of persons employed in the mill during the year under report was 1,212 against 1,027 in 1895-96. The two oil mills at Amraoti produced 464 tons of oil and 1,632 tons of oil cakes against 654½ tons of oil and 1,355 tons of oil cakes in 1895-96. The oil mill at Shegaon turned out 531 tons of oil against 643 tons in 1895-96.

Number of factories.

119. The number of factories which came under the operation of the Indian Factories Act during the year 1896 was 74 against 67 in the preceding year. Of these 44 were cotton ginning factories, 29 were cotton presses, and 1 was a cotton mill.

Number of operatives.

120. The following table shows the number of operatives employed during 1895 and 1896 :—

Year.	Daily average number.
	Males.	Females.	Children.	Total.
1895	3,667	2,172	128	5,967

Inspections.

121. Inspections by medical officers were more numerous during the year under report, 53 factories being inspected by them during 1896 against 6 in the preceding year. Inspections by Magistrates fell off during the year, especially in the Amraoti district. The work done by the provincial Inspector of Factories continued to be good.

Sanitation.

122. As regards latrine and urinal accommodation, the Commissioner, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, remarked that it was not so satisfactory as the provincial Inspector's report led him to believe. Prompt attention of all inspecting officers has therefore been drawn to this matter.

Accidents.

123. The number of accidents rose from 4 in 1895 to 11 in the year under report. Of the accidents of the year, 3 were fatal, 5 serious, and 3 minor.

Prosecutions.

124. There was one prosecution under section 15 (1) f of the Indian Factories Act in the Buldana district, and the offender was punished by a fine.

Cotton Duties Act.

125. The Berar Manufacturing Company's mill at Badnera is the only one in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts which is dealt with under the Cotton Duties Act II of 1896. The revenue raised during 1896-97 amounted to Rs. 14,049-14-7, that realized during the previous fifteen months being Rs. 6,605-12-3. The cotton goods and cotton yarn produced amounted to 906,476 lbs. and 2,343,499 lbs. respectively, the latter figure showing an increase of 453,040 lbs. over that for the preceding year. No difficulty was experienced in recovering the duty under the Act.

SECTION VII.

TRADE.

RAIL-BORNE TRADE.

System of registration.

126. During the year under report no change took place in the arrangements for the registration of rail-borne trade. The annual returns were, as usual, compiled in the office of the Examiner of Guaranteed Railway Accounts, Bombay, and furnished by that officer.

Total traffic.

127. The total rail-borne traffic of the year 1896-97 is compared below with that of the previous year and with the average of the preceding five years :—

[Figures in thousands of maunds and rupees.]

Description of trade.	Quantity in maunds.			Value in rupees.
	Average of five years ending 1895-96.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Average of five years ending 1895-96.	1895-96.	1896-97.

Total ...	7,247	6,954	6,337	59,186	63,876	57,271

The volume of trade during the year is 8·87 per cent. below that of the previous year and 12·56 per cent. below the five years average. The value also shows a decrease of 10·34 per cent. and 3·24 per cent. as compared with the figures for the previous year and the quinquennial average respectively. The import trade accounts for 44·42 per cent. of the whole and the export trade for 56·58 per cent.

The greatest falling off in the trade of the year appears in the imports, which are 10·49 per cent. below those of 1895-96 and 17·30 per cent. below the five years average, while the export trade is 7·53 per cent. and 8·25 per cent. respectively below the figures for the same periods. The value of the imports has fallen by 11·85 per cent. and that of the exports by 9·66 per cent. below the figure for the previous year.

The general decrease in trade is without doubt attributable to the scarcity and famine that prevailed for the last six months of the year under report not only in Berar, but all over India. The plague in Bombay has also had a serious effect on trade.

External trade.

128. The statement given below exhibits the total import and export trade of Berar with the neighbouring provinces during the year under report as compared with that of the previous year and the average of the five preceding years :—

As stated in paragraph 133 of the Administration Report for 1895-96, the trade of Berar is almost entirely confined to the Central Provinces and Bombay. The imports from Bombay into Berar amounted to 43·09 per cent. and those from the Central Provinces to 45·97, the two together making 89·06 per cent. of the total import trade of the province. The exports to Bombay are nearly 70·7 per cent. and those to the Central Provinces 14·23 per cent., the two together accounting for 84·3 per cent. of the total export trade of Berar.

The imports from Madras have considerably increased, as has the trade both import and export with Bengal. Exports to the North-Western Provinces and Oudh and Central India increased materially, while the trade both import and export with the Punjab fell off.

The principal variations are explained below :—

Coal and coke.—As stated in paragraph 134 of the Administration Report for 1895-96, the consumption of coal and coke in Berar almost invariably follows the cotton crop. In the first two quarters of the year under report the imports under this head increased owing to the influence of the good cotton crop of the previous year, but in the last two quarters it fell considerably, as the presses and gins had not full occupation.

Cotton, manufactured.—This item is one more or less of luxury, and fluctuates with the prosperity or otherwise of the country. During the first quarter of the year the imports under this head increased, but during the last two quarters the decrease was very considerable. The principal deficit occurred in European piece-goods, which people could scarcely afford to buy in a time of scarcity and distress.

Grain and pulse.—The imports of grain and pulse occurred principally in the last quarter of the year, when the stress of general failure of harvests was felt. High prices had to be paid for the grain imported owing to the general rise of prices everywhere. The amount imported was, however, not unduly large, and is below both the quinquennial average and the last year's figures.

Jute.—This item also follows the cotton crop and the demand for gunny bags, and considering that last year's figures were very high, the fall under this head is not remarkable. It occurred entirely in the last two quarters of the year.

Provisions.—The decrease in imports under this head also gives evidence of the scarcity that existed during the year under report, and made it necessary for people to curtail their consumption of ghee, dried fruits and nuts, and such like luxuries.

Sugar.—This item has kept up in a manner scarcely to be expected. It is difficult to assign a reason with confidence unless it may be that very many religious ceremonies, prayers for rain, and the feeding of Brahmins have caused a large consumption.

Exports.

130. The exports of the province are detailed in the table below :—

The important fluctuations in the figures above are explained below :—

Cotton, raw.—The exports of raw cotton are high. Though lower than in the previous year, they are still well above the quinquennial average both in quantity and value. The reason for this is that in the first quarter of the year under report the exports were exceedingly high owing to the exceptionally good harvest of 1895-96. The second quarter of the year also felt the effect of the previous harvest. In the quarter ending 31st December 1896, however, when the cotton crop of the year under report was gathered, the export was 326,582 maunds below the export of the same quarter in 1895. In the last quarter of the year also there was a considerable falling off, so that it is really the cotton crop of 1895-96 that has kept up the present figures.

At the close of the year under report there was a considerable depression in the cotton market in Bombay. The arrivals were deficient and the demand for Europe was disappointing. It seemed to be only the Japan shippers who bought at all freely.

Dyes and tans.—The export under this head shows a decrease of 11,000 maunds. The deficit occurs under all heads, except aniline dyes, which show an increase.

Grain and pulse.—The exports under this head show an increase of 180,000 maunds over the previous year's figures, though they are below the quinquennial average. Berar exported as much grain as it was possible to do, especially in the second quarter of the year ending 30th September 1896, when the scarcity owing to failure of rains was already commencing to be felt in other provinces. Berar was in a position to do this owing to the very good harvest of the previous year and the large stocks in the country. The exportation of grain continued into the third quarter of the year, and then practically ceased owing to the failure of crops in the province. High prices were obtained for the grain and pulse exported from Berar.

Oil-seeds.—The exports of oil-seeds decreased by 466,000 maunds, of which linseed alone accounts for 465,396 maunds. The first two quarters of the year showed a brisk export trade under this head, but a fall commenced in the third quarter ; and in the quarter ending 31st March 1897 the exports were 614,377 maunds below the same quarter of the previous year owing to the almost total failure of the linseed crop of 1896-97 from want of rain.

General remarks.

131. The trade in Berar has, in common with most other parts of India, suffered a check during the year under report. The good prices obtained for the grain exported from Berar have not benefitted the province generally, for the people of Berar have in their turn had to pay highly for their own supplies, and all have felt the results of the scarcity that prevailed and the depression in trade.

Road-borne Trade.

System of registration.

132. In accordance with the decision referred to in paragraph 137 of the Administration Report for 1895-96, the naka establishment was during the year under report utilized in registering the internal trade of the province, and was employed on the following principal railway feeder roads at the ten stations specified :—

1. At Malkapur for the Buldana road.
2. „ Nandura for the Motala road.
3. „ Nandura for the Jalgaon road.
4. „ Khamgaon for the Balapur road.
5. „ Khamgaon for the Amrapur road.
6. „ Shegaon for the Akot road.
7. „ Akola for the Barsi-Takli road.
8. „ Akola for the Akot road.
9. „ Akola for the Basim road.
10. „ Murtizapur for the Daryapur road.

Since the 1st April 1897 the registration staff was moved on to the feeder roads between Murtizapur and Dhamangaon to complete the registration of trade on the railway feeder roads.

Imports and exports.

133. The total imports amounted to 2,436,143 maunds valued at Rs. 2,25,24,821, and the exports to 887,223 maunds valued at Rs. 68,19,859. The trade consisted chiefly of the articles noted below :—

	Imports. Mds.	Exports. Mds.
Cotton, raw	982,957	11,414
Cotton, manufactured ...	10,032	56,165
Grain and pulse ...	708,777	236,218
Oils	29,018	75,625
Oil-seeds	388,266	71,249
Sugar	1,877	46,962

Of the ten stations selected for trade registration, the one on the Akola-Basim road recorded the largest volume of trade.

The traffic in cotton was found to be heaviest on the Shegaon-Akola and Akola-Akot roads, while that in grain and pulse was largest on the Akola-Basim road, the Malkapur-Buldana road, and the Khamgaon-Amrapur road. The trade in oil-seeds was largest on the road between Basim and Akola.

Akola Water-Works.—This project was completed during the year, but owing to unusual drought, which caused a great scarcity of water in Berar and the almost total failure of supply from the water-works at Amraoti and Khamgaon, the flow by gravitation from the infiltration gallery failed in March 1897, and it was necessary after that date to raise the supply by steam pumping.

142. The total outlay on account of establishment was Rs. 2,62,911, or 51·0007per cent. of the actual expenditure on works and repairs under Provincial Services. Establishment.

143. The total outlay incurred on account of tools and plant during the year amounted to Rs. 10,453. Tools and Plant.

144. Owing to the partial failure in Berar of the monsoon rains of 1895 and 1896 and the consequent scarcity of food-grains and the distress among the poorer classes, famine relief works were started in December 1896. The works were entirely completed in March 1897, and water was laid on to Secunderabad from 1st February to 31st March 1897. The supply had to be stopped on the latter date owing to a deficiency of water in the reservoir at the head works, which had received only a very scanty supply during the feeble monsoon of 1896.

Omitting Excluded Local Funds, items 8 and 20, and the Nizam's Guaranteed State Railway Police charges, namely, Rs. 754, the surplus of the year under review was Rs. 5,62,210 as compared with a surplus of Rs. 11,23,863 in the previous year.

Provincial contract scheme.

149. The year under review is the eighteenth in which the system has been in force of assigning a certain percentage of the Provincial revenues to the Resident for Civil, Public Works, and Railway expenditure. The proportion for the first four years was 54 per cent., and thereafter up to 1886-87 52 per cent. This was subsequently reduced to 50 per cent. for a period of five years commencing from the year 1887-88; but as this percentage was found insufficient, the Government of India on the representation of the Resident increased the assignment of revenue from 50 to 51 per cent. with effect from 1889-90 to 1891-92. On further consideration, and with reference to the transactions of previous years, the percentage was fixed at 50 per cent. for five years beginning with the year 1892-93, which arrangement has been allowed to continue for a further period of two years, namely, 1897-98 and 1898-99.

REVENUE AND RECEIPTS.

Revenue and Receipts.

150. The variations under Revenue and Receipt heads are explained below.

A.—Principal Heads of Revenue.

I.—Land Revenue.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 22,896
Do actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 1,31,732

Minor Heads.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Ordinary revenue	67,69,397	66,17,518	...	1,51,879
Sale proceeds of waste lands and redemption of land tax ...	19,759	13,392	...	6,367
Miscellaneous	19,898	44,716	24,818	...
Miscellaneous (Local) ...	4,782	6,478	1,696	...
	68,13,836	66,82,104	26,514	1,58,246

Notwithstanding some additional revenue anticipated owing to re-settlement of certain taluks, the actual realizations fell below both the estimate and the actuals of the previous year. The decrease in both cases is chiefly due to the suspension of revenue having been allowed on account of famine and distress.

II.—Opium.

Do actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 42,000

Minor Heads.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Opium pass fees	1,68,700	1,26,700	...	42,000
Miscellaneous	...	...	...	...
	1,68,700	1,26,700	...	42,000

The revenue under this head represents the duty levied by the Opium Agent at Malwa on opium imported to Berar. Importations in 1896-97 were less than was expected.

IV.—Stamps.

Do. actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 35,286

Minor Heads.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Sale of general stamps	3,35,252	3,29,953	...	5,299
Sale of court-fee stamps ...	5,72,272	5,43,530	...	28,742
Sale of plain paper to be used with court-fee stamps	4,783	5,295	512	...
Duty on impressing documents ...	2,289	1,135	...	1,154

	9,17,320	8,82,034	512	35,798

The decrease in both cases is chiefly in the sale of general and court-fee stamps, and is explained by the Commissioner as due to general depression of trade and agriculture owing to failure of rain ; also to the flight of the population from Bombay owing to the spread of bubonic plague, which affected the trade of Berar acutely.

V.—Excise.

Do. actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 1,51,502

Minor Heads.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
License and distillery fees and duties for the sale of liquors and drugs ...	13,34,775	11,81,780	...	1,52,995

Duty on ganja	1,420	...	...	1,420

	13,43,503	11,92,001	2,933	1,54,435

The decrease in both cases is owing to a diminution of revenue under country spirits and opium, and apparently due to the prevalence of scarcity and distress in Berar.

VI.—Provincial Rates.

Do. actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 41,229

Minor Head.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Rates and Cesses on lands (Local) ...	5,82,368	6,23,597	41,229	...

The receipts under this head fluctuate with the land revenue demand, which will vary according to the crops cultivated. The variations are apparently due to this reason.

VII.—Customs.

Do. actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 7,444

Minor Head.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	R.	Rs.	Rs.
Excise duty on cotton manufactures ...	6,606	14,050	7,444	...

This is a new source of income which came into existence from 1895-96. The increase in both cases is apparently due to the extension of the business generally.

VIII.—Assessed Taxes.

Below the actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 1,514

Minor Head.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
License Tax (Local)	89,348	87,834	...	1,514

The increase in both cases calls for no special explanation.

Do actuals of 1895-96... ... „ 23,480

Minor Heads.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
II. Timber and other produce removed from forests by consumers or purchasers	4,89,613	5,12,853	23,240	...
III. Drift and waif wood and confiscated forest produce	184	231	47	...
V. Miscellaneous	4,542	4,735	193	...
	4,94,339	5,17,819	23,480	...

The increase in both cases is chiefly in the item "Grazing and fodder grass," and may be attributed to higher prices having been obtained for grazing and fodder grass owing to the scarcity of rain and to the partial failure of forage crops.

X.—Registration.

„ the actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 5,587

Minor Heads.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.

Miscellaneous	6,495	6,540	45	...
	86,303	91,890	5,587	...

The increase in both cases is due to the increase in number of registrations.

B.—Interest.

XII.—Interest.

„ the actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 151

Minor Heads.	1895-96.	1896-97.	Increase.	Decrease.

The difference in both cases are trifling, and call for no remarks.

Jail manufactures	21,701	26,143	4,442	...

XXII.—Receipts in aid of Superannuation, &c.

Better than the estimate ... ... Rs. 5,874

The increase over the estimate is chiefly due to the recovery of contributions from Postal and Education Department officials employed under District Boards, and also from those of the Municipal office and school establishments.

XXIII.—Stationery and Printing.

„ the actuals of 1895-96 ... ... „ 2,906

The transactions under this head of account are of a fluctuating character, and the differences therefore require no special explanation. XXV.—Miscellaneous.

Below the estimate	...	Rs. 18,208
„ the actuals of 1895-96	...	„ 82,607

The decrease in both cases is chiefly under the head "Gain by exchange," and is due to the issue of supply bills on Bombay for Halli Sicca rupees in 1896-97 being considerably below that of 1895-96 owing to the more extended use of Government currency for adjustment of transactions between Berar and India.

H.—Railways.

XXVI.—State Railways.

XXXII.—Civil Works.

„ the actuals of 1895-96	...	„ 4,468

The increase over the estimate is due to the receipts respecting (1) sale proceeds of produce, (2) sale of old materials, and (3) contributions for works to be carried out having been under estimated, and that over the actuals of the previous year is owing to increased receipts having been realized on account of items 2 and 3 mentioned above.

L.—Receipts by Military Department.

XXXIII.—Army, Hyderabad Contingent.

Better than the estimate	...	Rs. 6,160

ADJUSTING HEADS.

Credit Adjustments—Provincial.

Contributions from Local to Provincial.

Below the estimate	...	Rs. 450

Adjusting heads.

151. The receipts credited under this head during the two years are the same, viz., Rs. 550, which represent the contribution received from the Akola District Board towards supervision charges of the district post establishment. CREDIT ADJUSTMENTS—LOCAL.

Contributions from Provincial to Local.

Disbursements.

152. The charges for 1896-97 aggregate Rs. 1,05,16,864 as against Rs. 1,01,89,809 for the previous year, resulting in a net increase of Rs. 3,27,055 as shown in the following statement:—

The difference is chiefly under musketry instruction and under salaries of the Assistant Adjutant-General, Hyderabad Contingent, and the Station Staff Officer, Bolarum. During 1896-97 a musketry instruction class was held, while in 1895-96 no such class was held. The increase under salaries is due to the appointment of the Assistant Adjutant-General having been held by a Colonel, while in 1895-96 it was held by a Captain, and to the absence on furlough of the Station Staff Officer, 1st class, Bolarum, whose leave allowances, are also debited to this head.

Grant 1.—Army and Garrison Staff. Increase Rs. 7,130.

The increase under this grant is due to the increased allowance having been sanctioned by the Government of India for the payment of native pensioners in certain stations of the Hyderabad Contingent with effect from 1st April 1896.

Grant 2.—Administrative Staff. Increase Rs. 485.

The increase under this grant is chiefly due to extra pay having been granted to the non-commissioned officers rank and file of the Artillery and the Infantry of the Hyderabad Contingent with effect from 1st April 1896.

Grant 3.—Regimental Pay, Allowances and Charges Increase Rs. 60,223.

The increase is mainly under compensation to natives and for horses of Cavalry, and is due to rise in prices.

Grant 4.—Commissariat establishments, &c. Increase Rs. 88,194.

During 1896-97 a smaller number of remounts and bullocks was purchased than during the year 1895-96.

Grant 5.—Remount and Veterinary establishments, &c. Decrease Rs. 8,265.

The increase is chiefly under compensation in lieu of clothing sanctioned for three regiments of the Infantry and two batteries of the Hyderabad Contingent.

Grant 6.—Clothing establishments &c. Increase Rs. 21,951.

The saving is under subordinate establishments, and is due to the transfer of a Senior Assistant Surgeon to the pension establishment.

Grant 9.—Medical establishments, &c. Decrease Rs. 1,330.

The increase is mainly under cost of ordnance stores, and is due to the supply of new carriages, &c., to the two batteries of the Hyderabad Contingent. No such expenditure was incurred during 1895-96.

Grant 10.—Ordnance establishments, &c. Increase Rs. 27,224.

The increase under this head is due to a larger number of officers who are entitled to passage money having proceeded to Europe on medical certificate during 1896-97 than in 1895-96, and to certain officers who travelled from port to port in India on their appointment to the Hyderabad Contingent in 1896-97.

Grant 13.—Sea Transport charges. Increase Rs. 1,140.

The saving is chiefly under furlough pay of military officers formerly in the Hyderabad Contingent and now serving under the Government of India, and under difference of cart hire between nirruck and bazar rates. Under the former head a sum of Rs. 3,150 was adjusted during 1895-96, whereas no such charge was incurred during 1896-97. During 1895-96 a sum of Rs. 516 was adjusted under the latter head, while in 1896-97 only a sum of Rs. 65 was incurred under that head.

Grant 14.—Miscellaneous services. Decrease Rs. 3,500.

The increase under this grant is due to certain native officers of the Hyderabad Contingent having been admitted to the 2nd Class Order of British India during 1896-97.

Grant 16.—Rewards for Military services. Increase Rs. 683.

The saving is under—

I. Pensions to commissioned officers,
II. Do. combatant warrant officers,
III. Do. non-commissioned officers,
IV. Wound pensions to commissioned officers, and is due to the death of a commissioned officer, who was also in receipt of wound pension, and to the death also of a combatant warrant officer and non-commissioned officer during 1896-97.

Grant 17.—Military pensions to Europeans. Decrease Rs. 2,414.

The increase is chiefly under pensions to native commissioned, non-commissioned officers, and soldiers, and is due to the addition to the pension establishment during 1896-97.

Grant 18.—Military pensions to Natives. Increase Rs. 3,794.

Withdrawal of surplus cash balance.

155. The surplus cash balance of the Berar treasuries for the season 1897 was originally estimated at Rs. 69,20,000. The actual surplus, however, fell below the estimate by Rs. 1,20,000 apparently due to increased expenditure owing to famine. The whole of the available surplus was paid into the branches of the Bank of Bombay at Akola and Amraoti for transfer free of remittance charge to Bombay to the credit of the Hyderabad Administration in accordance with the Bank's agreement.

CHAPTER VI.

VITAL STATISTICS AND MEDICAL RELIEF.

SECTION I.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

System of registration.

159. The system of registration did not undergo any change during the year under report.

Births, provincial figures.

160. The total number of births recorded during the year was 109,013 against 105,952 in the previous year, showing an increase of 3,061. The birth-rate of the year per mille was higher than the rates for 1894 and 1895, being 38·3 per mille as against 33·3 and 37·2 respectively, but lower than the last decennial average, viz., 40·7, and the estimated birth-rate for the whole of India, viz., 48·8.

Births according to districts.

161. As in 1895 the registered birth-rate was highest in the Buldana district and lowest in the Wun district, being 44·1 and 31·8 per mille respectively. In all districts except Akola the birth-rate was less than the mean for the ten years ending 1890, and in Amraoti and Ellichpur it was appreciably below the figures for 1895.

Births according to sex.

162. Of the total live births registered during 1896, 55,931 were of males and 53,082 of females, the proportion of the sexes born being 105·3 male births to every 100 female births as compared with a proportion of 105·2 in the previous year, or an average of 105·4 for the last quinquennium.

Still-births.

163. The number of still-births registered, but not included in the provincial return, was 5,104 against 5,305 in 1895. Of these 2,935 were males and 2,169 females, or 135·3 still-male births to every 100 still-female births. The proportion of still to live births was 4·6 per cent. as compared with 4·5, the mean of the previous five years.

Deaths, provincial figures.

164. In spite of several adverse causes the health of the year 1896 showed a considerable improvement on that of the previous year. The total number of deaths registered during the year under report was 124,787 as compared with 141,937 in 1895, or a decrease of 17,150. The death-rate in proportion to population was 43·8 per 1,000 as against 49·9 in 1895 and 36·2, the average of the ten years ending 1894. Though there was a decrease of 6·1 per 1,000 during the year under report as compared with the previous year, there was an increase of 7·6 as compared with the decade, during which period the death-rate of 1896 was only once exceeded. The average death-rate of the past five years was 38·8.

Deaths according to districts.

165. According to districts the death-rate was highest in the Wun district, viz., 50·5 per mille, and lowest in the Buldana district, viz., 39·1. For the four districts of Amraoti, Ellichpur, Basim, and Akola the rates were 45·6, 43·1, 42·5, and 41·7 respectively. The recorded rate per 1,000 of population was higher than the annual mean of the preceding ten years in all districts except Buldana.

Death-rate according to sex.

166. Of the total recorded deaths, 66,565 occurred amongst males and 58,222 amongst females, which give a death-rate of 45·5 for males per 1,000 of population and 42·1 for females against 51·1 and 48·7 respectively in the previous year, and 39·8 and 37·8 the mean ratio for the previous five years.

In every district male deaths exceeded those of females, the proportion for the province being 114·3 deaths of males to every 100 deaths amongst females. The district ratio ranged from 116·1 in the Amraoti district to 112·1 in the Ellichpur district.

Death-rate according to age.

167. The following table exhibits the death-rate per mille according to age during 1894, 1895, and 1896. Of the total mortality, 39·6 per cent. occurred amongst children under 5 years of age :—

Causes of death.

169. The following summary compares the number of deaths from various causes registered during 1896 with the corresponding figures for the preceding year and the mean of the previous ten years :—

Causes of death.	Mean for ten years.		1895.		1896.
	Deaths.	Ratio per 1,000 of population.	Deaths.	Ratio per 1,000 of population.	Deaths.	Ratio per 1,000 of population.

All causes	103,691	36·4	141,937	49·9	124,787	43·8

It will be seen that as compared with 1895 there was an increase in mortality under cholera and small-pox and a decrease under all other causes, and that as contrasted with the decennial mean the number of deaths and the death-rate were much in excess of the average, except under "Other causes," which correspond with the mean. The total mortality from cholera was more than double that of the decade, and has only been exceeded four times in the past twenty-six years.

Sale of quinine.

170. The system of selling quinine by postal agency was during 1896 extended to Forest officers. In the Wun district quinine is also distributed by the Vaccination establishment. The drug is now obtained from the Madras Government instead of from the Bengal Government. The number of packets received during the year was 1,150 and the number disposed of 948.

SECTION II.

IMMIGRATION AND EMIGRATION.

171. Berar not being a maritime province it is unnecessay to record anything under this head.

MEDICAL RELIEF.

172. Under the orders of the Government of India, the Inspector-General of Dispensaries, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, in his report for the year 1896 amalgamated the statistics relating to civil hospitals with those for charitable dispensaries instead of showing them separately as heretofore, and this new arrangement has been adopted in the following abstract.

Number of civil hospitals and charitable dispensaries.

173. The number of civil hospitals and charitable dispensaries working at the end of 1896 in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts was the same as in 1895, viz., 46. Sanction has been accorded to the establishment of a new dispensary at Rallegaon in the Wun district, but its opening is deferred to the 1st April 1898.

Patients treated.

174. The statement below shows the extent to which medical relief was afforded during 1896 as compared with 1895 :—

Year.	In-door patients.						Out-door patients.		Total of in-door and out-door patients.

1896 ...	4,500	3,647	349	7·8	322	129·10	340,134	2040·34	344,634

The decrease of 6,721 patients during the year is remarkable, and is attributed mainly to the general healthiness of the year.

Classification of patients.

175. Of the total number of patients during the year under report, 946 were Europeans, 1,713 Eurasians, 204,847 Hindus, 124,904 Muhammadans, and 12,224 belonged to other classes. According to sex, 162,832 were men, 51,857 women, and 129,945 children.

Diseases treated.

176. The chief diseases treated during 1896 as compared with the previous year were as follows :—

Surgical operations.

177. Under the orders of the Government of India issued in the Home Department Circular No. $\frac{2\text{-Medical}}{236-245}$, dated the 14th March 1896, the old classification of surgical operations into "major" and "minor" has been abolished in favour of a new method of distribution according to a list appended to the nomenclature of diseases. According to the new classification, which partly accounts for the decrease, the total number of surgical operations performed during 1896 was only 10,606, including principal and secondary operations, as against a total of 12,118 in the previous year. The 10,606 operations referred to were performed on 10,596 persons, and including the 7 persons operated on in 1895, but remaining under treatment, there was a total of 10,606 subjects undergoing treatment during 1896. Of this number, 10,272 were cured, 285 were either relieved or discharged, and 18 died, 31 persons still remaining under treatment at the close of the year under report.

The Dufferin Hospital.

179. The year 1896 was the second complete year of the working of the Dufferin Hospital for women and children at Amraoti. The number of in-patients rose from 96 to 128, but the number of out-patients fell from 6,215 to 5,806. The total number of operations performed during the year under report was 161 against 270 in 1895. The number of maternity cases rose from 17 to 26. The expenditure of the institution for 1896 was only Rs. 5,328. The comparatively large expenditure of Rs. 11,616 in the previous year included initial charges for surgical instruments, furniture, &c., purchased for the institution on its opening in that year.

SECTION IV.

SANITATION.

Expenditure on sanitation by Municipalities.

180. The total expenditure of the twelve municipalities in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts on sanitary works amounted to Rs. 1,70,515 during 1896 against Rs. 1,02,504 in the preceding year. Of this sum Rs. 10,208 were spent on drainage, Rs. 71,180 on water-supply, Rs. 59,988 on domestic cleansing, and Rs. 29,139 on other sanitary works. As already stated in the section on Public Works, the Akola water works project reached completion during the year under report.

Expenditure on sanitation by District Boards.

181. Out of the sum of Rs. 1,06,834 allotted by District Boards for expenditure on works of sanitary improvement during the year, Rs. 12,690 were spent on works of drainage, Rs. 28,950 on water-supply, Rs. 37,217 on domestic cleansing, and Rs. 3,838 on other sanitary works, bringing the total expenditure to Rs. 82,695, or 77·4 per cent. of the sum set apart, against an expenditure of Rs. 85,751 in 1895.

Water-supply and drainage as bearing on mortality.

182. The effect produced on the rate of mortality by an improvement in the system of water-supply is shown below so far as the most important completed schemes are concerned :—

Sanitary Boards survey and record.

183. During the year under review the District Sanitary Boards met six times, or once in each district as in 1895, and considered the measures adopted by local bodies to give effect to the Sanitary Commissioner's recommendations. The most important outcome of these deliberations was that a sum of Rs. 51,368 was spent on sanitary improvements recommended in sanitary surveys. During the year one town and 152 villages were surveyed as against 77 villages in 1895, bringing the total number of towns and villages surveyed since 1888 to 36 and 804 respectively; this leaves 3 towns and 4,439 villages in the province still to be surveyed.

The suggestions of the Government of India regarding the maintenance of permanent sanitary record for selected towns and large villages have been adopted for Berar, and the Resident has ordered that the record in question should be maintained in five villages in each district, or a total of 30 for the province.

Sanitation Law.

184. In deference to native opinion which was largely consulted, the preparation of a Sanitary Law for Berar is postponed to a future date.

SECTION V.

VACCINATION.

Staff.

185. The strength of the Vaccination Department remained the same during the year under report as in previous years, and worked up to its full complement.

Work done.

186. The following table compares the work done during the year 1896-97 with that of 1895-96 :—

Year.	Primary vaccination.			Re-vaccination.			Average number of persons vaccinated by each vaccinator.
	Total.	Successful.	Percentage of success.	Total.	Successful.	Percentage of success.
1895-96 ...	92,694	88,917	95·9	13,911	3,260	23·4	2,423
1896-97 ...	98,594	95,529	96·8	21,717	4,462	20·5	2,729

Of the total number of successful primary operations of the year, 77,490 were performed on infants under one year of age, 15,647 on children over one year and under six years, and 2,392 on children over six years of age and adults. Thus out of every 100 persons successfully vaccinated, 81·1 were infants, 16·3 children between one year and six years, and 2·5 of other ages.

Influence of vaccination in checking small-pox.

187. The following table shows the influence of small-pox in checking mortality from small-pox:—

Expenditure.

188. The whole cost of the department, which is entirely met from Provincial revenues, shows a slight decrease during the year under report, being Rs. 17,573 against Rs. 17,724 in the previous year. The pay of the sanctioned establishment was Rs. 17,070 during 1896-97 against Rs. 16,918 in the preceding year. The average cost of each successful vaccination was 2 annas and 9 pies as against 3 annas and 1 pie in the previous year, and 3 annas in 1894-95.

Compulsory vaccination in municipalities.

189. During the year under report the municipality of Karinja was brought under the operation of the Vaccination Act, XIII of 1880. The Act which is now in force in all the municipalities in Berar worked satisfactorily.

CHAPTER VII.

INSTRUCTION.

SECTION I.

GENERAL SYSTEM OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

190. The general system of public instruction followed in Berar will be found described in paragraphs 197 to 206 on pages 95 to 98 of the Administration Report for 1892-93.

SECTION II.

EDUCATION.

Number of schools and scholars.

191. The annual report on education for the year 1896-97 includes a retrospect of the preceding four years 1892-93 to 1895-96. The chief feature of the year's record is that, in spite of severe scarcity during the last six months, the number of schools increased from 1,180 in 1895-96 to 1,361 in the year of report and the number of scholars from 49,243 to 54,343, thus showing an increase of 181 schools and 5,100 scholars. This increase was evenly distributed over all six districts, but was almost entirely confined to indigenous schools, the prevalence of high prices compelling private schoolmasters to teach on nominal salaries: the public health too was generally good. Since the beginning of 1892-93, i.e., during the quinquennial period under review, the number of schools under public management has risen from 651 to 714 and the number of scholars from 38,127 to 42,284, while schools under private management fell from 663 to 642 and the number of scholars from 13,212 to 11,902, and private institutions varied from 8 with 144 pupils to 5 with 157 pupils. The number of schools open on the 31st March 1897 was 1,361; of these three were high schools (two Government and one private) with 556 pupils, 25 middle schools with 3,436 pupils, and 1,324 primary schools with 50,085 pupils, the remaining nine comprising five private institutions for teaching Oriental classics, three industrial schools (two unaided and one Government), and one Training College for teachers, with 157, 47, and 62 pupils respectively. The average number of square miles to every boys' school in 1896-97 was 13·5 as compared with 15·8 in 1895-96 and 13·4 in 1892-93, and the percentage of male scholars to the male population of a school-going age was 22·2 against 20·2 in 1895-96 and 22·8 in 1892-93. Revised standards of study were introduced into all primary and secondary schools in the province with effect from the 1st April 1896.

The following table shows the different classes of schools and the pupils attending them during each of the years forming the quinquennial period ending with 1896-97:—

University education.

193. During the year 12 ex-students of the Berar high schools and 7 out of the 8 students holding Berar scholarships passed various University examinations. These scholarships, which are open only to natives of the province, are now awarded, not as hitherto by competition only, but to candidates who obtain high places and are also favourably reported on by their head masters.

Secondary education.

194. During the quinquennial period ending with 1896-97 the number of Government high and middle schools continued stationary, viz., 2 and 24 respectively; but during the last two years a beginning has been made in the establishment of private secondary schools, the outcome of private enterprise. As noticed in paragraph 206 of last year's report, a private high school was opened at Amraoti in December 1895, and the report for 1896-97 shows that a private middle school teaching Anglo-Vernacular standards has also been started in the same town from the 1st September 1896. The private high school had 137pupils on its rolls on the 31st March 1897 against 129 in 1895-96. Of the 16 candidates sent up by this school for the Entrance examination of the Bombay University only 1 passed. The private middle school had 60 pupils at the end of the year. At the Government High School at Akola the students numbered 202 on the 31st March 1897, with an average daily attendance of 148 as compared with 171 and 151 for the preceding year and 136 and 110 respectively for 1892-93. Attendance at the Amraoti High School, on the other hand, declined, the result of the institution of the private high school noticed above, the number of students on its rolls being 264 on the 31st March 1893, 214 at the close of 1895-96, and 217 at the close of 1896-97, with a daily average attendance of 190, 239, and 182 respectively.

The total cost of the 26 secondary schools amounted to Rs. 72,405 in the year under review as compared with Rs. 76,043 in 1895-96 and Rs. 79,819 in 1892-93, and the total cost of educating each pupil Rs. 19-13-7, Rs. 20-3-10, and Rs. 17-8-2 respectively. Of the total expenditure during 1896-97 (Rs. 72,405), Provincial revenues contributed Rs. 50,524, fees Rs. 18,453, and Municipal Fund and subscriptions Rs. 3,428, and of the total cost of educating each pupil (Rs. 19-13-7) Rs. 13-13-7 came from Provincial revenues. The aggregate cost of the two high schools alone amounted to Rs. 21,543 against Rs. 21,838 in 1895-96 and Rs. 23,569 in 1892-93, of which the major portion was met by Provincial revenues. During the year under report the number of Anglo-Vernacular middle schools to which high school classes were attached was 7 against 6 in the previous year.

Matriculation.

195. During the year under report, the two high schools sent up 46 candidates (31 from Amraoti and 15 from Akola) for the Matriculation examination of the Bombay University, of whom 28 (or 60 per cent.) were successful, Amraoti passing 20 and Akola 8.

Primary public schools for boys under public management.

196. Primary education has shown some progress during the year; there being an increase of 12 schools (from 628 to 640) under public management. The number of pupils on the rolls at the same time increased from 34,416 to 36,501 and the average daily attendance from 22,371 to 24,383, an increase of 2,012. At the beginning of 1892-93 there were only 580 such schools with 31,751 pupils and an attendance of 21,784. Of the 87 villages mentioned in 1895 as having a population of 1,000 and upwards but no school, 44 have now been provided for, and for the rest provision will be made as funds permit. The total cost of educating each pupil has fallen during the year from Rs. 6-3-7 to Rs. 5-15-3. In 1892-93 the cost was Rs. 6-3-3. The cost to Provincial revenues has fallen slightly from Rs. 2-9-7 in 1892-93 to Rs. 2-9-6, but the actual provincial contribution is larger. The results of examination show that 24,192 were examined as against 21,927 in 1895-96 and 18,894 in 1892-93, the number passed being respectively 13,654, 12,301, and 12,407. In the English teaching classes the numbers examined and passed were 224 and 121 as against 184 and 82 in the preceding year.

Education of Europeans and Eurasians.

198. As in 1895-96, there was only one school in the province for Europeans and Eurasians, viz., the Catholic School at Amraoti. At the beginning of 1892-93, besides the Catholic School at Amraoti, there was a second one, the Anglican School at Akola, which was opened in May 1891, and survived for only two years, having to be closed in 1893-94 for want of sufficient attendance. On the 31st March 1897 the Catholic School at Amraoti had on its rolls 58 pupils (20 boys and 38 girls) against 56 (17 boys and 39 girls) on the same date in the previous year. Eleven boys and 17 girls were presented for examination, of whom 8 and 13 respectively were successful.

Education of Muhammadans.

199. The following table furnishes statistics of the Government, District Board, and Municipal Hindustani schools :—

	Total number of schools.			Total number of scholars.			Total number of pupils examined and passed under Standards I to VI (Primary Urdu) and I to IV (Secondary Anglo-Urdu).
Year.	Boys.	Girls.	Total.	Boys.	Girls.	Total.	Examined.	Passed.

1892-93 ...	73	13	86	3,986	564	4,450	1,943	1,353

In this table Muhammadan boys attending other than Hindustani or Anglo-Hindustani schools have not been included. If the 35 Muhammadan boys attending the High schools, 12 the Training College, 1 the Industrial school at Amraoti, and 2,240 studying in the Marathi and Anglo-Marathi schools are also taken into account and the 180 non-Muhammadans in Hindustani schools left out, the total number of Muhammadan pupils in all classes of schools under public management comes to 6,753 as against 6,618 in the previous year. If to this number be added the Muhammadan pupils (708 as against 615 in year) in schools under private management on 31st March 1897, the total number of Muhammadan pupils works out to 7,461 as against 7,233 in the previous year.

Education of aborigines.

200. For the aboriginal races there are now two schools—one at Chikalda, and the second, which was opened in November 1896, at Dharni. The number of pupils was 213 against 166 in 1895-96 and 130 at the beginning of 1892-93. Sixty-one pupils were examined during the year, of whom 37 passed in standards I to V.

Female education.

201. Female education has developed but slightly during the year, there being in the 46 girls' schools under public management 1,909 pupils as against 1,831 in1895-96 with an average attendance of 1,143 and 1,123 respectively : the year 1892-93 began with 44 schools and 1,653 pupils and a daily attendance of only 994. The cost per pupil has risen during the quinquennial period from Rs. 6-0-3 to Rs. 6-7-7. These figures are exclusive of girls attending boys' schools, who numbered 1,709 in 1896-97 as against 270 in 1892-93—a very satisfactory increase.

The following statement furnishes further particulars regarding the Physical education.

203. The number of gymnasia during the year under report increased from 517 to 533, but the number visited by the gymnastic teachers of the various circles fell off from 497 to 438. At the beginning of 1892-93 there were only 449 gymnasia.

The following extract from paragraph 59 of the report under review shows the interest taken in this branch of education :—

Inspecting officers and schoolmasters continue to take increasing interest in physical education. Most of the District Board primary schools possess gymnastic apparatus of a simple nature, and schoolmasters are required to see that it is regularly used. In schools not provided with gymnastic apparatus boys are made to play native sports and games under the immediate supervision of schoolmasters. Easy school drill is now taught in most of the primary schools.

In Anglo-Vernacular schools gymnastics and school drill form a part of school curriculum, and every class gets its special half an hour or an hour for physical exercise and school drill.

Under the revised standards gymnastics have been made compulsory under High School standards, and every boy is now made to work in the gymnasium or play-ground under the superintendence of class masters. The work turned out by the High School and Training College students is on the whole satisfactory and creditable to the teachers concerned.

Institutions for training teachers.

204. With a view to improve the quality and status of the trained men, a scheme for the re-organization of the Training College at Akola was finally sanctioned during the year under report, the revised scheme being given effect to from the 1st December 1896. The Training College Code has also been revised and new courses of study (lasting for three years on the Marathi side and two years on the Hindustani side) drawn up in conformity with the tenour and object of the sanctioned scheme. The number of pupils on the rolls of the College on the 31st March 1897 was 60, or less by 11 than in the previous year—51 on the Marathi side and 9 on the Hindustani side. The results of the annual examination are considered to have been on the whole satisfactory, 32 students (25 Marathi and 7 Hindustani) passing in the first year's course, and 15 (12 Marathi and 3 Hindustani) in the second year's or certificate examination. Thirty-one students were sent out as masters and assistant masters during the year as against 22 in 1895-96. Gymnastics and drill and moral education are reported to be receiving special attention.

Drawing.

205. The following table shows the results of the first grade examination of the Bombay School of Art:—

During the year two boys from the Akola High School passed the Bombay 2nd grade Art Examination and obtained certificates.

Industrial training.

206. As in the previous year, there were two industrial schools—one at Amraoti, and the second at Akola. The school at Amraoti is under the superintendence of Mr. Talvalkar, Head Master of the local High School, and is reported to be progressing well. It had 17 students on the 31st March 1897 against 9 in the previous year—7 in the carpentery class, 3 in the smithing class, and 7 in the tailoring class. The total cost of maintenance of the school amounted to Rs. 1,867-9-1, the net prfiots being Rs. 576-4-0.

The practical engineering class started by Rao Saheb Deo Rao Vinayak at Akola had 18 pupils against 14 in the previous year, and is favourably reported on.

Instruction of candidates for patwarishipsin land measuring.

207. On the 31st March 1897 55 pupils were under instruction in land measuring against 93 in the preceding year.

208. The total amount of fees realized in all classes of Government schools and in Local Board primary schools during the year under report aggregated Rs. 57,950 against Rs. 58,618 in 1895-96 and Rs. 57,486 in 1892-93. Of the amount realized in 1896-97, high schools yielded Rs. 6,100, middle schools Rs. 13,438, and primary schools Rs. 38,412. The amount contributed by the people was Rs. 9,834 in the year of report as compared with Rs. 9,199 in 1894-96 and Rs. 9,377 in 1892-93.

Expenditure.

209. The expenditureof the department has fluctuated between Rs. 4,37,545 in 1892-93, Rs. 4,11,883 in 1895-96, and Rs. 4,24,578 in 1896-97. The decrease in 1896-97 has occurred chiefly under "Buildings," "Training and Secondary schools," and "Grants-in-aid," the result of more careful management. A small increase under "Miscellaneous" is due to pensionary contributions paid by District Boards for the first time in 1896-97 on behalf of their educational employés. Compared with the year 1892-93, there has been a decrease of Rs. 12,967 in the total expenditure during the year under report.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

Personnel of the Administration.

The office of Resident was held throughout the year 1897-98 by Mr. (now Sir) Trevor Chichele-Plowden, C.S.I., I.C.S. The office of the First Assistant Resident and Secretary for Berar to the Resident was held up to the afternoon of the 4th May 1897 by Mr. A. Williams, I.C.S., LL.M.; from the 5th May 1897 up to the 19th November 1897 by Mr. A. F. Pinhey, I.C.S., and thereafter by Mr. C. H. A. Hill, I.C.S. The office of the Second Assistant Resident and Secretary for Berar to the Resident was held throughout the year by Mr. W. E. Jardine, I.C.S.

Mr. F. S. Bullock, C.I.E., I.C.S., held charge of the office of the Commissioner, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, throughout the year, and Mr. R. Obbard, I.C.S., B.A., held charge of the office of the Judicial Commissioner, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, till the afternoon of the 16th February 1898, when he proceeded on a month and 20 days' privilege leave. Mr. F. S. Bullock received formal charge of the Judicial Commissionership on the afternoon of the 16th February 1898, and made it over to Mr. J. A. Crawford, I.C.S., on the forenoon of the 17th idem, who thereafter officiated as Judicial Commissioner.

Survey and settlement

2. A description of the nature and scope of the revision survey and settlement operations in progress in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts will be found in paragraph 2 of the General Summary of the Administration Report for 1893-94. The present report deals with the period from the 1st August 1897 to the 31st July 1898. The revision of the yoke rates and area units of the Melghat taluk undertaken by the Melghat party having been finished, that party was disbanded in October 1897. The three other parties who were employed during the year completed the revision survey work of the Amraoti, Ellichpur, and Morsi taluks during the field season from November 1897 to June 1898. The amount of work finished by them was 1,027,560 acres, and the cost per square mile was Rs. 21-1-2. During the year proposals for the revision settlement of the Akot taluk in the Akola district and of the Daryapur taluk in the Ellichpur district were sanctioned and the rates proclaimed. The revision settlement report of the Mehkar taluk of the Buldana district was received during the year and submitted to the Government of India for sanction.

Waste lands.

3. The area of culturable assessed lands lying waste during the year was 295,387 acres, or 3·6 per cent. of the total area of the province. The major portion of this area (viz., 287,899 acres) is situated in the Wun and Basim districts and the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district. The area of unoccupied lands in khalsa villages newly occupied amounted to 21,678 acres, and the area of occupied land relinquished to 15,578 acres.

Leased villages.

4. The number of villages in possession of lessees at the end of the year was 459 and their aggregate area was 845,943 acres, of which 93,179 were unoccupied. The occupied area amounted to 616,499 acres, yielding an assessment of Rs. 2,64,529.

Course of legislation.

5. During the year 1897 the Epidemic Diseases Act, III of 1897, the Glanders and Farcy Act (1879) Amendment Act, 1896, and the Berar Excise Law and the Berar Hemp Drugs Law, 1897, were applied to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts. The other Special Local Laws made and rules issued under Acts and Special Local Laws are specified in section I of Chapter III.

Police.

6. The police force of the province remained unchanged during the year. Its strength, as in the previous year, consisted of 9 gazetted officers, 563 subordinate officers, and 2,326 constables. The total expenditure of the force amounted to Rs. 5,56,007.

Crime.

7. Owing to the famine which raged throughout the first three quarters of 1897, cognizable crime (exclusive of nuisance cases) increased greatly, the increase being distributed among all classes of offences. In fact the number of cases of the year under report (11,151) was nearly double that of any of the preceding four years. It is significant that the property in respect of which some of the more serious forms of crime were committed was of trifling value. Of the cases that occurred 82·0 per cent. were investigated by the police, and in 60 per cent. of these cases convictions were obtained. The number of persons arrested and summoned was 15,918 against 10,777 in 1896. The proportion of stolen property recovered was 31·3 against 28·1 in the preceding year. The number of non-cognizable cases was 7,211 against 7,696 in 1896.

Anthropometry

8. During the year the measurement cards of 675 convicts were deposited in the anthropometrical office, where the total number of cards accumulated to the end of the year was 2,231. Thirty-five cards were received for identification, but in the case of two only were previous cards traced. The system of anthropometry is now to be superseded by that of identification by means of finger-tip impressions, regarding which instructions have been issued.

Criminal Justice.

9. The number of criminal courts open during the year was 68 as against 77 in the preceding year. There was a large increase of criminal business as compared with the preceding year, the number of offences brought to trial being 15,874 as against 13,868 in 1896—an increase of 2,006 or 14·4 per cent. There were 29,554 persons who were concerned in the cases for disposal during the year. Of these 29,137, or 98·5 per cent., were dealt with, 13,781 being discharged or acquitted and 13,402 convicted. Of the persons sentenced to punishment of various kinds, 20 were sentenced to death, 17 to transportation, and 3,395 to imprisonment; 7,585 were fined, and 3,711 were sentenced to be whipped. Offences affecting the human body decreased by 992 cases, while offences against property increased by the enormous number of 2,422. Fines imposed amounted to Rs. 62,490-14-2 as against Rs. 65,789-8-0 in 1896. The average duration of cases disposed of was 9·5 days as against 8·4 in the preceding year. The number of witnesses was 57,403, of whom 74·2 per cent. were detained for one day only, 17·8 per cent. for two days, 5·2 per cent. for three days, and 2·8 per cent. for more than three days. The Sessions Court tried 143 persons in its original jurisdiction, of whom 89 were convicted. The percentage of acquittals in Sessions cases fell from 41·7 to 36·4 per cent. The total number of appeals was 1,478, of which 1,404 were disposed of during the year.

Jails.

10. The status of the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts continued to be the same as heretofore. The project for enlarging and converting the Amraoti Jail into a central jail was definitely abandoned as the cost is beyond the means of the province. The statistics of the jail population during 1897 were altogether abnormal and reflected the effects of the famine. The year commenced with a total prison population of 1,535 and ended with 1,826; the number of admissions during the year was 7,913 as compared with 4,060 in 1896 and with 3,601 in 1895; the daily average strength was 1793·27 as compared with 1330·29 and 1318·83 in 1896 and 1895 respectively. Of the total admissions during the year, 3,288 were convicts, and of these 2,743 were Hindus and Sikhs, 544 were Muhammadans, and one a Christian (Eurasian). Of the whole number, 11·13 per cent. had been previously convicted. As might be expected in a year of agricultural distress, the main increase in the jail population was among persons classified as "engaged in agriculture or with animals." Although the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts were overcrowded during the year owing to a great increase in the number of admissions, no epidemic disease broke out among the population, and the general health of the prisoners was on the whole better than in 1896. Three hundred and one male and twenty-two female convicts were released from the jails in the province in commemoration of the Diamond Jubilee of Her Majesty the Queen, Empress of India. The average number of convicts under sentence of labour was 1391·72, and of these nearly half were employed on manufactures, and the rest were either unable to work or were employed on jail duties. Compared with 1896, the gross expenditure during the year showed an increase of Rs. 46,331, and the net cost after crediting earnings of Rs 32,647. The increase was principally due to high prices of provisions that prevailed throughout the year.

Civil Justice.

11. The number of officers actually employed on civil judicial work on the last working day of the year was 40 as against 42 in 1896. The total number of suits for disposal was 31,101, a decrease of 2,469, or 7·4 per cent., as compared with 1896, and the number disposed of was 25,282, or 81·3 per cent. of those for disposal. Of the suits instituted, 19,965 were for money or moveable property as against 23,033 in the previous year, a decrease of 3,068, or 13·3 per cent. The aggregate value of the suits disposed of was Rs. 40,44,687-12-5 as against Rs. 40,02,993-10-8, an increase of Rs. 41,694-1-9, or 1·04 per cent. The average value of each suit increased from Rs. 151-5-10 to Rs. 164. Of the total number of suits 73·3 per cent. were uncontested and 26·3 contested; the rest were either cases in which plaints were rejected or returned or cases decided by arbitration. The average duration of contested cases was 169·7, while that of uncontested cases was 80·4 days, the corresponding figures for 1896 being 138·7 and 69·1 respectively. The number of applications for execution of decrees disposed of during the year was 25,895, or 79 per cent. of the number for disposal. Of these applications 1,704 were transferred; in 3,467 cases the decrees were fully satisfied; in 3,381 the decrees were partially satisfied, and 17,343 applications were wholly infructuous. The total amount realized on decrees during the year was Rs. 3,50,363-0-6 as compared with Rs. 3,59,506-3-0 in 1896. There were 44 applications in bankruptcy as against 58 in the previous year. Of these only seven were granted. The total amount of fees realized was Rs. 4,40,550-13-0—court fees Rs. 3,35,944-6-0, and process fees Rs. 1,04,606-7-0. The cost of the process-serving establishment was Rs. 69,352-9-6 as against Rs. 66,248-14-6 in the previous year. Including appeals pending from 1896, there were 1,608 appeals for disposal as against 1,872 in 1896, and 1,202 were disposed of.

Registration.

12. The number of registration offices open at the close of the year 1897-98 was 69. The total number of documents registered (37,190) exceeded the previous year's total (36,507) by 683, and was the highest on record. The increase was found in all kinds of optional registration and in all districts, while there was a decrease in every class of compulsory registration, except mortgage deeds. The aggregate value of property affected fell from Rs. 1,08,44,055 to Rs. 1,07,21,409. Of the number of instruments registered nearly 95 per cent. related to immoveable property, the aggregate value involved being Rs. 1,04,86,934. The gross receipts of the department amounted to Rs. 90,909 and the expenditure to Rs. 52,542, leaving a net surplus of Rs. 38,367. The system of taking thumb impressions was introduced in all the registration offices in the province during the year.

Municipalities.

13. There was no change during the year under report in the number of municipalities, viz., 12. Of the 177 members forming the strength of the Municipal Committees on the 31st March 1898, 58 were officials, 119 were non-officials, 29 being Europeans and 148 Natives. Of the persons entitled to vote, only 23·1 per cent. took part in the elections. The total income of these bodies was Rs. 2,75,032 and their expenditure Rs. 2,89,554.

Local Boards.

14. There were, as before, 6 district boards and 21 taluk boards in the province. The Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district still continues to be exempt from the operation of the Berar Rural Boards Law. There were 126 elected and 32 nominated members on the district boards, and 244 elected and 133 nominated members on the taluk boards. Of the 26,341 persons entitled to vote only 6·9 per cent. exercised the right of voting as compared with 9·3 in the preceding year. The total income of the Boards was Rs. 7,14,030 against Rs. 6,55,655 in the preceding year, and the total expenditure Rs. 6,66,006 against Rs. 6,35,024. The increase under income was mainly due to the rise in the receipts from "Provincial Rates," and that under expenditure to the outlay under "Famine Relief." Of the expenditure incurred by the Boards during the year, Rs. 1,91,131 were spent on Education, Rs. 1,88,257 on Civil Public Works, Rs. 1,20,516 on Famine Relief, Rs. 35,384 on Superannuation Allowances and Pensions, and the rest on Post Office, Medical Institutions, and other objects.

Military.

15. There is only one place in the province, viz., Ellichpur, at which a military force is stationed. During 1897-98 the garrison consisted of one battery of Native Artillery and one Native Infantry regiment of the Hyderabad Contingent. The total authorized number of natives of all ranks in the battery was 130 and that in the infantry 834.

Agriculture.

16. Of the total area of the province, including the Melghat (viz., 11,353,971 acres), 72·4 per cent. was culturable assessed land available for occupation, of which 96·6 per cent. was occupied and 3·4 per cent. unoccupied. Of the total culturable land available for occupation, excluding the Melghat, 3·2 per cent. remained unoccupied, while 96·8 per cent. was occupied. Taking into account only the khalsa villages of the province, except the Melghat, the proportion of occupied and unoccupied areas stood as 98 to 2. The total culturable assessed land in occupation in the whole of the province was 7,928,963 acres, of which the area cropped during the year amounted to 83·9 per cent. The area kept under grass was 8·6 per cent. and the area left fallow 5·7 per cent. The patches of unculturable land in cultivated fields was 1·8 per cent. of the area occupied. Of the total area under crops of all kinds (not including 18,078 acres of land which were cropped for the second time), 84·7 per cent. was under kharif, 14·8 per cent. under rabi, and ·5 per cent. under garden cultivation. The principal crops grown were, as usual, jowari, cotton, wheat, tur, and gram, and they occupied respectively 43·3, 32·3, 5·9, 3·5, and 3·2 per cent. of the cropped area. The area under irrigation rose from 63,343 acres to 82,324 acres.

Rainfall.

17. The average rainfall during the year amounted to 31 inches and 15 cents, or 2 inches and 17 cents more than the average of the preceding year, and 7 inches and 28 cents less than the average of the last quinquennium. The fall in October and November 1897 was far below the average, and the result was that, though the kharif crops were in excellent condition everywhere, there was not sufficient moisture in the soil for the wheat crop to flourish, and the pulse crops also suffered. The short rainfall, though it was distributed in a way that suited the early crops, seriously affected the water supply of the province, following as it did two years of deficient moisture.

Agricultural stock and horse-breeding and mule-breeding operations.

18. There was a large decrease in the agricultural stock of the province owing to the effects of the famine. The number of cows and bullocks fell by 163,432 and the number of buffaloes by 26,742. No operations either in horse or mule breeding were carried on during the year, the former having been finally abandoned in Berar, and the latter never having been attempted owing to the prejudices of the people.

Loans to cultivators.

19. The amount advanced to agriculturists was Rs. 76,028, of which Rs. 63,201 were loans under the Land Improvement Loans Act and Rs. 12,827 under the Agriculturists Loans Act.

Cattle disease and veterinary.

20. There was a considerable increase in all forms of cattle disease except anthrax, but the deaths recorded from actual disease were not much in excess of the previous year's figures. The very high mortality amongst cattle during the year was mainly due to the scarcity of fodder in the first half of the year. The total number of attacks rose from 17,022 to 20,902, of which 4,280 were cases of rinderpest, 26 of anthrax, 5,290 of foot-and-mouth disease, 1,559 of pleuro-pneumonia, 201 of charbon symptoms, and 9,546 of other diseases.

Prices of produce and wages of labour.

21. Compared with 1896-97, the price of jowari fell considerably; that of gram, however, declined but slightly. The prices of wheat and rice remained nearly the same as in the previous year. The average wage rate of skilled and unskilled labour also remained nearly the same as in the previous year. There were some slight fluctuations in other rates of hire, such as that for a cart and a pair of bullocks.

Arboriculture.

22. The number of nurseries maintained at the end of the year was 102, and the mileage of new avenues planted was 382. The gross expenditure incurred on account of arboricultural operations during the year amounted to Rs. 33,318 and the receipts to Rs. 3,251.

Forests.

23. State-forests in Berar are divided into three classes, class A being primarily reserved for the production of timber and fuel, class B for fodder grass, and class C for pasture. At the end of the forest year ending on the 30th June 1898 the area under class A was 1,552 square miles, under class B 92 square miles, and under class C 2,531 square miles against 1519, 92, and 2,568 respectively in the preceding year. Thus the total area of forest lands was 4,175 square miles, or 23·6 per cent. of the total area of the province, against 4,179 at the end of the preceding year, the decrease of 4 square miles being due to changes in the area or classification of these lands. The length of previously existing boundaries of State-forests was 1,261 miles, and the length of the boundaries artificially demarcated during the year was 12½ miles, the total expenditure incurred on demarcation being Rs. 1,024 against Rs. 1,793 in the preceding year. The success achieved by the Forest Department in protecting the areas under their control from injury to fire was remarkable. The area the protection of which was attempted was 1,438 square miles against 1,423 square miles in the preceding year, and the area burnt was only 10 square miles as compared with 31 square miles in 1896-97. The approximate cost of protection per square mile rose from Rs. 9·1 to Rs. 9·8. The working plan of the babul bans in the Akola district received the sanction of the Resident. This completed the preparation of the permanent working plans (i.e., plans for the felling and planting of State-forest or portions thereof in rotation over a series of years). The area for which short-term or provisional plans of operations were completed was 135 square miles, and the area for which such plans were in hand was 819 square miles, leaving 305 square miles still to be dealt with. During the year 2,605 square miles of the forest area were thrown open for purposes of grazing without any restriction, and all the bonâ fide residents of the Melghat were allowed to graze their cattle free on account of the severity of the distress that prevailed in that tract. The progress of natural reproduction was satisfactory, and planting operations were conducted in all the forest divisions of the province at a cost of Rs. 1,234 against Rs. 1,565 in 1896-97. Climber cutting operations were carried on in the Ellichpur Forest Division, and in the same division badly grown teak was also cut down over an area of 12,418 acres at a cost of Rs. 202. Lantana scandens was practically got rid of in the Melghat. Its destruction was also undertaken in the Amraoti and Buldana divisions. The total expenditure incurred on forest works was Rs. 21,786—Rs. 14,638 on roads, Rs. 6,353 on buildings, and Rs. 795 on wells—against Rs. 20,401 in 1896-97. The produce of the year under report as compared with that of the previous year showed a serious decrease in the outturn of timber, bamboos, and grass, and the total receipts of the Forest Department (excluding the estimated value of free grants, which was Rs. 2,57,001) fell in consequence from Rs. 4,96,717 in 1896-97 to Rs. 4,08,803 in 1897-98. The expenditure of the department was Rs. 2,34,944 against Rs. 2,54,696 in the preceding year.

Manufactures.

24. The manufactures of the province were chiefly confined to twist and yarn, coarse cotton cloth, and oil. There were three oil mills—two at Amraoti and one at Shegaon—besides the cotton weaving mill at Badnera; but cotton presses and ginning factories worked by steam power were, as heretofore, by far the most important industries in the province. There were altogether 80 ginning factories and 81 cotton presses against 76 and 32 respectively in the previous year under the management of private firms and joint stock companies. The mill at Badnera produced 5,796 bales of 400 lbs. each of twist and yarn and 2,442 bales of cloth against 3,892 and 2,339 bales in 1896-97. The two oil mills at Amraoti produced 236,150 gallons of oil and 2,181 tons of oil cakes against 194,211 gallons of oil and 1,632 tons of oil cakes in the preceding year. The outturn of the Shegaon mill was not reported. The number of factories at work which came under the operation of the Indian Factories Act rose from 74 in 1896 to 79 in 1897. The total number of hands employed in them rose from 6,925 to 7,547. As was reported last year, there was only one cotton mill in the province, called the Berar Manufacturing Company's Mill at Badnera, which came under the operation of the Cotton Duties Act, II of 1896. Cotton yarn to the amount of 2,298,767 lbs. was produced in the mill, and the duty realized under the Act was Rs. 18,753.

Rail-borne trade.

25. The trade of the province generally during 1897-98 was normal in volume, showing an improvement on the depressed state of affairs in 1896-97. The total traffic of the year amounted to 3,626,000 maunds of imports valued at Rs. 2,34,60,000, and 3,128,000 maunds of exports valued at Rs. 3,55,26,000. Compared with 1896-97 the import trade rose by 28·8 per cent. and the export trade fell by 11·2 per cent. The falling off in the export trade was the natural result of a poor harvest in 1896-97 and the subsequent retention of grain within the province to replenish exhausted stocks. The bulk of the trade—both imports and exports—was, as usual, with Bombay and the Central Provinces. The principal articles of import were grain and pulse, coal and coke, salt, sugar, provisions, oils, metals, and spices, while those of export were raw cotton, grain and pulses, oilseeds, hides and skins, and cotton manufactures.

Road-borne trade.

26. The registration staff employed in 1896-97 in registering the external trade on the principal railway feeder roads of the western half of the province was moved during the year to the roads on the eastern half. The total imports were 1,493,564 maunds valued at Rs. 1,86,91,753, and the exports 928,296 maunds valued at Rs. 87,65,074. The chief articles both of import and export were raw cotton, manufactured cotton, grain and pulses, hides and skins, oils, oilseeds, provisions, salt, spices, and sugar. The cost of registration amounted to Rs. 5,201.

Public Works.

27. The total expenditure from all sources on public works during the year 1897-98 amounted to Rs. 14,32,518, and was distributed thus: Imperial Civil Works, Rs. 13,916; Provincial Services, Rs. 9,48,365; Local Funds, Rs. 3,07,405; Railways, Rs. 1,05,927; and, finally, Contribution Works, Rs. 56,905. Outlay on famine relief works formed an important item of expenditure. Rs. 2,32,228 were spent on them from Provincial Revenues and Rs. 1,20,516 from Local Funds. Besides the expenditure under this head Rs. 25,402 were spent from Provincial Revenues on Military Buildings, Rs. 54,913 on Civil Buildings, Rs. 3,98,863 on Communications, and the balance, viz., Rs. 2,36,959, on Miscellaneous Public Improvements and Establishment, &c. Details of the works executed will be found in Part II, paragraphs 136 to 144, on pages 47 to 50 of this report.

Railways.

28. The expenditure on the two railway lines in the province, viz., the Amraoti and the Khamgaon State Railways, was, as already stated, Rs. 1,05,927, and their net earnings were respectively 6·60 and 2·66 per cent. on the capital outlay.

Revenue and Finance.

29. The gross revenue of the province during the year 1897-98 amounted to Rs. 1,19,58,600 and the total disbursements to Rs. 1,20,29,358. Omitting the receipts and disbursements of the Incorporated and Excluded Local Funds and Municipalities, the transactions of the year showed a deficit of Rs. 1,23,624, while the previous year closed with a surplus of Rs. 5,62,210. No balance was available for payment to His Highness the Nizam. The balance at credit of the British Administration of Berar on the 31st March 1898 was Rs. 39,16,043. Of the gross income Rs. 99,23,458 were derived from Provincial revenues, Rs. 9,64,676 from Incorporated Local Funds, and Rs. 10,70,466 from Excluded Local and Municipal Funds. Of the total expenditure Rs. 1,00,47,081 were debited against Provincial revenues, Rs. 9,24,451 against Incorporated Local Funds, and Rs. 10,57,826 against Excluded Local and Municipal Funds.

The present Provincial contract which has been in force since the year 1892-93 opened with a balance of Rs. 12,12,306, including a sum of Rs. lakhs allowed for extraordinary emergencies by the Government of India. During the six years for which the arrangement has been in force, the portion of the revenues assigned to the Resident amounted to Rs. 3,11,86,679 (including an opening balance of Rs. 12,12,306) and the expenditure chargeable to the contract to Rs. 3,12,94,066, resulting in a deficit of Rs. 1,07,387, to which has to be added the Famine expenditure of the year 1897-98 amounting to Rs. 3,66,816. This has been treated as expenditure outside the contract with the approval of the Government of India.

Compared with the year 1896-97, the receipts under a number of the various heads showed an improvement, the important exceptions being under Stamps, Excise, Forest, Law and Justice—Courts of Law, Education, and Miscellaneous. The causes of the variations under revenue and receipts are explained in the body of the report, and as regards expenditure the principal increases have been separately dealt with. The outlay under the following heads showed a marked decrease; Land Revenue, Police, Education, Superannuation Allowances and Pensions, Miscellaneous, and Civil Works. The differences under the several heads of military expenditure have been separately detailed and explained. The decrease under Land Revenue was under the head "allowances to district and village officials," who presented themselves irregularly for payment. The decrease under Police was under "village police, local," and was due to the fact that the accounts for 1896-97 included the pay of the Jaglia force for January and February 1897, which would ordinarily have been paid in 1897-98, but which were paid monthly instead of quarterly in 1896-97 owing to the prevalence of famine. The decrease under Education was chiefly under grants-in-aid and primary schools, and was due to the transfer of certain schools to municipalities. The chief decrease under Superannuation was under the head "Refunds," and was due to the inclusion in 1896-97 of an unusual debit of Rs. 9,398 under this head on account of the contribution for pension of Mr. C. E. Biddulph refunded to the Secunderabad Local (Abkari) Fund in 1896-97. The decrease under "Miscellaneous" was distributed under several heads, of which rewards for passing examination, discount on bills, and loss by exchange may be specified. Special rewards for examinations were paid in 1896-97. The decrease under Civil Works was due to fewer new works being undertaken and to less expenditure being incurred on tools and plant than in the previous year.

Vital statistics.

30. The system of registration remained unchanged during the year, and there was an improvement in the work of supervision. The total number of births registered in 1897 was 113,364 as compared with 109,013 in 1896. The birth-rate of the year per mille was 39·7, or 1·4 in excess of the previous year, and 2·1 more than the average rate for the preceding term of five years. The increase in the birth-rate was confined to the first six months of the year, before the effects of famine had had time to diminish the fecundity of the population, and towards the end of the year—notably in December—when the pressure of the calamity began to be felt, the birth-rate fell considerably below the decennial mean. The proportion of male births to female births was 106·7 to 100. The total number of deaths registered among the native population was 150,222 as compared with 124,787 in 1896 and 112,272 the mean of the previous five years. The death-rate in proportion to population was 52·6 per 1,000, a rate which has only been exceeded once since the commencement of registration in 1868, and that was in the famine year of 1878, in which the appalling rate of 81·5 was returned. The main cause of the high mortality of the year was the famine, viz., local scarcity and high prices, combined with immigration of starving people from the Central Provinces. As was natural in a year of distress, the principal and the most fatal diseases were fevers and bowel-complaints, both of which accounted for 91,160 deaths.

Medical relief.

31. A new dispensary having been opened during 1897, the total number of civil hospitals and charitable dispensaries in the province rose from 46 to 47. The total number of patients treated at these institutions were 6,789 in-door and 318,977 out-door against 4,500 and 340,134 respectively in the previous year. Of the total in-door patients treated 13·6 per cent. were cured, the corresponding percentage for the preceding year being 7·8. The aggregate cost of all these institutions was Rs. 81,585. The work of the Lady Dufferin's Hospital for women and children at Amraoti showed general improvement.

Sanitation.

32. The municipal expenditure of the province on works of sanitary improvement was Rs. 1,69,159 against Rs. 1,70,515 in 1896. Rs. 66,853 of the total were spent on domestic cleansing, Rs. 57,904 on water-supply, Rs. 10,592 on drainage, and Rs. 33,810 on other sanitary works. The total expenditure by District Boards on sanitary works was Rs. 1,05,475 against Rs. 82,695 in 1896. During the year the work regarding the maintenance of permanent sanitary records was put in hand, and the village "Sanitary Inspection Book" giving the sanitary history of the place was introduced in five selected villages in each of the six districts of the province.

33. The total number of primary operations performed during the year 1897-98 was 95,048, of which 96·4 per cent. were successful, the corresponding figures for 1896-97 being 98,594 and 96·8 per cent. respectively. Re-vaccinated cases numbered 30,241, of which 30 per cent. were successful, the figures for the previous year being 21,717 and 20·5 per cent. The decrease in primary operations was due to the high mortality amongst children in a year of scarcity and distress. Vaccination has advanced gradually in the province, and with this advance the death-rate from small-pox has shown a steady decline. The cost of the department was Rs. 17,549, or Rs. 24 less than in 1896-97. The average cost of each successful vaccination was the same as in the previous year, viz., 2 annas and 9 pies.

Education.

34. The famine which raged from April to September 1897 had a disastrous effect on the condition of the people, especially of the agricultural and labouring classes, and retarded the general progress of education. The total number of schools fell from 1,361 in 1896-97 to 1,289, and the number of pupils from 54,343 to 52,165. The percentage of male scholars to male population of school-going age was 21·68 against 22·62 in 1896-97, and that of female scholars to female population was 1·74 against 1·76. Out of the 37 candidates sent up from the two Government high schools, 24 passed the matriculation examination. The number of public middle schools remained stationary, viz., 24, but during the year under report a new private middle school was opened at Darwha in the Wun district. The number of primary schools under public management increased by 11, but the number of pupils in them fell by 860. During the year some of the district board primary schools were transferred to municipal management. Although the number of indigenous schools and their strength fell off, the number of pupils examined rose. With a view to improve the stability and efficiency of these institutions, the grant-in-aid rules applying to them were revised on the lines of the Bombay rules, and brought into force with effect from the 1st November 1897. Though the number of Muhammadan boys and girls attending schools decreased slightly, the number of pupils passed at the annual examinations showed an improvement over the figures of the previous year. The total number of aboriginal and low-caste pupils under instruction also showed a falling off. In spite of the adverse circumstances of the year, female education made some progress. Hitherto the Catholic school at Amraoti was the only school in the province for Europeans and Eurasians, but during the year another school was started by the Protestant community for these classes. School fees amounted to Rs. 55,443 and popular contributions to Rs. 9,723 against Rs. 57,950 and Rs. 9,834 respectively in the previous year. The total expenditure of the department fell from Rs. 4,24,577 to Rs. 4,09,566.

Literature and the Press.

35. The number of books registered under Act XXV of 1867 during the year under report was 15 against 11 in the preceding year. Ten of these were issues of the Berar School Paper. At the end of the year there were 34 libraries or reading rooms as compared with 37 in the preceding year. The number of printing presses remained the same as in the last two preceding years.

CHAPTER II.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND.

SECTION I.

SURVEY AND SETTLEMENT.

Extent and nature of work.

10. The extent and nature of the revision survey and settlement operations now progressing in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts have already been described in paragraphs 10 and 11 of the Administration Report of the province for 1893-94.

Field parties and their employment.

11. The period under report is the revenue year from the 1st August 1897 to the 31st July 1898. The Melghat party having finished the revision of the yoke rates and area units in that taluk was disbanded in October 1897.

Three parties, A, B and C, working under native surveyors were employed on revision survey operations, and they completed the taluks of Amraoti, Morsi, and Ellichpur during the field season from November 1897 to June 1898. As the men were at work in a very open country, the test of the old measurements by complete resurvey of entire villages was dispensed with, the revision operations in past years having proved the reliability of the old work. The classification of the soil in these taluks was personally examined by the Director of Land Records and Agriculture.

Outturn of survey work and cost.

12. The following statement shows the work done and the expenditure incurred during the years 1896-97 and 1897-98 :—

Year.	District and taluk.	No. of Government villages.		Measurement.	Confirmed.	Classification.	Boundary mark inspection.	Total expenditure.	Cost per acre.	Cost per square mile.

* Jagir village. † Resumed jagir village. ‡ Includes 16 villages of Kamargaon Estate.

The strength of the parties remained practically the same as in the previous year, but the work was carried on in a more intricate country, and has consequently been more costly. The outturn of work in the number of villages and survey numbers has been higher than in 1896-97, but the holdings being smaller, the total area completed has decreased.

Settlement.

13. The proposals for the revision settlement of the Akot taluk of the Akola district were sanctioned in August 1897, and the rates were announced in February 1898; these rates are payable in full for the revenue year 1898-99.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND.

Sanction for the revised settlement of the Daryapur taluk of the Ellichpur district was accorded in February 1898, and the rates were proclaimed in April; they commence to be payable in 69 villages in the revenue year 1898-99.

The revision settlement report of the Mehkar taluk of the Buldana district was received during the year, and submitted for the sanction of the Government of India.

SECTION II.

POLICE.

Strength and cost.

21. During 1897 the police force in the Akola district was augmented by 1 head constable and 4 constables in order to provide a guard for the central distillery. But this addition did not affect the police returns of the year, as a guard of equal strength supplied to the Branch Bank of Bombay at Akola was omitted from those returns as being of the nature of police furnished to private bodies. The Baru and Hatru outpost in the Melghat taluk were abolished, and the force consisting of 2 head constables and 8 constables was distributed elsewhere. The strength of the Botha outpost in the Buldana district was reduced by 1 head constable and 1 constable, the men having been transferred to the Malkapur station, which required strengthening. Thus the sanctioned strength of the police force of the province at the end of the year under report remained the same as in 1896, viz., 9 gazetted officers (including the Inspector-General of Police), 563 subordinates, and 2,326 men. The aggregate cost of the force during the year was Rs. 5,56,007.

Equipment.

22. Of the total number of subordinate officers and constables, 1,019 were provided with fire arms, 1,791 with swords only, and 31 with batons only.

Health.

23. The number of deaths in the force fell from 69 in 1896 to 58 in the year under report, and the percentages of admissions into hospital to the total strength of the force ranged from 61·8 in the Ellichpur district to 23·8 in the Wun district.

General state of crime.

25. The year 1897 was remarkable for an enormous increase in cognizable crime caused by the famine. The increase began in the last quarter of 1896, and continued for the first three quarters of the year under report, the last quarter exhibiting a marked decrease corresponding to the improvement in the agricultural conditions of the province. Excluding nuisance cases, the aggregate number of cognizable cases in the year 1897 was nearly double the total of any of the preceding four years. The following table compares the statistics of the year under report with those of the preceding four years :—

Nature of offences.	Number.
	1893.	1894.	1895.	1896.	1897.

Serious crime.

26. The following table compares the statistics relating to some of the more important offences committed during 1897 with those for 1896:—

Famine was again the cause of this enormous rise in the more serious forms of crime. The number of murders increased from 39 to 49, out of which 21 were connected with robbery, the significant feature being that in several instances the property for the sake of which the crime was committed was of a trifling value. The increase of dakaiti was very marked. The number of house-breakings also rose from 1,185 in 1896 to 3,147 in the year under report, and out of this large total 1,180 occurred in the Amraoti district, which has for many years been notorious for this class of crime. It is noticeable that in a very large proportion of these cases also the value of the property taken was small.

Proposals for imposing a punitive police force on a number of Banjara tandas in the Basim district were submitted by the Deputy Commissioner of that district, and were sanctioned and given effect to after the close of the year under report. Ali bin Saleh on release from the Hurda Jail came to Amraoti, but the vigilance displayed by the police of that place drove him into His Highness the Nizam's territory. A large gang of Mang Garories passed through the Wun district, but were kept under close surveillance by the police. With the exception of a gang of Pardis and a mixed gang of criminals from Sowna in His Highness the Nizam's territory, of whom five were convicted, no parties of wandering or professional criminals visited the Basim district.

Working of the Police in cognizable cases.

27. The working of the police during a year in which the strain upon their services was exceptionally severe was satisfactory. The following abstract gives a summary of their work and the results of their action in regard to cognizable offences during 1896 and 1897:—

	1896.	1897.
1. Number of cases which occurred (inclusive of old cases investigated during the year and cases pending from previous year) ...	9,929	15,192
2. Percentage of all cases (whether investigated by police or not) ending in conviction to cases occurring	55·8	51·2
3. Percentage borne by cases investigated by police to cases occurring	78·9	82·0
4. Percentage borne by cases investigated by police and in which conviction was obtained to total cases investigated by police	65·8	60·0
Persons.
1. Number of persons arrested and summoned.	10,777	15,918
2. Percentage borne by persons convicted to total arrested	61·4	69·8
3. Percentage borne by persons arrested by police and convicted to total persons arrested by police	80·8	84·5
Property.
1. Value of property stolen ... Rs.	1,92,497	2,83,743
2. Percentage of property recovered „	28·1	31·3

Non-cognizable crime.

28. The number of non-cognizable offences dealt with during the year under report was 7,211 against 7,696 in 1896. In only 310 of these cases were the police employed to enquire. The total number of persons who appeared before the courts was 12,663 against 15,298 in 1896, and of these 2,366 were convicted. The percentage of convictions to the number of persons who appeared before the courts was the same as in 1896, viz., 18·7.

Railway Police.

29. In the new forms of statements prescribed by the Government of India, which were adopted during the year under report, the statement showing offences committed on the railway has not been retained, and no details can therefore be given of the working of the Railway Police in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for the year. From the report of the Amraoti district it appears that three professional pick-pockets were arrested, of whom one was convicted and one was required to furnish security under section 110 of the Criminal Procedure Code, the proceedings against the third being left pending at the close of the year under report.

Anthropometry.

30. The Police Report of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1897 contains the following remarks regarding anthropometry :—

During the year the measurement cards of 675 convicts were deposited in the anthropometrical office, where the total number of cards accumulated to the end of the year was 2,231; 35 cards were received for identification, but in the case of 2 only were previous cards traced.

The system is now to be superseded by that of identification by means of finger tip impressions, regarding which instructions have recently been issued The convicts now in jail will be dealt with at once, and subsequently action will be taken on the same lines as before; but finger tip impressions will be substituted for anthropometrical measurements, subject to the exception that for the present the use of the measurement cards will be continued for the purpose of identification.

SECTION III.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE.

Tribunals.

31. The effective strength of the magistracy at the close of 1897 as compared with the year 1896 was as follows :—

	1897.	1896.
District Magistrates	6	6
First class Magistrates	17	23
Second class Magistrates	16	17
Third class Magistrates	15	15
Honorary Magistrates sitting singly ...	11	12
Do sitting in benches ...	3	4
Total ...	68	77

The above figures show a decrease of seven in the strength of the paid Magistrates besides the District Magistrate, and a decrease of two in the strength of Honorary Magistrates. The decrease in the strength of the paid Magistracy is only apparent, and is due to a further separation of the criminal from the civil judicial work. Among Honorary Magistrates the actual decrease is due to the death of the Special Magistrate at Amraoti and the closing of the bench of Magistrates at Karinja.

Amount of crime.

32 The annexed table exhibits the number of offences reported and struck off the register of offences as well as the cases brought to trial before the Criminal Courts in each of the past two years:—

Year.	Offences reported.	Cases dismissed under section 203, Criminal Procedure Code.		Cases struck off as false.		Cases returned as true.		Cases brought to trial.
1	2	3		4		5		6
	No.	No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent.	No.	Per cent.
1896 ...	19,223	2,359	12·3	758	3·9	16,106	83·8	13,868	72·1
1897 ...	17,536	1,865	10 5	184	1·0	15,487	89·5	15 874	90·5

In registering the figures showing the amount of crime during the year 1897, the orders issued by the Government of India in their Home Department letter No. 170, dated the 8th February 1886, were followed, which explain that the words "offences reported" in the heading of column 2 of Judicial Statement II appended to the Criminal Justice Report should include only cases brought before the magistracy, and that no police cases should be entered except those in which an accused person was forwarded under custody or his appearance was secured by the police. For this reason the figures entered in columns 2 and 5 of the above statement for 1897 do not correspond with the figures entered in it for 1896. The figures entered in column 6 for the two years, however, still correspond, and from these it will be seen that the total number of offences brought to trial during the year 1897 was 15,874 as against 13,868 in 1896, being an increase of 2,006 or 14·4 per cent.

Classification of offences.

33. The following table compares the number of offences brought to trial in each class with the corresponding number of the preceding year:—

GRAND TOTAL ...	13,868	15,874	2,006	...

The total number of offences was larger in the year under review than it was even in 1896. The chief increase was in offences against property, which increased from 2,750 in 1896 to 5,172 in 1897, being an increase of 2,422 or 88·1 per cent. There was a decrease in offences affecting the human body, but an increase in other offences under the Penal Code and in offences under Special and Local Laws. Murders and culpable homicides increased to 17 over the previous year's figures, and robberies and dakaitis were more numerous by 228 than in 1896

Persons brought to trial.

34. Inclusive of 608 persons under trial at the end of 1896, there were 29,554 persons to be dealt with during the year. The cases of 29,137 of these or 98·5 per cent. were disposed of as shown below, and those of 417 persons were pending at the close of the year :—

The number of cases disposed of by Assistant Commissioners and Extra Assistant Commissioners also increased from 1,241 to 1,428 and from 966 to 2,033 respectively. SECTION IV.

JAILS.

46. The status of jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts continued to be the same as heretofore. The project for enlarging the Amraoti Jail so as to make it a central jail was definitely abandoned, the cost being beyond the means of the province. The alternative of extending the Amraoti and Akola jails with a view to provide additional accommodation is, however, under consideration. Status of jails.

47. The statistics of jail population in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during the year under report were altogether abnormal, and reflect the effects of the famine. The year commenced with a total population of 1,535, and ended with 1,826; the number of admissions during the year was 7,913 compared with 4,060 in 1,896 and with 3,601 in 1895; the daily average strength was 1793·27 as compared with 1330·29 and 1318·83 in 1896 and 1895. Comparative details for these two years are as given below :— Jail population.

Classification of convicts according to religion, age, education, and previous occupation.

48. Of the 3,288 convicts (3,078 males and 210 females) imprisoned during 1897, 2,743 were Hindus and Sikhs, 544 were Muhammadans, and 1 Christian (Eurasian). According to age, 47 were under 16 years of age, 2,601 were between 16 and 40 years, 618 between 40 and 60 years, and 22 above 60 years; as regards education, 97 were able to read and write and 88 to write only, while 3,103 were illiterate. Of the 210 female convicts classified according to previous occupation, 149 were married, 6 unmarried, 51 widows, and 4 prostitutes. The previous occupations of the 3,078 male convicts are shown below with the corresponding figures for 1895 and 1896 :—

As might be expected in a year of agricultural distress, the main increase in the jail population was under persons "engaged in agriculture or with animals."

Nature and length of sentence.

49. The following table gives figures for 1896 and 1897 in regard to the classification of convicts according to the nature and length of their sentences :—

		Not exceeding one month.	Above 1 month and not exceeding 3 months.	Above 3 months and not exceeding 6 months.	Above 6 months and not exceeding 1 year.	Above 1 year and not exceeding 2 years.	Above 2 years and not exceeding 5 years.	Above 5 years and not exceeding 10 years.	Exceeding 10 years.	Transportation beyond seas. For life.	Transportation beyond seas. For a term. 	1897.	30·8	18·8	20·3	12·1	7·5	7·4	3·1					100·0

It will be observed that the number of very short sentences rose from 529 in 1896 to 1,013 in the year under report. The highest proportion of such sentences was found in Ellichpur, in which district the Melghat tract suffered the most severely from famine. The deportation to the Andamans of prisoners sentenced to transportation was held in abeyance during the year as the Government of Madras represented that there was a risk of the plague being communicated to that presidency by the transfer of the prisoners through infected parts.

Previous convictions.

50. Of the total number of convicts (3,288) admitted into the jail during the year, 366 or 11·13 per cent. had been previously convicted against 10·4 per cent. in 1896. Of the old offenders imprisoned during the year, 216 had been convicted once, 86 twice, and 64 more than twice.

Jail offences and punishments.

51. The jail offences and punishments recorded during the year under report were in accordance with the revised classification prescribed by the Government of India; the total number of these offences was 837 against 770 in 1896. No offence was referred to a criminal court, but all were dealt with by Jail Superintendents, who inflicted minor punishments in 736 cases and major punishments in 101 cases. The proportion of all punishments to jail population was 52·1 per cent. against 61·1 in 1896.

Jubilee releases.

52. Under the orders of the Government of India, 301 male and 22 female convicts were released from the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts on the 22nd June 1897 as an act of grace and clemency in commemoration of the sixtieth year of the reign of Her Majesty the Queen, Empress of India.

Mark system.

53. No prisoners who had failed to gain remission of their sentences under the mark system were released during the year under report. The number of convicts set free under the operation of this system was 420 against 473 in 1896. The maximum remission gained by any one convict during the year under report was 347 days against 484 days in the preceding year.

Health.

54. Although the jails in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts were overcrowded during the year owing to an enormously large number of admissions, no epidemic disease broke out among the population, and the general health of the prisoners was on the whole better than in 1896. The figures relating to health for 1897 and the three preceding years are given below:—

		1894.	1895.	1896.	1897.
Daily average strength	...	1285·4	1318·8	1330·2	1793·27

Employment of convicts.

55. The average number of convicts under sentence of labour on working days was 1391·72. They were thus accounted for—

Sick	27·69
Convalescent and infirm	49·17
Not employed for other reasons	7·17
Prison officers	83·69
Prison servants	154·11

Jail repairs	12·39

Hired out to municipalities, private individuals, or departments other than Public Works Department	0·14

Jail manufactures.

56. The financial results of the working of the jail industries in the province are shown in the table below:—

	Hyderabad Assigned Districts.
	1895.			1896.			1897.
	Rs.	a.	p.	Rs.	a.	p.	Rs.	a.	p.

Average earnings per head sentenced to labour	11	9	0	9	8	0	16	2	0
Average earnings per head employed on jail manufacture	26	3	0	21	8	0	36	2	0

The amount of total cash earnings was unprecedently large, and the average earnings calculated with reference to those sentenced to labour and to those employed in jail manufactures were also larger than usual. The rise in the cash earnings was due to large profits shown in the lithographic work of the Amraoti Jail; and these profits, the Inspector-General of Jails remarks, "are to a large extent attributable to the debit in 1896 of much of the paper used in 1897."

Expenditure.

57. Compared with 1896, the gross expenditure during the year under report showed an increase of Rs. 46,331, and the net cost, after crediting earnings, of Rs. 32,647. The increase was principally due to the high prices of provisions which prevailed throughout the year. The gross and the net cost per head also rose by Rs. 10-2-0 and Rs. 4-13-0 respectively. Details for 1895, 1896, and 1897 are given below:—

Of the total institutions 19,965 or 83·8 per cent. were for money or moveable property as against 23,033 or 84·8 per cent. in the previous year, showing a decrease of 3,068 or 13·3 per cent. As for other suits, suits for immoveable property decreased by 20·6 per cent. and matrimonial suits by 59·7, while those to establish right of pre-emption increased by 6·7 per cent. and miscellaneous suits by 18·4 per cent.

Out of 1,206 suits for immoveable property 948 or 78·6 per cent. were suits relating to survey numbers. 69. During the year under report the appointment of Cantonment Magistrate at Aurangabad was abolished. He was replaced by an officer called the Judicial Superintendent, who now exercises civil jurisdiction in the Contingent stations of Aurangabad, Jalna, and Mominabad. The civil judicial work of the Hingoli station is done by the court at Basim. The figures for Aurangabad, Jalna, and Mominabad have been included in the figures of the Buldana district, while those for Hingoli have been included in the returns for the Basim district. Such information in regard to the judicial work arising in these stations as is available has been abstracted for convenience of reference in the following table :—

SECTION VI.

REGISTRATION.

Number of offices.

70. The number of registration offices in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts rose during 1897-98 owing to the addition of two new offices in the Basim district, viz., one at Jowalka and the other at Manora; and the status of one of the offices, viz., that at Dhamangaon in the Amraoti district, was changed, a salaried Sub-Registrar having been substituted for one remunerated by commission. The total number of offices open at the close of the year 1897-98 was 69.

Registration business.

71. The total number of documents registered during 1897-98 (37,190) exceeded the previous year's total (36,507) by 683, and was the highest on record.

The increase occurred in all kinds of optional registration and in all districts, while there was a decrease in every class of compulsory registration except mortgage deeds. The following statement compares the statistics for the years 1896-97 and 1897-98 :—

The aggregate value of property transferred by registered documents thus fell from Rs. 1,08,44,055 in 1896-97 to Rs. 1,07,21,409 in 1897-98. This result was due to the decrease in compulsory registration.

Documents impounded.

72. The number of documents impounded during the year was 128 against 96 in 1896-97; adding the 18 impounded documents pending at the end of 1896-97, the total number was 146. Of this 128 were disposed of by collectors, with the result that the action of registering officers was supported in 101 cases, and 18 cases remained pending at the end of the year under report.

Despatch of business.

73. Out of 37,190 documents presented for registration, 24,047 were registered on the same day they were presented, 1,564 on the day following presentation, and the remaining 1,579 within a week or more after presentation.

Financial results.

74. The receipts and expenditure of the department are exhibited in the following tables:—

The net surplus of the year amounted to Rs. 38,367, which brought the total accumulated surplus of the department to Rs. 5,59,486.

List of villages.

75. During 1897-98 the printing of the list of villages in Marathi was completed, and copies of it were distributed to all the Sub-Registrars in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts.

Thumb impressions.

76. The system of taking thumb impressions was introduced in all the registration offices in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during 1897-98, and the necessary instructions for working it were also issued.

SECTION VII.

MUNICIPALITIES.

77. The number of municipalities continued to be the same (viz., 12) during 1897-98 as in the two preceding years, and their committees were constituted as under:— Number of municipalities and their constitution.

Since the close of the year the municipalities of Yeotmal and the Ellichpur City have also been similarly exempted.

* Includes an additional member appointed as Secretary under section 35 (2) of the Berar Municipal Law.

Of the 177 members forming the strength of the Municipal Committees on the 31st March 1898, 58 were officials and 119 were non-officials, 29 members being Europeans and 148 Natives. Of the persons entitled to vote only 23·1 per cent. took part in the elections.

78. The following statement shows the income of the municipalities for the two years 1896-97 and 1897-98:— Income.

Name of Municipality.	Income from all sources, 1896-97.	Income from all sources, 1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.

Yeotmal	11,455	8,776	...	2,679
Net increase ...			24,121

The net increase of Rs. 24,121 shown in the above statement is not a real one, because under the head "income" the proceeds (Rs. 27,500) of Government securities sold by the Khamgaon Municipality to meet the cost of famine relief and the Government contribution on account of education (Rs. 9,320) were included. Excluding these items, the total municipal income of the province was Rs. 12,699 less than that of the year 1896-97. This decrease was mainly due to the recent orders exempting Government servants from the tax on trades and professions, the abolition of road tolls in Amraoti Town, Ellichpur Town, and Karinja, and the resumption by Government of land revenue within municipal limits.

The following items constitute the total income shown in column 3 of the above statement:—

	Rs.
(1) Municipal rates and taxes	94,150
(2) Realizations from pounds	6,577
(3) Revenue derived from municipal property and powers apart from taxation	89,258
(4) Grants and contributions for general and special purposes	41,418
(5) Miscellaneous	14,568
(6) Extraordinary debt, loans, &c.	29,061
Total ...	2,75,032

The incidence of taxation per head of population ranged from Rs. 1-6-9 in Buldana to 3 annas 1 pie in Karinja. The average incidence for the whole province showed a decrease from 9 annas 3 pies in 1896-97 to 8 annas 10 pies in 1897-98.

Expenditure

79. The aggregate expenditure of all municipalities during 1897-98 was Rs. 2,89,554, showing an increase of Rs. 48,114 over that of the previous year. The details are as given below:—

SECTION VIII.

LOCAL BOARDS.

Number of boards.

80. During 1897-98 there were as usual 6 district and 21 taluk boards in the province, and the Melghat taluk of the Ellichpur district still continues to be exempt from the operation of the Berar Local Board's Law.

Constitution of the boards and their attendance.

81. The several district boards consisted of 126 elected and 32 nominated members, and of these 34 were officials and 124 non-officials. The total number of members on the taluk boards was 377, of whom 244 were elected and the rest nominated, 33 being officials and 344 non-officials. The number of Europeans or Eurasians that were on the boards came to 8 in all, and all these were on the district boards only. The average attendance at both the district and taluk board meetings showed a falling off.

Elections.

82. For 67 taluk board elective vacancies there were 139 candidates. Of the 26,341 persons entitled to vote during the year, the number who actually took part in the elections was 1,826 or 6·9 per cent. against 9·3 per cent. in 1896-97.

Financial position.

83. The total income of the district boards during the year under report was Rs. 7,14,030 and the total expenditure Rs. 6,66,005. These figures as compared with the corresponding figures for 1896-97 show an increase under both the heads. The increase under income was mainly due to the rise in the receipts from provincial rates and that under expenditure to the outlay on famine relief.

The following statement shows the details of the income and expenditure for 1896-97 and 1897-98 :—

88. Of the entire area under occupation in Berar, amounting, as shown above, to 7,928,963 acres, the area cropped during the year amounted to 6,635,806 acres or 83·9 per cent., the area kept under grass was 682,878 or 8·6 per cent., and the area left fallow was 451,841 or 5·7 per cent. The patches of unculturable land in cultivated fields was equal in extent to 158,838 acres or 1·8 per cent. of the area occupied.

Of the total area under crops of all kinds (not including 18,078 acres of land which were cropped for the second time), the area under kharif amounted to 5,636,776 acres or 84·7 per cent., and the area under rabi to 931,224 acres or 14·8 per cent. The area under garden cultivation amounted to 35,884 or ·5 per cent.

90. The estimated outturn per acre for the year under report is compared below with that for the preceding year :— Estimated outturn of crops.

These figures compare favourably with those of 1895-96, but they cannot be implicity relied on.

91. The following table compares the agricultural stock of the province for the year under report with that of the preceding year :— Agricultural stock.

Year.	Cows and bullocks.	Buffaloes.	Sheep and goats.	Carts.	Ploughs.
1896-97	1,486,593	276,445	527,982	126,343	141,497
1897-98	1,323,161	249,703	500,966	129,779	136,041

The effect of the recent famine is noticeable in the table by a decrease of 163,432 in the number of cows and bullocks, and 26,742 in the number of buffaloes.

92. The total amount applied for by agriculturists as advances under the Land Improvement Loans Act amounted to Rs. 3,35,245. The sum allotted for such advances was Rs. 70,810 against Rs. 81,200 in the preceding year, but the amount of loans actually advanced was Rs. 63,201 against Rs. 60,762 in 1896-97. Loans to agriculturists.

Under the Agriculturists Loans Act the sum applied for was Rs. 33,463, but the amount allotted was Rs. 38,139 against Rs. 8,000 in 1896-97, and the amount actually disbursed Rs. 12,827 against Rs. 3,795 in the preceding year.

Of the total sum advanced under the two Acts Rs. 23,020 were for new wells, Rs. 9,825 for reclamation of land, Rs. 23,389 for improvement of wells and fields, Rs. 2,670 for removing stones, &c., Rs. 4,297 for damming up watercourses, and Rs. 12,827 for buying cattle, seed, &c.

93. The Wun cattle fair, the only one of the province, was not held this year on account of the danger of importing plague. Cattle fair.

94. There was a considerable increase in all forms of cattle disease except anthrax, though the deaths recorded from actual disease were not many Cattle disease.

in excess of those recorded in the previous year; but want of fodder in the first half of the year reduced the cattle to a pitiable condition, especially in the Wun district, and the village returns and the grazing fee statistics show that the mortality was very great. The total number of attacks rose from 17,022 to 20,902, of which 4,280 were cases of rinderpest, 26 of anthrax, 5,290 of foot-and-mouth disease, 1,559 of pleuro-pneumonia, 201 of charbon symptoms, and 9,546 of other diseases. The percentage of deaths was very nearly the same as that of the preceding year.

Horse-breeding and mule-breeding.

95. No operations either of horse-breeding or mule-breeding were carried on during the year under report, the former having been finally abandoned in Berar, and the latter never having been attempted owing to the prejudices of the people.

SECTION II.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Rainfall.

96. The average rainfall during the year 1897-98 amounted to 31 inches 15 cents, or 2 inches 17 cents more than the average of the preceding year.

Compared with the quinquennial average for the period ending 31st March 1897, the average for 1897-98 shows a decrease of 7 inches 28 cents.

The following is the record of the rainfall showing the average of the province according to its distribution by months:—

Month.	1897-98.		Quinquennial average.
	I.	c.	I.	c.
April and May	0	23	0	78
June	2	40	6	77
July	9	1	10	14
August	11	7	8	43
September	7	4	6	50
October	0	78	2	85
Total ...	31	15	38	43

The following is extracted from the Revenue Report of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1897-98:—

During the year under report there were only 78 cents of rain in October and 62 cents in November. This was far below the average, and the result is that, though the kharif crops were everywhere excellent, there was not enough moisture in the soil for wheat; and, generally speaking, that crop was very short in the straw and light in the ear; and in more than one district report mention is made of damage to the pulse crops.

The short rainfall, though it was distributed in a way that suited the early crops, is a serious matter, following as it did on two years of deficient moisture, as regards the water-supply of the province; and as the rains during the current year are so far much below the average, that the outlook is in this respect rather a dark one.

Prices of food-grains.

97. The following table shows the average quantity of food-grains sold per rupee during the last three years:—

Wages of labour.

98. The average wage rate of skilled labour fell from 10 annas 11 pies to 10 annas 6 pies in 1897-98, and that of unskilled labour was almost the same as that of the preceding year. The hire of a cart and pair of bullocks decreased from 14 annas 6 pies to 13 annas 7 pies in 1897-98. The hire of camels was 12 annas 6 pies against 12 annas 2 pies in the preceding year. The daily hire of donkeys per score fell from Rs. 3-3-11 to Rs. 3 in 1897-98, and that of a pair of bullocks was the same as that of the previous year.

SECTION IV.

FORESTS.

Staff.

101. From the beginning of the forest year 1897-98 (the forest year commences from 1st July and ends on 30th June) up to the 27th March 1898 the office of the Conservator of Forests, Hyderabad Assigned Districts, was held by Mr. C. Bagshawe. That officer having proceeded on furlough with effect from the 28th March 1898, Mr. W. P. Thomas, a Deputy Conservator of the Central Provinces, officiated for him for the rest of the year. The divisional charges—each of the six districts forms a forest division—were held either by Deputy or Extra Assistant Conservators.

Forest area.

102. The following statement shows the alterations in the forest area of the province :—

Class of forest.	Area on 1st July 1897.	On 30th June 1898.
		Area in square miles.	Percentage borne by the forest area in the preceding column to the total area of Berar, viz., 17,736 square miles.
	Sq. miles.
1. State-forests of Class A—Primarily reserved for the production of timber and fuel ...	1,519	1,552	8·7
2. State-forests of Class B—Primarily reserved for fodder grass	92	92	·5
3. State-forests of Class C—
(a) Division I.—Primarily reserved for pasture, but in which grazing can be regulated and is paid for	1,252	1,250	7·1
(b) Division II.—Primarily reserved for pasture, and in which during the current land settlement Government has conceded grazing free of any due	558	558	3·1
(c) Division III.—Forests in the Melghat reserved for pasture	758	723	4·1
Total ...	2,568	2,531	14·3
GRAND Total ...	4,179	4,175	23·6

During the year under report 57 square miles were added to the forest area and 61 square miles were excluded from it. The net result of these changes was a decrease of 4 square miles.

Boundaries.

103. The system of demarcation remained unaltered during the year under report, and the state of the boundaries of the State-forests at the end of the year was as under :—

	Miles.	F.B.M. No.	Length of close line with numbered pillars. Miles.	Field boundary marks. No.
(1) Length of previously existing boundaries—
(a) Repaired ...	957½	3,039
(b) Not repaired ..	303½	86,463
			1,261	89,502
(2) Length of boundaries artificially demarcated during the year			12½	·141
(3) Total of (1) and (2), i.e., total length of artificially marked boundaries at the close of the year			1,273½	89,643
(4) Length of boundaries not demarcated at the close of the year			74	...
(5) Length of natural boundaries not requiring artificial marks			180	...
(6) Total of (3), (4), and (5), i.e., the total length of boundaries at the close of the year..			1,527½	89,643

The total expenditure incurred in the demarcation of all classes of State-forests was Rs. 191 on new works and Rs. 833 on repairs against Rs. 841 and Rs. 952 respectively in 1896-97.

Breaches of Forest Law.

104. Cases of breaches of Forest Law numbered 1,028 against 949 in 1896-97. Of the 1,028 cases 43 remained undetected, 808 were compounded, and 177 were taken before Criminal Courts. The corresponding figures for the preceding year were 38, 754, and 157 respectively. Of the cases taken before Criminal Courts, 81·9 per cent. ended in conviction against 75·8 in 1896-97.

Fire protection.

105. The success achieved by the Department in protecting the areas under their control from injury to fire was remarkable. The area, the protection of which was attempted during the year under report, was 1,438 square miles against 1,423 square miles in the preceding year, and only 10 square miles were burnt as compared with 31 square miles in 1896-97. The approximate cost of protection per square mile rose from Rs. 9·1 to Rs. 9·8.

Working plans.

106. During the year under report the working plan of the babul bans in the Akola district, which completed the work of the permanent working plans in the province, received the sanction of the Resident. The area for which short term or provisional plans of operations were completed was 1,359 square miles, and the area for which such plans were in hand was 819 square miles, leaving 305 square miles still to be dealt with. The annual working plans for the different forest divisions were generally worked up to.

Grazing.

107. Of the 4,175 square miles of the forest area of the province, 1,184 square miles were closed to grazing, 386 square miles—282 miles for part of the year and 104 miles for the whole of the year—were open save to browsers, and the remaining area (i.e., 2,605 square miles) was open without restriction.

There was a very large decrease in the number of cattle paying grazing fees owing to high mortality amongst them on account of scarcity of water and fodder during the first six months of the year. In consequence of the severity of the distress that prevailed in the Melghat, all the bonâ fide residents of that tract were allowed to graze their cattle free. The total amount of grazing fees realized during the year, excluding sale of grass, was Rs. 1,77,335.

Forest growth.

108. The progress of natural reproduction, which was mainly confined to the Bairagarh and Gugumal reserves, was satisfactory, and the following extract from Mr. Williamson's report quoted in the Provincial Forest Report for 1897-98 gives an interesting account of it :—

"Excluding black soil patches (on which even tree growth very slowly, but still perceptibly, encroaches from the surrounding shelter) natural reproduction in the Bairagarh and other parts of Gugumal reserve is most satisfactory, while nothing could be more fortunate than the way in which the most valuable species, and especially teak, predominate in the young growth. Parts of the forest which originally ranked almost last in value owing to the extent to which they were cut up by temporary cultivation bid fair before long to rank among the most valuable, thanks to the natural teak pole forest which has established itself, on the old fields in the last 15 to 20 years.

"A noticeable feature throughout Bairagarh and Gugumal (more permanent in the latter, where reproduction generally is less advanced) is the excellent regeneration of haldu. The year was not a favourable one for growth owing to the very late commencement of the monsoon (teak in Chaorakund range not having burst their buds by July 20th), but more especially owing to the unusually severe plague of caterpillars owing probably to the two previous dry seasons and the prolonged break in the rains from early June to the middle of July. In the first week of August, when visiting certain relief works in Bairagarh, 90 per cent. at least of the teak, haldu, dhawra, sajar, &c., were found by the Forest Divisional Officer absolutely or almost entirely leafless. In September the trees were again to a considerable, though less, extent defoliated.

Artificial reproduction.

109. Petty cultural operations in all the forest divisions were carried out at a cost of Rs. 1,234 against Rs. 1,565 in 1896-97.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

Other operations for the improvement of forest growth.

110. Climber cutting was carried out in the Ellichpur Forest Division as laid down in the Bairagarh working plan over areas falling under improvement fellings. In the same division crooked and stunted teak trees were cut back over an area of 12,418 acres at a cost of Rs. 202.

The eradication of lantana scandens was carried out throughout the infected areas of the Melghat at a total cost of Rs. 1,993 over 47 square miles. Though the absolute extermination of this plant cannot be expected over the large mountainous tracts of the Melghat, the shrub was practically got rid of, and its re-growth can be checked at a very moderate cost. Its destruction was also undertaken in the Amraoti and Buldana divisions.

Experiments in lac culture were undertaken, but without much success.

Communications and buildings.

111. The total expenditure incurred on forest works during the year under report was Rs. 21,786 against Rs. 20,401 in 1896-97. The amount spent on roads was Rs. 14,638, on buildings Rs. 6,353, and on wells Rs. 795. Almost all the roads constructed by the Forest Department during the year were originally sanctioned as Famine Relief Works, but the famine operations having been closed, they were completed at the cost of the Forest Department funds.

Outturn of forest produce.

112. The produce of the year under report as compared with that of the previous year showed a serious decrease in the outturn of timber, bamboos, and grass, and the net revenue per square mile fell from Rs. 58 in 1896-97 to 41 in 1897-98. These results were due to the direct and indirect influence of the severe famine that affected every district in the province.

The following table shows the statistics relating to forest produce during 1896-97 and 1897-98, including the portion sold and the portion supplied gratis by the State under general concessions :—

		Free grants.		Sales.

The famine concessions granted during 1896-97 were continued during the first half of the year under report, after which the necessity for them ceased.

Financial results.

113. The financial results for the forest years 1896-97 and 1897-98 are summarised below :—

SECTION V.

MINES AND QUARRIES.

114. There is nothing to record under this head.

SECTION VI.

MANUFACTURES.

Manufactures of the province.

115. An account of the principal manufactures of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts is given in paragraph 122 of the Administration Report for 1895-96.

Mills, cotton presses, and ginning factories.

116. As in 1896-97, there were in the year under report three oil mills in the province—two at Amraoti and one at Shegaon—besides a cotton weaving mill at Badnera. The cotton presses and ginning factories worked by steam power are by far the most important industries in the province. There were under the management of private firms and joint stock companies altogether 80 ginning factories and 31 cotton presses in 1898 as against 76 and 32 respectively in the previous year.

The mill at Badnera produced 5,796 bales of 400 lbs. each of twist and yarn and 2,442 bales of cloth against 3,892 and 2,339 bales in the preceding year, showing an increase of 1,904 bales of twist and yarn and 103 bales of cloth. The number of persons employed in the mill during the year under report was 1,172 against 1,212 in the previous year.

The two oil mills at Amraoti produced 236,150 gallons of oil and 2,181 tons of oil cakes against 194,211 gallons of oil and 1,632 tons of oil cakes in 1896-97. The outturn of the Shegaon oil mill has not been reported.

Number of factories.

117. The number of factories at work in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts which came under the operation of the Indian Factories Act rose from 74 in 1896 to 79 in 1897. Of the total number 47 were cotton ginning factories, 31 were cotton presses, and the remaining one was a cotton mill.

Number of operatives.

118. The following abstract gives the daily number of operatives employed during 1896 and 1897 :—

Year.	Daily average number.
	Males.	Females.	Children.	Total.
1896	4,168	2,614	143	6,925

Inspections.

119. Inspections by medical officers numbered 55 during 1897 as compared with 53 in 1896. There was a considerable improvement in the visits paid by Magistrates, who inspected 66 factories during the year under report as against 40 in 1896. The Provincial Inspector inspected all the factories except three.

Sanitation.

120. The rules regarding water-supply, ventilation, and cleanliness continued to be observed everywhere, and, except in some outlying places, the arrangements made for providing latrine and urinal accommodation were satisfactory.

Accidents.

121. There was only one minor accident during the year under report. This was due to the carelessness of the workman himself.

Prosecutions.

122. There was one prosecution under section 15 (a) of the Indian Factories Act in the Akola district, and the offender was fined.

Cotton Duties Act.

123. As was reported last year, there was only one cotton mill in the province, called the Berar Manufacturing Company's Mill at Badnera, which came under the operation of the Cotton Duties Act II of 1896. The amount of duty realized during the year 1897-98 was Rs. 18,752-15-11, showing an increase of Rs. 4,703-1-4 over the revenue of the preceding year, and the total quantity of cotton yarn produced was 2,298,767 lbs., or 44,732 lbs. less than the outturn of the previous year. There was no difficulty in recovering the duty under the Act.

SECTION VII.

TRADE.

RAIL-BORNE TRADE.

System of registration.

124 The arrangements for the registration of rail-borne trade continued to be the same during the year under report as heretofore, and the annual returns were as usual compiled by the Examiner of Guaranteed Railway Accounts, Bombay, and furnished by him.

Total traffic.

125. The following table shows the total traffic of the year 1897-98 as compared with that of the previous year and with the average of the preceding five years :—

(Figures in thousands of maunds and rupees.)

Description of trade.	Quantity in maunds.			Value in rupees.

The volume of trade during 1897-98 showed an increase of 6·58 per cent. over that of the previous year, and almost exactly equalled that of the quinquennial period. The value was 2·9 per cent. higher than in 1896-97, and almost one per cent. above the average of the five years. The import trade was 46·3 per cent., and the export trade 53·7 per cent. of the whole trade of the province. The increase in the import trade of the year under report was 28·8 per cent. above that of the previous year and 10·6 per cent. above the quinquennial average, while the export trade showed a decrease of 11·2 per cent. and 10·03 per cent. respectively as compared with the figures for the same periods. The value of the imports rose by 34·5 per cent. and that of the exports fell by 10·8 per cent. as compared with the figures of the previous year.

The falling off in the exports was the natural result of a poor harvest in 1896-97 and the subsequent retention of grain within the province to replenish exhausted stocks.

External trade.

126. The following table shows the total import and export trade of Berar with the adjoining provinces during 1897-98 as compared with the total trade of the previous year and the average of the five preceding years :—

The chief trade of Berar is always with the immediately adjoining provinces of Bombay and the Central Provinces. During the year under report the imports from Bombay amounted to 42 per cent. and those from the Central Provinces to 38·4 per cent., the two together representing 80·4 per cent. of the whole import trade of the province. The imports from Bengal, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and the Punjab all rose considerably during the year owing to the scarcity of food-grains in the province; these provinces supplied Berar with some 200,000 maunds of wheat in excess of the usual requirements. Besides this, an extra quantity of 40,000 maunds of rice was also received from Calcutta.

Bombay, as usual, absorbed a very large proportion of the exports of the province, the amount being 79·5 per cent., or four-fifths of the whole. The export trade with the Central Provinces dropped by one-half, the percentage of the whole trade being 7·3 against 14·23 last year; this was entirely due to a smaller trade in jowari, the exports in that grain having fallen by 281,000 maunds. The same reason accounts for the diminution of the exports to the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, the amount of jowari sent there having been 45,000 maunds less than in 1896-97.

Imports.

127. The following statement exhibits the imports of the province :—

The principal variations are explained below :—

Cotton, manufactured.—The increase of imports under this head during the year under report was due to the return of prosperity to the province.

Grain and pulse.—There was an increase of 554,000 maunds in the import of grain, and the figures of the year under report showed 405,000 maunds above the normal. It is scarcely necessary to say that this was the result of the famine and failure of crops in 1896-97. The increase occurred under the following grains :—Wheat 266,000, rice 208,000, jowari 4,000, gram and pulse 51,000, and miscellaneous grains 25,000.

Provisions.—The increase under this head, amounting in all to 86,000 maunds, was steady throughout the four quarters of the year under report. It is difficult to specify the articles most largely consumed, as the increase occurred chiefly among the articles shown under the head "Others," or articles not separately enumerated.

Sugar.—There was a notable increase of 88,000 maunds in the import of this commodity. This was due to its large consumption at the many marriages celebrated at the commencement of 1898.

Exports.

128. The table below shows the exports of the province :—

The important fluctuations in the figures above are explained thus :—

Cotton, raw.—There was a decrease of 142,000 maunds in the export of cotton. The cotton crop of 1896-97 was a poor one, and there was a large falling off in export during the first three-quarters of the year under report. But when the exceptionally good crop of 1897-98 came into the market, the figures rapidly recovered until they exceeded the normal export by 86,000 maunds. The Berar crop of the year under report was described in the Bombay papers as one of the best on record. In a report on the Indian Cotton Crop of 1897-98 dealing with receipts in Bombay up to the 30th June 1898 it is stated that the total amount received into Bombay from Berar reached the figure of 425,000 bales of 392 pounds against an average of 326,000 bales. These figures were only equalled twice previously, in 1889-90 and 1890-91, when the receipts were 425,000 and 428,000 respectively. But unfortunately the enormous crop in America had a depressing effect on prices, and the native dealers in Bombay had gradually to reduce their rates. The exports to Europe fell off largely, and an increase of the trade with Japan was the only bright point.

Grain and pulse.—With famine in the province the exports of grain were naturally curtailed, and decreased by 398,000 maunds. The falling off was in the following grains :—Wheat 78,000, jowari 290,000, and gram and pulse 28,000.

Hides and skins.—The export was double the usual figure, this fact being attributable doubtless to the number of cattle that died during the hot weather of 1897, when both fodder and water were scarce.

Oilseeds.—The export trade in oilseeds was 106,000 maunds below that of 1896-97, and no less than 593,000 maunds less than the normal trade. The decrease was in linseed, and amounted to 157,000 maunds. There was, however, an improvement of 57,000 maunds under sesamum to partly counterbalance it. The linseed crop of 1896-97 was almost a total failure, and that of the year under report was below the average. The exports during the first two quarters of the year were extremely low, and the crop that afterwards came to market was not sufficiently abundant to bring the total figures even to the level of 1896-97.

General remarks.

129. Generally the trade of the province during the year 1897-98 was of normal quantity, and showed an improvement on the depressed state of affairs in 1896-97 :—

Road-borne Trade.

System of registration.

130. From paragraph 132 of the Administration Report of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts for 1896-97 it will be observed that the naka establishment was during that year utilized in registering the internal trade on the principal railway feeder roads of the western half of the province, viz., on the roads from Malkapur to Murtizapur. In the year under report they were moved to the following roads on the eastern stations of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts so as to complete the internal registration of the whole province :—

1. Amraoti for the Kholapur road.
2. Do. for the Morsi road.
3. Badnera for the Amraoti road.
4. Do. for the Karinja road.
5. Bulgaon for the Ellichpur road.
6. Do. for the Chandur Bazar road.
7. Dhamangaon for the Yeotmal road.
8. Do. for the Arvi road.
9. Murtizapur for the Karinja road.
10. Do. for the Kholapur road.

Imports and exports.

131. The total imports amounted to 1,493,564 maunds valued at Rs. 1,86,91,753, and the exports to 928,296 maunds valued at Rs. 87,65,074. The volume of trade was largest in the articles specified below :—

Name of article.	Imports. Mds.	Exports. Mds.
Cotton, raw...	933,315	64,103
Cotton, manufactured	8,029	42,392
Grain and pulse	256,211	309,486

Provisions	5,526	22,104
Salt	3,378	87,743
Spices	3,870	69,979

The most important of the roads along which trade was registered during the year under report was the Dhamangaon-Yeotmal road. By far the largest trade occurred in cotton, and the traffic in this article was heaviest on the Murtizapur-Karinja road. The trade in grain and pulse was considerable, the largest quantity having been brought in from the Wun district by the Dhamangaon-Yeotmal road, and from the Amraoti district by the Badnera-Amraoti road and by the Dhamangaon-Arvi road. Under oilseeds the largest quantity of linseed was brought to Amraoti by the Amraoti-Kholapur road, whilst a considerable quantity of sesamum came from Wun by the Dhamangaon-Yeotmal road.

Omitting Excluded Local Funds, items 8 and 20, the Provincial transactions of the year show a deficit of Rs. 1,23,624 as compared with a surplus of Rs. 5,62,210 in the previous year.

Provincial contra t scheme.

146. The year under review is the nineteenth in which the system has been in force of assigning a certain percentage of the Provincial revenues to the Resident for Civil, Public Works, and Railway expenditure. The proportion for the first four years was 54 per cent., and thereafter up to 1886-87 52 per cent. This was subsequently reduced to 50 per cent. for a period of five years commencing from the year 1887-88; but as this percentage was found insufficient, the Government of India on the representation of the Resident increased the assignment of revenue from 50 to 51 per cent. with effect from 1889-90 to 1891-92. On further consideration, and with reference to the transactions of previous years, the percentage was fixed at 50 per cent. for five years, beginning with the year 1892-93, which arrangement has been allowed to continue for a further period of two years, namely, 1897-98 and 1898-99.

The expenditure of the year chargeable to the Resident's contract has exceeded the percentage of the revenues assigned to him by Rs. 1,24,357 as shown below, and after allowing Rs. 16,970, the balance at credit of the Resident at the beginning of the year, the net debit against the contract stands at Rs. 1,07,387. It will be seen that the Famine Relief expenditure of the year has not been debited against the contract:—

REVENUE AND RECEIPTS.

147. The variations under Revenue and Receipt heads are explained below :— Variations under Revenue and Receipt heads.

A.—Provincial Heads of Revenue.

I.—Land Revenue.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 1,83,450
Better than the actuals of 1896-97 ... „ 1,73,446

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Ordinary revenue	66,17,518	68,14,444	1,96,926	...
Sale proceeds of waste lands and redemption of land tax ...	13,392	4,391	...	9,001
Miscellaneous	44,716	32,598	...	12,118
Miscellaneous (Local) ...	6,478	4,117	...	2,361
	66,82,104	68,55,550	1,96,926	23,480

The Land Revenue collections have not been realized to the extent anticipated at the time the budget was prepared. The increase as compared with the actuals of the previous year is due in part to the recovery of suspensions of revenue allowed in 1896-97 on account of famine and distress.

II.—Opium.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 19,700
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... „ 1,400

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Opium pass fees	1,26,700	1,25,300	...	1,400
Miscellaneous	....	...	...	...
	1,26,700	1,25,300	...	1,400

IV.—Stamps.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 73,359
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... „ 54,393

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Sale of general stamps ...	3,29,953	3,14,863	...	15,090
Sale of court-fee stamps ...	5,43,530	4,99,823	...	43,707

Miscellaneous	61	71	10	...
	8,82,034	8,27,641	5,353	59,746

The decrease in both cases is chiefly in the sale of general and court-fee stamps, and is explained by depression of trade.

V.—Excise.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 2,11,942
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... „ 1,28,943

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
License and distillery fees and duties for the sale of liquors and drugs ..	11,81,780	10,43,079		1,38,701
Fines, confiscations, and miscellaneous	10,221	19,979	9,758	...
	11,92,001	10,63,058	9,758	1,38,701

The decrease in both cases is chiefly noticed under country spirits, still-head duty, and opium, and is partly due to bad harvests and to scarcity and distress in Berar.

VI.—Provincial Rates.

Do. actuals of 1896-97... ... „ 5,362

Minor Head.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Rates and Cesses on lands (Local) ...	6,23,597	6,28,959	5,362	...

The receipts under this head fluctuate with the land revenue demand, which will vary according to the crops cultivated. The variations in the year under report were small.

VII.—Customs.

Better than the estimate ... . Rs. 8,753
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... „ 4,703

Minor Head.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Excise duty on cotton manufactures ..	14,050	18,753	4,703	...

This is a new source of income which came into existence from 1895-96. The increase in both cases is due to the extension of business in cotton.

VIII.—Assessed Taxes.

Better than the estimate ... ... Rs. 3,075
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... „ 759

Minor Head.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
License Tax (Local)	87,834	87,075	...	759

The increase over the estimates is made up of small items in some districts. The decrease in actuals as compared with the last year is small, and calls for no remarks.

IX.—Forest.

Below the estimate... ... ... Rs. 85,650
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... ... „ 1,17,469

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.

III. Drift and waif wood and confiscated forest produce	231	346	115	...
V. Miscellaneous	4,735	4,020	...	715
	5,17,819	4,00,350	115	1,17,584

The decrease in both cases chiefly occurs under "II. Timber, &c.," and is due to a falling off in the demand for timber, people being too poor to buy, while forest traders sought employment on relief works. The receipts under grazing are below the actuals of 1896-97 owing to unusually high prices having been obtained in that year for fodder grass owing to scarcity.

X.—Registration.

Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... „ 426

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897 98.	Increase.	Decrease.

Interest on arrears of revenue ...	1,859	3,213	1,354	...
	8,469	11,318	2,849	...

This is a fluctuating head of account, and the differences call for no special remarks.

C.—Post Office, Telegraph, and Mint.

XIII.—Post Office.

The amounts credited under this head are insignificant, and call for no remarks.

D.—Receipts by Civil Department.

XVI-A.—Law and Justice—Courts of Law.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 8,861
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... ... „ 17,399

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Sale proceeds of unclaimed and escheated property	18,677	9,870	...	8,807

Miscellaneous	724	413	...	311
	71,538	54,139	125	17,524

The decrease in both cases chiefly occurs under the heads "Sale proceeds of unclaimed and escheated property" and "General fees, fines, and forfeitures," and "Court fees realized in cash." The first two are fluctuating heads of account not subject to regular influences. The decrease under Court-fees realized in cash is partly due to the operation of the orders requiring fees in the Aurangabad and Jalna Courts to be realized in stamps instead of in cash since July 1897.

XVI-B.—Law and Justice—Jails.

Do. actuals of 1896-97... ... „ 54

Minor Heads.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Decrease.

Jail manufactures	26,143	25,230	...	913
	30,449	30,503	967	913

The increase over the estimate occurs under the following heads:—

Receipts from the Abkari Fund for maintenance of Secunderabad convicts ... ... Rs. 972
Jail manufactures ... ... „ 5,230

In 1897-98 the dieting charges per head was Rs. 48-12-0 against Rs. 28-3-0 in 1896-97. This accounts for the increase in the amount recovered from the Secunderabad Abkari Fund for maintenance of Secunderabad convicts. The increase under manufactures chiefly represents the value of clothing supplied to the Police Department and materials for road-making supplied to the Public Works Department.

XVII.—Police.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 6,210
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... ... „ 2,470

Do (Local)	174	143	...	31
	99,260	96,790	9,486	11,906

The decrease in both cases is chiefly due to less receipts under cattle pounds and sale proceeds of unclaimed cattle.

The increase in actuals under police supplied to railways is due to recovery of arrears.

XIX.—Education.

Below the estimate ... ... Rs. 9,739
Do. actuals of 1896-97 ... ... „ 12,267

Do. (Local)	233	115	...	118
	91,528	79,261	1,100	13,367

The decrease in both cases is chiefly due to the municipal contributions being discontinued from 1st April 1897, the maintenance of primary schools within municipal limits being undertaken by municipalities.

XX.—Medical.

The decrease in both cases is chiefly under the head "Gain by exchange," and is due to the fact that supply bills on Bombay are now generally issued for Government instead of Halli Sicca rupees owing to the more extended use of Government currency for adjustment of transactions between Berar and India.

The increase over the estimates is due to the receipt during 1897-98 of the capitalized value of order of merit allowances and rewards from the African Government.

The decrease in actuals as compared with 1896-97 is under the head "Value of stores returned to arsenal," and is explained by the fact that a larger quantity of arms was returned to the arsenal in 1896-97 owing to reduction in the strength of the corps of the Hyderabad Contingent.

Under Civil expenditure the principal increases and the heads under which they occurred were as follows:—

Heads of Account.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Remarks.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
6. Stamps ...	35,295	38,482	3,187	The increase is chiefly under the head Value of stamp paper supplied from Central Stores, and is due to the adjustment of an item of Rs. 2,396 in 1897-98 on account of supplies in 1896-97.
7. Excise ...	17,016	24,118	7,102	The increase is due to additional establishment entertained in connection with the extension of the central distillery system to the Akola district and a portion of the Buldana district.
11. Forest ...	2,41,871	2,44,051	2,180	The increase is under the heads B.-I. (a) and (c). The first head includes debit of pay of Conservator for March 1898 drawn in that month instead of in April (the following year) owing to the officer's departure on furlough. The increase under the second head is due to re-organization of the Subordinate Forest and Depôt establishment.

Heads of account.	1896-97.	1897-98.	Increase.	Remarks.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
12. Registration ...	51,610	53,669	2,059	The increase is due to increased establishment for the Registration Department.
18. General Administration.	3,52,634	3,57,060	4,426	The increase is under travelling allowances and tour charges of Resident and staff.
19-A. Law and Justice—Courts of Law.	3,12,034	3,22,034	10,000	The increase is chiefly due to the debit to this head of the furlough allowance of Mr. C. E. Biddulph and the pay of the Judicial Superintendent, Aurangabad. There is also an increase on account of diet and travelling allowances to witnesses.
19-B Law and Justice—Jails.	1,33,404	1,83,492	50,088	The increase is under diet of prisoners and diet money and travelling allowances of under-trial prisoners.

35. Famine Relief ...	90,310	4,87,332	3,97,022	This is a special expenditure caused by the prevalence of famine in Berar.
38. State Railways.	97,939	1,06,800	8,861	Due to the percentages of working expenses on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway being higher than those of the previous year.
44. Military Works.	25,658	37,697	12,039	The increase under original works, repairs, and establishment is due to the completion of certain new works in 1897-98.

Total ...	40,43,060	43,91,423	4,11,923	63,560

The difference is chiefly under (1) musketry instruction; (2) salaries of Station Staff officers; and (3) exchange compensation allowance. During 1896-97 a musketry class was held, while in 1897-98 there was none. The decrease under "Salaries" is due to the comparatively less debit in 1897-98 on account of furlough pay and to the appointment of an officer holding a regimental appointment in addition to his own duties, whose half staff salary only was debited to this head. The decrease in exchange compensation allowance is mainly due to the comparatively lower rate of exchange during 1897-98.

Grant 1.—Army and Garrison Staff, decrease Rs. 4,599.

The decrease shown here represents the net result of (1) an increase under Artillery consequent on a comparatively larger debit on account of the salary of Subalterns, no officers having proceeded on leave during 1897-98, and under Infantry owing to the reliefs in 1897-98; and (2) decrease under the above and other heads which is chiefly due to the absorption of the supernumerary sowars and sepoys in the Lancer and Infantry regiments and to the actual strength of the regiments being short of the established strength in rank and file, besides the comparatively lower rate of exchange during 1897-98 for the grant of exchange compensation allowance.

Grant 3.—Regimental pay, allowances, and charges, decrease Rs. 33,081.

The increase is mainly under compensation for dearness of grain to men and animals and the feed of battery horses and bullocks as well as regimental transport owing to the rise in prices.

Grant 4.—Commissariat establishment, increase Rs. 3,73,329.

The increase is due to the purchase of a larger number of remounts and bullocks.

Grant 5.—Remount and Veterinary establishments, increase Rs. 17,147.

The increase under this head represents the net result of a comparatively large debit under cost of clothing owing to an adjustment (A) made in 1897-98 on account of the supply in 1896-97 combined with less debit (B) in 1897-98 on account of compensation in lieu of clothing. $\frac{A+Rs.\ 31,936.}{B-Rs.\ 27,746.}$

Grant 6.—Clothing establishments, increase Rs. 4,110.

The decrease is mainly under cost of ordnance stores, and is due to the supply of new carriages, &c., to two batteries of Hyderabad Contingent during 1896-97.

Grant 10.—Ordnance establishments, decrease Rs. 24,017.

The decrease under this head is due to a smaller number of officers entitled to passage money having proceeded to Europe on medical certificate, while there was no charge on account of officers travelling from port to port in India on their appointment to Hyderabad Contingent.

Grant 13.—Sea transport charges, decrease Rs. 1,540.

The increase under this grant is due to the compensation sanctioned for loss of Assamis reduced in Lancer regiments and to the Malakand Field Force and North-west Frontier disturbance charges adjusted under this grant.

Grant 14.—Miscellaneous services, increase Rs. 12,267.

The increase is due to certain Native officers of Hyderabad Contingent having been admitted to the 2nd class order of British India and to the grant of special gratuities for meritorious services to the men of the Hyderabad Contingent during 1897-98.

Grant 16.—Rewards for Military services, increase Rs. 2,008.

The increase is chiefly due to the adjustment of arrears of pension of a medical warrant officer and to the comparatively larger amount of contribution on account of Royal Artillery officers after allowing for the decrease under other heads consequent on the lower rate of exchange and deaths.

Grant 17.—Military pensions to Europeans, increase Rs. 2,496.

The increase is chiefly under gratuities to discharged native soldiers and regimental followers due to the abolition of grass-cutters in the three batteries of Artillery, Hyderabad Contingent, besides the grant of a special pension of Rs. 300 in lieu of jagir to a native commissioned officer of the 5th Infantry, Hyderabad Contingent, after allowing for the decrease under other heads owing to a comparatively less number of pensioners during the year 1897-98.

Grant 18.—Military pensions to natives, increase Rs. 487.

CHAPTER VI.

VITAL STATISTICS AND MEDICAL RELIEF.

SECTION I.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS.

System of registration.

156. The system of registration remained unchanged during the year under report. There was an improvement in the work of supervision. The mistakes discovered in registration, which showed an average of 4 per cent. for the whole province, were not high. Thus it may be said that on the whole vital statistics in Berar are now recorded with a very fair approach to accuracy.

Births, provincial figures.

157. The total number of births registered in 1897 was 113,364 as compared with 109,013 in 1896. The birth-rate of the year per mille was 39·7, or 1·4 in excess of the previous year, and 2·1 more than the average rate for the preceding term of five years. The increase in the birth-rate was confined to the first six months of the year before the effects of famine had had time to diminish the fecundity of the population, and towards the end of the year—notably in December— when the effects of the famine really had time to show themselves, the birth-rate fell considerably below the decennial mean.

Births according to districts.

158. The birth-rate per mille ranged from 40·4 in the Akola district to 37 in the Basim district. The rates for the other districts were very similar to that of Akoia.

Births according to sex.

159. Of the births registered (113,364), 58,511 were those of males and 54,853 of females. These figures give a proportion of 106·7 male births to every 100 female births against a proportion of 105·3 in 1896.

Still births.

160. The number of still births registered, but not included in the provincial returns, was 5,357 as compared with 5,104 in the previous year. Of this number 3,076 were males and 2,281 females, or 134·8 still male births to every 100 still female births. The proportion of still to live births was 4·7 against 4·6 per cent. in 1896.

Deaths, provincial figures.

161. The total number of deaths registered among the native population during the year under report was 150,222 as compared with 124,787 in 1896 and 112,272 the mean of the previous five years. The death-rate in proportion to population was 52·6 per 1,000, a rate which has only been exceeded once since the commencement of registration in 1868, and that was in the famine year of 1878, which returned the appalling rate of 81·5. The main cause of the high mortality of the year was the famine, viz., local scarcity and high prices combined with immigration of starving people from the Central Provinces. As was natural in a year of distress, the principal and most fatal diseases of the province were fevers and bowel complaints, both of which accounted for 91,160 deaths.

Deaths according to districts.

162. According to districts, the death-rate per mille ranged from 61·1 in the Amraoti district to 42·1 in the Wun district. The rates for the remaining four districts of Akola, Ellich pur, Buldana, and Basim were 55·5, 54 9, 54·2, and 43·5 respectively. The high mortality in the Amraoti district was due to the large influx of the famine-stricken from the Central Provinces in search of food and work.

Death-rate according to sex.

163. Of the deaths registered (150,222) 81,183 were those of males and 69,039 those of females.

Death-rate according to age.

164. The following statement shows the death-rate as distributed according to different ages per 1,000 of population living at those ages :—

Age.	1896. Rate per 1,000.	1897. Rate per 1,000.
Under one year	53·0	378·4
Do 5 years	89·5	96·0
Do 10 do	22·9	23·2
Do 15 do	15·2	14·8
Do 20 do	16·8	16·0
Do 30 do	20·7	20·2
Do 40 do	24·9	26·3
Do 50 do	31·4	37·5
Do 60 do	54·5	67·6
60 and upwards	102·0	138·7

Deaths according to classes.

165. The following table exhibits the number of deaths in each class and their ratios per mille :—

Class.	Population.	1896. Deaths registered.	1896. Deaths per 1,000 of population.	1897. Deaths registered.	1897. Deaths per 1,000 of population.
Hindus	2,523,087	107,468	42·7	130,856	51·9
Other classes	119,337	9,313	78·0	9,868	82·7
Muhammadans	206,259	7,965	39·1	9,439	45·8
Christians	1,326	41	83·3	59	44·8

Causes of death.

166. The following table shows the death-rate from the principal diseases during the year as compared with 1896 and the mean of the previous five years :—

Causes of death.	1897.	1896.	1892-96. Mean.
Cholera	3·5	4·3	2·2
Small-pox	·2	·3	·2
Fevers	23·0	21·8	20·0
Dysentery and diarrhœa	10·3	6·2	5·8
Injuries	·5	·3	·4
Other causes	15·1	10·9	11·0

Compared with 1896 there was a decrease in mortality under "cholera" and "small-pox," and an increase under "fevers," "bowel complaints," "injuries," and "other causes."

SECTION II.

IMMIGRATION AND EMIGRATION.

167. Berar not being a maritime province, it is unnecessary to record anything under this head.

MEDICAL RELIEF.

Number of civil hospitals and charitable dispensaries.

168. During 1897 a new dispensary at Ralegaon in the Wun district was opened, and this increased the total number of civil hospitals and charitable dispensaries in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts from 46 to 47. The hospital at Kalamkar was transferred during the year under report to Dharni in the Melghat.

Patients treated.

169. The following table shows the extent of medical relief afforded in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts during 1896 and 1897:—

Year.	In-door patients.						Out-door patients.		Total of in-door and out-door patients.
	Number treated.	Number cured.	Deaths.	Percentage of deaths to total treated.	Number of beds available.	Average daily attendance.	Number treated.	Average daily attendance.
1896 ...	4,500	3,647	349	7·8	322	129·10	340,134	2,040·34	344,634
1897 ...	6,789	5,134	926	13·6	322	215·57	318,977	1,888·70	325,766

There was thus a rise in the number of in-door patients and a fall in the number of out-door patients. The Inspector-General of Dispensaries explains this increase and decrease thus:—

> Relief centres attracted the labouring classes whose physical condition enabled them to work, thus diminishing the out-door attendance; whilst the physically unfit and wanderers suffering from chronic starvation found their way into our hospitals.

Classification of patients.

170. Of the total number (325,766) treated, 155,735 were men, 51,988 women, and 118,043 children, or classified according to race 980 were Europeans, 2,055 Eurasians, 195,030 Hindus, 115,870 Muhammadans, and 11,831 belonged to other classes.

Surgical operations.

171. According to the new classification prescribed by the Government of India in their Home Department No. $\frac{6\text{-Medical}}{245}$, dated the 14th March 1896, the total number of patients on whom surgical operations were performed during the year under report, including the 29 patients remaining under treatment from the previous year, was 9,944. Of this number 9,742 were cured, 158 were either relieved or discharged, and 23 died. On the last day of the year there remained 21 patients still undergoing treatment.

Lady Dufferin's Hospital.

173. The work of the Lady Dufferin's Hospital for women and children at Amraoti showed an improvement under every head. The total number of in-door patients treated in the hospital during 1897 was 257 against 128 in the preceding year, and the number of persons who received out-door treatment was 5,913 as compared with 5,806 in 1896. The total number of operations performed increased from 161 in 1896 to 182 in 1897. The expenditure on the institution during the year under report was Rs. 5,341, thus showing a slight increase of Rs. 13 over that of the previous year.

Sale of quinine.

174. The system of selling quinine by postal agency showed less favourable results during the year under report as compared with the previous year. This was due to the pressure of high rates of food-grains on the people. The number of packets received during the year was 900 against 1,150 in 1896, and the number disposed of 861 against 948.

SECTION IV.

SANITATION.

Expenditure on sanitation by Municipalities.

175. The twelve municipalities in the Hyderabad Assigned Districts spent an aggregate amount of Rs. 1,69,159 during 1897 on sanitary works against Rs. 1,70,515 in 1896. The details are shown below :—

Year.	Drainage.	Water-supply.	Domestic cleansing, i.e., conservancy.	Other sanitary works.	Total.	Percentage of expenditure on municipal income.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1896	10,208	71,180	59,988	29,139	1,70,515	74·
1897	10,592	57,904	66,853	33,810	1,69,159	71·

During 1896 the expenditure on water-supply included nearly Rs. 35,600 on account of the completion of the Akola water-works project. During the year under report the largest item spent under this head was Rs. 25,000, and this amount was expended on repairs to the Khamgaon tank, which were carried out as a famine relief work.

Expenditure on sanitation by District Boards.

176. The following table shows the total expenditure incurred by District Boards on sanitation during 1896 and 1897 :—

Year.	Drainage.	Water-supply.	Domestic cleansing, i.e., conservancy.	Other sanitary works.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1896	12,690	28,950	37,217	3,838	82,695
1897	8,319	55,939	38,650	2,567	1,05,475

Sanitary survey and record.

177. During the early part of 1897 medical arrangements for famine relief camps and poor-houses had to be made, and in the latter part of the year measures to prevent the spread of the plague into Berar had to be taken. Hence much work could not be done during the year under report in connection with sanitary survey. Only 78 villages were therefore surveyed during 1897 against 1 town and 152 villages in 1896, bringing the total number of towns and villages surveyed since 1888 to 38 and 882 respectively. The number of towns and villages that still remained to be surveyed in the province at the end of 1897 were 3 and 4,361 respectively.

During the year under report the work regarding the maintenance of permanent sanitary record was put in hand and the village "Sanitary Inspection Book" giving the sanitary history of the place was introduced in five selected villages in each of the six districts of the province. But the record was not completed in all cases owing to the fact that the Sanitary Department had, as already explained, to attend to other work connected with famine and plague.

SECTION V.

VACCINATION.

Staff.

178. There was no change in the number of vaccinators employed on vaccination work in the province, viz., 44, and the establishment worked up to its full complement.

Work done.

179. The following abstract compares the vaccination work done during 1897-98 with that of the previous year :—

Year.	Primary vaccination.			Re-vaccination.			Average number of persons vaccinated by each vaccinator.
	Total.	Successful.	Percentage of success.	Total.	Successful.	Percentage of success.
1896-97 ...	98,594	95,529	96·8	21,717	4,462	20·5	2,729
1897-98 ...	95,048	91,667	96·4	30,241	9,095	30·0	2,847

The outturn of work is considered satisfactory on the whole having regard to the famine distress of 1897 and the high mortality of the year under report. The decrease shown above in primary vaccination is attributable to the very high mortality amongst children in a year of scarcity and distress.

Of the 91,667 successful primary operations, 73,534 were performed on infants under one year, 14,241 on children between one and six years of age, and 3,892 on children over six years of age, and adults. Thus out of 100 persons successfully vaccinated, 80·2 were infants, 15·6 children between one and six, and 4·2 of other ages.

Influence of vaccination in checking small-pox.

180. The following table demonstrates the efficacy of vaccination in diminishing mortality from small-pox :—

	Average for the five years ending with
	1872-73.	1877-78.	1882-83.	1887-88.	1892-93.	1897-98.
Ratio per 1,000 succesfully vaccinated.	8·92	25·72	31·2	34·68	35·8	33·6
Death-rate per 1,000 from small-pox.	2·02	1·56	0·58	0·38	0·2	0·19

It will be seen from the figures of each of the quinquennial periods mentioned above that the death-rate from small-pox has steadily declined as vaccination has advanced.

Expenditure.

181. The entire cost of the department was, as usual, met from Provincial revenues, and amounted to Rs. 17,549, or was Rs. 24 less than in 1396-97. Of this amount Rs. 17,093 represented the pay of the sanctioned establishment against Rs. 17,070 in the preceding year. The average cost of successful vaccination during the year under report was the same as in 1896-97, viz., 2 annas and 9 pies.

CHAPTER VII.

INSTRUCTION.

SECTION I.

GENERAL SYSTEM OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

182. Information regarding the general system of public instruction will be found on paragraphs 197 to 206 on pages 95 to 98 of the Administration Report for 1892-93.

SECTION II.

EDUCATION.

Number of schools and scholars.

183. The famine which raged from April to September 1897 had a disastrous effect on the condition of the people, especially of the agricultural and the labouring classes, and retarded the general progress of education in the province. The number of schools and scholars fell off and schools of all classes suffered, but indigenous schools, which mainly depend upon the support of the people, suffered the most. The percentage of male scholars to male population of school-going age was 21·68 against 22·62 in 1896-97, and of female scholars to female population 1·74 against 1·76. The following table shows the different classes of schools and the pupils in them at the close of the years 1896-97 and 1897-98:—

* This includes two girls who are being trained in the Municipal Marathi Girls' schools at Khamgaon and Akola as pupil-teachers.

Though there was no change in the number of Government high and middle schools during the year under report, the number of scholars attending them decreased by 107. For the first time during the year under report some of the district board primary schools were transferred to municipal management.

Distribution of boys' schools by districts.

184. The statement below exhibits the distribution of schools for boys by districts during 1896-97 and 1897-98:—

University education.

185. The total number of students holding Berar scholarships in the colleges of the Bombay Presidency on the 31st March 1898 was 9 against 8 at the end of 1896-97. During the year under report one of the scholars passed the "Previous" examination and three the "Intermediate" examination. Of the students who received their education in the local high schools, but who did not receive any scholarships, three passed the "Intermediate" examination, one the B. A. examination, two the first LL.B. examination, and three the second LL.B. examination.

Secondary education.

186. The total number of secondary schools, both public and private, and the pupils studying in them, have already been shown in the opening paragraph of this section. The average daily attendance in the two Government High Schools was 337 and in the 24 Government Middle or Anglo-Vernacular Schools 2,594. The aggregate cost of these 26 institutions was Rs. 74,560 as compared with Rs. 72,405 in 1896-97, and the total cost of educating each pupil was Rs. 20-15-5 against Rs. 19-13-7 in the preceding year. Of the total expenditure during the year under report, Provincial revenues contributed Rs. 52,163, school fees Rs. 18,096, and Municipal Funds and subscriptions Rs. 4,300; and out of the total cost of educating each pupil Rs. 14-10-8 came from Provincial revenues. The aggregate cost of the two high schools alone amounted to Rs. 21,785 against Rs. 21,543 in the previous year, of which a very large portion was met from Provincial revenues.

During the year under report the number of private secondary institutions rose from 2 to 3 owing to the opening of a new middle school at Darwha in the Wun district. This school had 11 pupils on its rolls. The private high school at Amraoti continued to do good work, and had 150 students at the end of March 1898 on its rolls against 137 at the corresponding period of the previous year. The strength of the private middle school at Amraoti rose from 60 in 1896-97 to 61 in 1897-98. The number of Anglo-Vernacular classes to which high school classes were attached also rose from 7 to 10.

Matriculation.

187. The two public high schools at Amraoti and Akola sent up 37 candidates (Akola 15 and Amraoti 22) for the matriculation examination of the Bombay University, of whom 24 (or nearly 65 per cent.) were successful, Amraoti passing 11 and Akola 13.

The private high school at Amraoti sent up 8 candidates for the same examination, and 5 of them passed. Besides this number, one student belonging to this institution who appeared for the examination privately was also successful.

Primary public schools for boys under public management.

188. The number of primary schools under public management increased by 11, but the number of pupils in them fell by 860. The long period of high prices was followed by an abundant harvest, and the difficulty of getting labourers to gather it in is said to have kept man y boys out of the schools. Further details will be found in the following table:—

The expenditure from provincial revenues rose considerably during 1897-98, and this was due to the payment for the first time of grants-in-aid to Municipalities for the management of primary schools within municipal limits equal to one-third of the total ordinary expenditure.

Primary public schools for boys under private management.

189. There was a large decrease in the number of indigenous schools in the province during the year due, as already stated, to the unfavourable circumstances of the year. With a view to improve the stability and efficiency of these institutions, the grant-in-aid rules applying to them were revised on the lines of the Bombay rules and brought into force with effect from the 1st November 1897. Particulars regarding these schools are furnished below.

Education of Europeans and Eurasians.

190. Hitherto the Catholic school at Amraoti was the only school in the province for Europeans and Eurasians; but during the year under report another school was started by the Protestant community called the "European Protestant School at Amraoti." The strength of the Catholic school at the end of the year 1897-98 was 22 boys and 35 girls against 20 boys and 38 girls at the end of the preceding year. The number on the rolls of the new school on the 31st March 1898 was 25 boys and 16 girls.

Education of Mahammadans.

191. The following table gives statistics relating to Government, District Board, and Municipal Hindustani schools:—

Total No. of schools on 31st March						Total No. of scholars on 31st March						Total No. of pupils examined and passed under different standards.
1897.			1898.			1897.			1898.			Examined.	Passed.

This statement does not show the number of Muhammadan boys attending other than Hindustani or Anglo-Hindustani schools. If the 40 Muhammadan boys attending the high schools, 10 boys attending the Training College, 1 boy attending the Industrial school at Amraoti, and 2,256 boys studying in the Marathi and Anglo-Marathi schools are also taken into account and the 196 non-Muhammadan boys are omitted, the total number of Muhammadan pupils in all classes of schools under public management works out to 6,674 in 1897-98 against 6,753 in 1896-97. Adding to this the total number of Muhammadan pupils in schools under private management, the aggregate number of Muhammadan pupils under instruction at the close of the year under report was 7,143 against 7,461 at the end of the previous year.

Education of aborigines.

192. During the year under report there were two schools for the aboriginal races—one at Chikalda and the other at Dharni. On the 31st March 1898 the total number of aboriginal pupils was 206 against 213 at the close of the previous year. Sixty pupils were examined during the year, of whom 38 or 63·3 per cent. passed.

Education of low-castes.

193. The number of low-caste pupils under instruction fell from 1,970 in 1896-97 to 1,728 in 1897-98.

Female education.

194. From the table attached to the opening paragraph of this section it will be observed that the total number of schools for girls fell from 50 to 49, and the number of girls under instruction from 3,720 to 3,663. Still the average monthly number on the rolls and the average daily attendance showed an increase. In the 45 District Board and Municipal schools there were 1,854 girls and in the 3 aided schools there were 108 girls. Besides this, girls attending boys' schools numbered 1,626 against 1,709 in 1896-97. The cost of educating each girl in the District Board and Municipal schools rose from Rs. 6-7-7 to Rs. 7-1-10. The number of passes under the several standards of study showed an increase. On the whole, in spite of the adverse circumstances of the year, female education made some progress.

195. The following is a comparative statement for the last five years of the pupils in Government, District Board, and Municipal schools classified according to race or creed :— Classification of pupils by race or creed.

196. The total number of gymnasia rose from 533 to 552, and the number visited by the gymnastic teachers of the various circles from 438 to 471. Most of the District Board primary schools possessed gymnastic apparatus of a simple nature, and schoolmasters were required to see that it was regularly used. Gymnastics and drill formed part of the curriculum in the High and Anglo-Vernacular schools as well as in the Training College, and every pupil was required to work in the gymnasium or play-ground under the superintendence of his class master. Physical education.

197. The scheme for the reorganization of the Training College at Akola introduced in December 1896 was in full operation during the year under report. The number of pupils in the college on the 31st March 1898 was 49—41 on the Marathi side and 8 on the Hindustani side—against 60 in the previous year. The first certificate examination under the new scheme was held in October 1897, but the results obtained were not as satisfactory as could be desired. Eleven students passed in the examination for the first year's course, 16 in that for the second year, and two in that for the third year. It is considered that it will require one or two years more to produce satisfactory results under the new scheme. Thirty-three students obtained employment as masters and assistant masters against 31 in the preceding year. Institutions for training teachers.

198. The two public high schools in the province and the Training College sent up 77 candidates for the first grade examination of the Bombay School of Arts, and 26 of them passed and obtained certificates. Besides this, two boys —one from the Amraoti and the other from the Akola High School—passed the 2nd grade Art Examination and obtained certificates. Drawing.

199. As in the previous year, there were two industrial schools in the province—one at Amraoti and the other at Akola. The school at Amraoti continued to be under the superintendence of Mr. Talvalkar, Head Master, Amraoti High School. It had on its rolls eighteen students on the 31st March 1898 against seventeen in the preceding year—six in the carpentry class, five in the smithing class, and seven in the tailoring class. The total cost of maintaining the school amounted to Rs. 1,589-3-9, while the net profits of the year came to Rs. 587-11-0. The number of pupils in the Akola Industrial School at the end of the year under report was 16 against 12 in the preceding year. Industrial training.

Rao Saheb Deorao Venayak's Practical Engineering class at Akola had 24 pupils against 18 in the previous year, and did very useful work.

200. At the end of the year under report there were four patwari classes in the province; they were attended by 39 pupils in all against 55 in the previous year. Instruction of candidates for patwarishipsin land measuring.

School fees and popular contributions.

201. The total amount of fees realized in all classes of Government schools and in the local board primary schools was Rs. 55,443 against Rs. 57,950 in 1896-97. Of the former amount Rs. 6,452 were collected from high, Rs. 13,087 from middle, and Rs. 35,904 from primary schools. The amount contributed by the people for educational purposes was Rs. 9,723 against Rs. 9,834 in 1896-97.

The decrease in the amount of fees realized during the year was due partly to the fall in attendance and partly to the collection of fees in primary schools at the old rates, the new rates being held in abeyance owing to the famine.

Expenditure.

202. The total expenditure of the department fell from Rs. 4,24,577 to Rs. 4,09,566, showing a decrease of Rs. 15,011. In 1896-97 there was a decrease of Rs. 12,694. The decrease during the year under report occurred chiefly under "Buildings," "Inspection," "Grants-in-aid," and "Government Book Depôt."

SECTION III.

LITERATURE AND THE PRESS.

Work done by the Text Book Committee.

203. At the beginning of 1897-98 the Text Book Committee had ten books on hand for review. No books were sent to it during the year. One book was reported on, and the remaining nine were under consideration.

Book depôts.

204. There was no change in the number of book depôts during 1897-98. There was, as usual, one Central Book Depôt at Akola with 29 branch depôts attached to Government or Local Board schools in towns and villages in all districts. The stock account of the depôt for the year was as under :—

	Rs.	a.	p.
Value of the balance of stock on the 31st March 1897	21,600	5	4
Add cost of books and maps purchased during the year	17,323	12	0

Deduct value of books and maps sold during the year	16,801	12	7
Value of balance on 31st March 1897 ...	22,122	4	9

Literature.

205. The number of books registered under Act XXV of 1897 during the year under report was 15 against 11 in the preceding year. Eleven of these were issues of the Berar School Paper and Berar Educational Directory for 1897, which were printed at the Shuddha Varhadi Press at Akola, and the remaining three, viz., Translated extracts of Berar Police Orders, Rastriya Sabha (or National Congress), and Rastriya Samajik Parishada (or Social Conference) were printed at the Pramod Sindhu Press, Amraoti. None of these books was registered for copyright.

Public libraries.

206. The number of libraries or reading rooms opened during the year was 2 and the number closed was 5. Consequently the number on the 31st March 1898 was 34 against 37 on the corresponding date of the preceding year.

Printing presses.

207. The number of printing presses during 1897-98 was the same as in the two preceding years, viz., 11. But during the year under report one of the presses in the Akola district was removed to the Amraoti district. Thus there were 4 in the Akola district, 5 in the Amraoti district, and 2 in the Ellichpur district.
